

IN SOCIETY

MISS ELIZABETH HUBER, daughter of Oskar E. Huber and one of Portland's social favorites, whose engagement was announced Saturday at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Holt Cookingham, her sister. She will become the bride of Clift Cornwall of Shorthills, N. J.

Charming Girl To Leave Here Upon Marriage

ANOTHER charming Portland girl, a daughter of an old family of the city, has left Oregon to shake her home following her marriage. Miss Dorothy Rankin, whose marriage to Harold Buckland of Milwaukee, Wis., was an event of Saturday afternoon, departed following the wedding reception for the East, where she will reside. The ceremony was performed at 4:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, O. M. Rankin, in Humphrey boulevard, Saturday afternoon, the Rev. William G. Elliot, pastor of the Church of Our Father, officiating. Miss Marjorie Rankin, sister of the bride, was her attendant and Mack Allan was best man. The bride wore a smart frock of ivory-toned satin cut on becoming lines and worn with her mother's wedding veil, and a circlet of orange blossoms. Her flowers were Ophelia roses. Miss Marjorie Rankin's gown was of white satin with georgette crepe. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Raymond G. Jubitz, aunt of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Buckland left Saturday night to make their home in Milwaukee, Wis.

Among the Portland women who are on the patroness list for the night horse show, which will be one of the features of interest at the state fair at Salem this week are: Mrs. C. E. Grell, Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis, Mrs. James H. Murphy, Mrs. Natl McDougall, Miss Carrie Flinders, Mrs. Ralph W. Wilson, Mrs. W. U. Sanderson, Miss Mabel Lawrence, Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Mrs. Oswald West, Portland; Mrs. Fred A. Martin, Garden Home; Mrs. Ralph Jenkins of Beaverton, and from Salem, Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. George White, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. W. C. Hawley.

Miss Annie Blanche Shelby, who has been absent from the city for an extended period, has again taken up her residence at the Hotel Portland. The first portion of the summer she spent in Victoria, B. C., and for the past fortnight she has been in Albany. At Albany she was present at the sacerdotal silver jubilee and investiture of protonotary apostolic at instar of her cousin, Right Rev. Monsignor Arthur Lane, on September 6.

Mrs. Frederick W. Leadbetter was hostess for a luncheon at Waverley Country club Thursday, honoring Mrs. Stuart Courtney and Mrs. Edgar Park of Santa Barbara, who were visitors in the city for the day. Mrs. Park and Mrs. Courtney have been spending a short time at the home of Mrs. Frank G. Andraea at Salem and left Portland Thursday evening for Pendleton to attend the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Beckley (Hazel Kurtz) returned from a motor trip to Boise, Idaho, and taken apartments in Silver Court, in Irvington.

Mr. and Mrs. Alma D. Kats enjoyed a recent trip to Mount Hood, making the trip by motor with friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Kistner were hosts for an informal dinner Thursday evening at Waverley Country club.

Miss Sawtell Is Engaged to Dr. L.A. Baldwin

ANNOUNCEMENT was made of the engagement of Miss Doris May Sawtell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sawtell, to Dr. Lyle A. Baldwin, Wednesday afternoon. The news was told at an informal tea. Little Miss Dorothy Webster presented each guest with a pink Russel rose bearing a card with the names of the betrothed couple.

The bride-elect is a former student of the University of Oregon and is a member of Sigma Delta Phi sorority. Dr. Baldwin, who attended the University of California and was graduated from the North Pacific college of Dentistry, class of 1917, is a member of the Delta Sigma Delta fraternity. He served eleven months in France with the American expeditionary forces. The wedding will probably be an event of February.

The first meeting of an informal bridge club which enjoyed a series of affairs together last winter will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Thomas Sloane Barnes. The club includes Mrs. Varnel D. C. Beach, Mrs. Theodore Burney Wilcox, Mrs. Clarence Olmstead, Mrs. William S. Wheeler, Miss Elizabeth Huber, Mrs. Edward H. Thompson, Mrs. Spencer Biddle and Mrs. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Holohan of Laurelhurst have recently returned to that city from a delightful motor trip to Crescent lake.

Closely following upon the announcement of their engagement was the marriage of Miss Marjorie Belt to Maria Campbell which took place at high noon Friday at the home of the bride's uncle, Justice George H. Burnett of the supreme court of Salem. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Belt of Forest Grove. Her sister, Mrs. W. H. Ormsby, and brother, Judge H. H. Belt, make their homes in Portland and another sister, Mrs. R. Fenell, resides in Forest Grove.

The ceremony which was performed by Justice Burnett was witnessed by only a few close friends and relatives of the bridal couple.

The bride has a wide circle of friends in Oregon. At the wedding of Miss Marjorie Campbell, a sister of Mr. Campbell and Wilson B. Coffey, which took place last week, she was one of the bridesmaids. During the war period she was in service with the nurses' unit of Base Hospital 46, with which Mr. Campbell was also in service.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Campbell. In Portland he is in business with the firm of Campbell, Smith & Cook and is affiliated with the University club and other business and social organizations of the city. Following a brief trip, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will return to Portland and will make their home here.

Miss Noni Imhaus and Miss Agnes McBride will leave the city Monday for an extended trip east. They plan to spend several weeks in Boston and in New York city, where they will be guests at the home of Miss Blanche Clark and Mr. Clemens Fowler, both former Portlanders. They will be absent from the city about two months.

Among the students who returned to the University of Oregon last week to resume their studies were Miss Beatrice Crawford, Miss Beulah Clark, Miss Elaine Cooper and Miss Mary Parkinson.

Winter Program At Laurelhurst Will Be Active

LAURELHURST club activities have continued through the summer months and with the completion of the improvements which are under way for the club house, the winter's program promises much of interest. The women's afternoon card party met last Tuesday and was well attended. Mrs. Kenneth Froeman and Mrs. J. Will were hostesses. At-bridge honors fell to Mrs. John Bontje and Mrs. Jackson Wentworth; in 500, honors were taken by Mrs. Harry Meyer and Mrs. S. G. Honner. At the regular Thursday night dance the largest attendance of the season enjoyed the affair. The women's progressive unit will meet Tuesday at 3 o'clock and the fortnightly card party for members only will take place Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Craig as hosts for the affair.

A wedding of interest to Portland friends is that of Miss Nellie J. Leake and Elmer J. Field, which took place Sept. 7 in San Francisco. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leake of East Seventy-second street and has made her home in Portland since childhood. Mr. Field is also a Portland man, but since their marriage has lived in San Diego, where he is in business and where they will make their home.

Miss Sarah Bontje of Louisiana, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles T. Chamberlain, was honored at a dancing party for which Dr. and Mrs. Chamberlain were hosts Monday evening at their home in Irvington.

More Elegant Than Ever Fall and Winter Suits

Shown by H. Liebes & Co.

More real, honest values for your money than we have offered in many a day.

The styles were never more charming, the materials and colors were never better adapted to the fall and winter suits.

Some are gorgeously trimmed with fashionable furs, while others are embroidered in very becoming designs.

Every suit in this store has been economically marked.

The Price Range Is

$50 to $300

A good assortment of large sizes.

Distinctively Styled Blouses $10 to $55

From the best blouse makers come the most beautiful blouse creations that were ever known. It would seem that a good part of all the world's beauty was centered in these blouses.

Georgette, duvetyne, crepe de chine, taffeta and crepe meteor are the materials fashioned so beautifully into individualistic modes.

Blouse sketched of heavy black georgette, elaborately beaded with jet, georgette sash with tassels of jet. $35

Weddings Are Main Thought Of Society Now

By Helen Hutehison
DETAILS of weddings which have taken place and rumors of weddings to come seem to be the subject of central interest for the first weeks of the fall season. The announcement of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Huber to Clift Cornwall of Shorthills, N. J., was the latest bit of social gossip of interest in Portland. The news was told at a daintily appointed luncheon for which Mrs. Holt W. Cookingham, a sister of the bride, was hostess at her home in Johnson street Saturday. Ten close friends of the guest of honor were bidden for the occasion.
Miss Huber is a daughter of Oskar E. Huber and a sister of Mrs. Holt W. Cookingham and of Mrs. Kurt Koehler. She attended Miss Catlin's school in Portland and finished at Dana Hall. She is a Junior League girl and has an unusually wide circle of friends in the social contingent of the city.
Mr. Cornwall, who served more than two years in France as a captain in the A. E. F., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cornwall of Shorthills, N. J. He was graduated from the University of Columbia and is in business in New York city. No definite announcement is made of the wedding date, but the event will probably take place in the early spring.

after which Mr. Cornwall will take his bride to New York to live.

One of the attractive teas of the week was that for which Miss Elizabeth Kirby and Miss Geraldine Pilkington were hostesses at the home of the latter in Irvington Monday afternoon, honoring Miss Lucille Evans, whose marriage to Urban F. Diteman, was an event of Saturday evening. At the tea hour Mrs. E. J. Hall, aunt of the guest of honor, and Mrs. John Ross Dickson presided at the tea urns and were assisted by Mrs. John Clark Pilkington and Mrs. L. E. Patterson, who cut the loaves. Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Miriam Holcomb, Anna May Bronough, Margaret Biddle, Dorothy Manville, Dorothy McGuire, Miss Philena King, Miss Imogene Fletcher, Miss Barbara Stapfield, Miss Edna Pence and Mrs. Helen Hall Cudlipp. Miss Evans and Mr. Diteman were also guests of honor at a dance at Waverley Country club, given by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Frost. Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Erwin entertained at a dance for them Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Erwin have sold their attractive home in Laurelhurst and will take apartments at the Campbell Hill hotel after October 1 for the remainder of the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. Chester C. Moore were hosts for an informal dancing party, at their home in Irvington, Saturday night, for their niece, Miss Lois Francis of Ferndale, Cal. The following students shared the honors with Miss Francis: Miss Claire Thornberry who left on Thursday for the university at Eugene; Elmer and Russell Colwell, who are continuing their studies at O. A. C.; Robert Vial, who is returning this week to Stanford university, and Louis Sorenson, who is entering at Oregon Agricultural college. Miss Francis will spend the winter in Portland.

Judge Bean of the federal court of Portland is a visitor in Seaside. He is accompanied by Mrs. Bean.

THE "ATYEH"

Oriental Rug

—is more than a floor covering. It is a picture, eloquent in meaningful symbols, fascinating because of the mysteries that are conjured up in its history. We welcome the opportunity of showing you myriad masterpieces direct from our own buyers in the Orient.

Atyeh Bros.
ALDER AT TENTH

MARINELLO

HAS A BEAUTY AID FOR EVERY NEED

Don't experiment with your complexion troubles. Visit the Marinello Cosmetic Shop, and have an expert analyze and prescribe the proper treatment for your facial troubles.

Phone Marshall 2207
for Appointment
203-4 Broadway Bldg.

DANCING!

RIVERSIDE PARK
MILWAUKEE, 4:30 TO 10:30
EVERY SUNDAY EVENING.

Press's Orchestra—Sutherland Will Sing. Take Oregon City or Milwaukee Car, First and Alder
G. A. SABBETT, Manager.

Many reduced from higher prices.

$75

We know the quality of materials used in them, we know the class of workmanship employed in their making and we know the origination of their styles and we will say that they are above the average suits at this price in every way.

Duvet de Laine
Imported English Tweed
Llama Velours Tricotine

Sizes for misses starting at 16 years; for women, sizes to 44.

New Corset Department
Second Floor

Charge Purchases Billed Nov. 1.

H. Liebes & Co

ESTABLISHED 1864. FURS 140-151 BROADWAY

Store Hours
9 to 5:30