

MISS DOROTHY MANVILLE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Manville of Irvington, who has been a visitor in Pendleton during the Round-Up at the home of Judge Phelps. She will go to Eugene today.

First Dinner Dance Given by University Club

THE University club was the scene of the first of the season's dinner dances Friday evening and members of the club and their friends made up numerous large and small parties for the occasion. One of the parties included Mr. and Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Warren, Mrs. Josephine Andrews, Mrs. Greenville Vernon, A. L. Clark, Dr. William D. Huntington, Albert Wakeman. Another group of friends combined the birthday celebration of the anniversary of Mrs. William S. Wheeler with the dinner dance and from the Wheeler residence made up a party which included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Miss Katherine Holbrook, Miss Susan Chenery, Mr. and Mrs. Varnell, D. C. Beach, Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas Sloan, Barnes, Mrs. E. W. Sherman, P. L. Menefee, Frederick C. Swigert and A. S. Frohman.

Charles S. Holbrook entertained a party of 14 for the occasion and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Green had several guests. Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand C. Smith were present with a small party and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wernicke were among the members of a party of more than 20. C. E. Jones also had guests for the affair and there were several smaller parties.

In Mr. and Mrs. Alan Green's party were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maurice Dooley, Miss Rhoda Rumelin, Miss Katharine Hart, Miss Sara McCully, William Stevens, Donald J. Sterling, Prescott Cookin, ham and Scott Redfield.

Evans-Diteman Nuptials Take Place Saturday

ONE of the pretty wedding ceremonies of the season was that which united Miss Lucile Evans and Urban F. Diteman Jr. in marriage Saturday evening. The service was read in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives in the ballroom of the Malbury hotel, where the bride makes her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hall. The Rev. Opwald W. Taylor was the officiating clergyman.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Elizabeth Kirby sang the bridal hymn. The bride was a charming picture in an unusually smart model of imported lace over crepe georgette fashioned with hoop skirt and ornamented with silver ribbons and tiny French flowers. The short length bridal veil of tulle depended from a circlet of orange blossoms and was also bordered with the lace.

The bouquet was of orchids and gardenias in shower formation. Mrs. Helen Hall Cudlipp, a cousin of the bride, in a gown of rose toned silver brocade overdraped with corn flower blue tulle, was matron of honor. Little Barbara Marshall, in a dainty frock of net over pink satin, led the procession as flower girl. Monte Coleman of Seattle was the bridegroom's only attendant.

Following the service, which was read at 9 o'clock, an informal reception was held and an orchestra played for dancing the remainder of the evening, while the wedding collation was served in the blue room.

Mr. and Mrs. Diteman have been extensively entertained since the announcement of their engagement. They left the city immediately following the wedding reception and will sail from Vancouver, B. C., for the Orient October 5. On their return in January they will divide their time between Portland and the Arboretum stock farm, which has been the home of the bridegroom and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Urban F. Diteman.

The marriage of Miss Sophie Belkin, formerly of Seattle, to Benjamin N. Katz of this city took place at the Palace hotel and was a most interesting affair. The wedding occurred on the occasion of the golden wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan H. Katz, and the celebration of the marriage and their wedding anniversary was an affair of unusual interest. All the children of the bridegroom's parents and other members of the family were present for the double event, together with a number of friends of the young couple. The bride was smartly attired in a wedding gown of white satin worn with a tulle veil of colonial mode and her flowers were white roses and orchids in shower bouquet. A wedding supper was served following the ceremony and dancing followed during the later evening hours. Mr. and Mrs. Katz have returned from their honeymoon in California and are domiciled at the Jaeger apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ehrman of San Francisco and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Heller Ehrman, have been extensively entertained during their visit in Portland. L. N. Fleischer entertained them at dinner last week and Mr. and Mrs. William Heller Ehrman will be dinner hosts in their honor Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis K. Clark left the city last week for New York, where they will visit in the former's home in Rochester. They were accompanied by Mrs. Elaine Clark and Mrs. Patterson Clark, mother and sister of Mr. Clark, who have been visitors in Portland for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burkhardt expect to leave the latter part of this week for Santa Barbara, where they will spend the winter months. They will make the trip by motor.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, who have been abroad during the past months, have returned to Portland after a delightful trip.

Mrs. Shevlin Is Hostess for Two Delightful Teas

MRS. EDWIN C. SHEVLIN was hostess for two delightful bridge teas at her home in North Twentieth street, last week, the affairs given on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. Following the bridge game Tuesday a number of additional guests dropped in for the tea hour. Presiding at the tea tables were Mrs. Frank M. Warren, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Helen Ladd-Corbett and Mrs. William D. Wheelwright. At Wednesday's affair those who assisted the hostess in dispensing hospitality were Mrs. Sherman R. Hall, Mrs. Edmund L. Devereaux, Mrs. Frederick H. Green and Mrs. Edward Hamilton Geary.

Mrs. Herbert S. Nichols presided at a delightfully informal tea Friday afternoon in her home in Vista avenue for the pleasure of Mrs. Edward Heathe Brooke of Washington, D. C. who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis and Miss Genevieve Brooke, who is also a visitor here. Guests for the occasion included only a small number of the close friends of Mrs. Brooke and her daughter.

Miss Sadie Evelyn Ford of Oregon City left Tuesday for New York city and expects to remain the entire season, furthering her studies in music. Before her departure, Mrs. Nella Barlow Ladd-Corbett entertained with a line party at the Orpheum, followed with a supper. On Thursday night, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brodie entertained with a dinner and theatre party for Miss Ford.

Miss Alice Dabney was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Byon of Salem last week.

The alumnae members of Delta Gamma were hostesses Tuesday morning for a breakfast motor party at Crown Point chalet honoring the active members of the society who have planned to return this year college. The tables were centered with variegated asters and greenery and dainty cards marked the places for the guests. Among the special guests who are prospective students at the University of Oregon were Miss Katherine Wilcox, Miss Mary Alexander, Miss Vera Prudhomme, Miss Frances Manary, Miss Estelle Modlin and Miss Anna Catherine Chapman. There were 17 girls in the party.

A large number of the members of St. Stephens Pro-cathedral and their friends were in attendance at the first parish party of the season which was held Tuesday evening at the parish house. The program for the evening was one of unusual interest. Bishop Sumner made a brief but interesting talk during the evening and others who contributed to the pleasure of the occasion were Miss Eloise Anita Cook, Miss Elizabeth Eugenia Woodbury, Miss Ines Chambers, Miss Kathleen Harrison and Carl Denton who presented an informal program of music and readings. Refreshments served by the women of the parish were followed by a delightful social hour.

Word has been received by Mrs. P. L. Campbell, wife of President Campbell of the University of Oregon, that her son, Walter Church, and Mrs. Church arrived in Boston Monday after a two months' sojourn in Europe. Mr. Church is studying architecture at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and under the supervision of Dean Emerson of that school, he made the trip, studying the architecture of Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Church will remain in Boston, where the former will continue his study.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mackenzie left the city Friday for Seattle where they will spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Charlton, who are there for the month of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry Boyd have returned from a motor trip to the beaches and to Mount Hood lodge.

Mrs. Gustave von Ergiofsten left the city last week for an extended trip east. She will be absent about six weeks.

Stuart Blythe To Wed Oct. 9 In Baltimore

CARDS have been received by Portland friends for the marriage of Miss Gertrude Tunstall and Stuart Blythe which will take place October 9 in Brown Memorial Presbyterian church, Baltimore. Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the Alumnae lodge which will assemble a large company of friends and relatives of the bride couple. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warwick Ripley Edwards. She has been associated with Mr. Blythe as art editor on the staff of the Country Gentleman of which he is associate editor. Mr. Blythe who is the son of Samuel G. Blythe, political writer, was a member of the staff of The Journal, leaving Portland in the summer of 1917. He is a member of Theta Delta Chi and a graduate of Dartmouth college and the University of Wisconsin. He is widely known in Oregon and has many friends in Portland, where he was a member of the University club, who will be interested to know of his marriage.

Miss Dorothy Leadbetter and Miss Elizabeth Leadbetter, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Leadbetter, left last week for school. Miss Dorothy will enter a school in the East and Miss Elizabeth has returned to Santa Barbara school for girls. Mrs. Mrs. Leadbetter, who have recently returned from their country home near Camas, expect to remain in the city until Christmas, when they will go to Santa Barbara for the remaining winter months.

Mrs. Joseph A. Boyce will entertain Friday evening with a dancing party in the assembly room of the Hotel Portland in honor of the eighteenth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Evelyn. About 50 young people have been bidden to the affair.

Community Club To Hold Dance Friday Evening

THE Rose City Park Community club will hold its opening dancing party on Friday evening and an enjoyable affair is anticipated. All Rose City Park residents and their friends are invited to attend. No personal invitations have been issued, but the club will again invite the social center of the district and a large attendance is expected. Mrs. Frank Tauscher will be hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Ofner, Mrs. E. Mingo, Mrs. Frank Verbiase, Mrs. C. A. Bourne and Mrs. R. N. Brewster.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Miller at 1153 Lieber street was Thursday evening the scene of a delightful gathering of relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bush of Bluebird, who came to the city to celebrate with their children their ruby wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Bush have eight children, seven of whom were present on this occasion, including Eldwein Bush, Mrs. Minnie Crowder, Mrs. Mary Miller, and John, Edward, Jennie, Beale and Clarence Bush. There were also 11 grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Bush present for the occasion. During the evening the family and friends joined in a pretty ceremony. Led by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Bush entered the living room, which was decked with flowers. Mrs. Mildred Lawler sang "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Zadel Zimmer played the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. In the presence of more than 20 guests the Rev. H. S. Black, formerly pastor of the Second Baptist church, which was later absorbed into the East Side Baptist church of this city, and who now resides in Tacoma, made a brief talk recalling pleasant incidents in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Bush. A poem written by Mrs. Black for the occasion was also read. The remainder of the evening was spent informally with refreshments served by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Bush were the recipients of many gifts and messages of good will from their many friends.

Interesting visitors in the city are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bailey of Washington, D. C. Mr. Bailey is connected with the United States biological survey and is here on business for the government. Mrs. Bailey is better known as Florence Merriam Bailey, author of "Birds of Western North America" and other works on birds and bird life. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will speak at the first meeting of the Audubon society to be held in Central library, Saturday, October 2.

Mrs. Adolph Neu was hostess for an informal tea Saturday afternoon for Miss Edith Fullerton of San Francisco, who is the guest of Miss Lee Tevis in Irvington, and who will visit Mrs. Neu this week. At the tea hour Mrs. Gorrell Swigert and Mrs. Harold Dekum Gill presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Grant S. Mays, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ralph A. Watson for a short time, left the city Saturday evening for Los Angeles, where she will visit for a few months.

Rayford Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bailey of The Alameda, a former Jefferson high school student, left last week to enter the University of Oregon.

NOTICE
Home Owners and Buyers
Why buy until you have seen
"The Globe"
FURNACE
COME AND SEE FOR YOURSELF
Get an idea this week
ALDER SHEET METAL WORKS
110 Wash. St. Broadway 2323

Clark's Fresh every day.
Morrison st., Bet.
4th and 5th. Tel.
Main 7708

Naval Officer And His Lady Much Feted

MUCH feted visitors in Portland during the past week have been Admiral and Mrs. Henry Wiley, recently of San Diego, Cal., who have been guests at the home of Colonel and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood. Monday evening the Misses Flanders were hostesses for a dinner in their honor. Tuesday Colonel and Mrs. Wiley entertained at dinner for their pleasure. Mrs. Arthur M. Minott presided at a luncheon Wednesday for Mrs. Wiley, and Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman entertained the visitors at dinner Wednesday evening. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Sherman R. Hall gave an informal tea for Mrs. Wiley, and Thursday evening Admiral and Mrs. Wiley were guests of honor at a dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer were hosts.

Admiral and Mrs. Wiley and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood left Thursday evening for Pendleton to attend the Round-Up, and will return to the city this morning. They will be dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis this evening, and will leave Portland Monday morning for San Diego.

Miss Dorothy Manville left for Pendleton Tuesday morning to be the guest of Miss Margaret Phelps, daughter of Judge Phelps. She returned to Portland Saturday and will leave today for Eugene to enter the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Harry Sharp has returned from a visit to California, where she was the guest of Mrs. Charles Norris (Kathleen Norris), the novelist, and of Mrs. John H. Hayden (Margaret Ayer).

Interesting visitors in the city are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bailey of Washington, D. C. Mr. Bailey is connected with the United States biological survey and is here on business for the government. Mrs. Bailey is better known as Florence Merriam Bailey, author of "Birds of Western North America" and other works on birds and bird life. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will speak at the first meeting of the Audubon society to be held in Central library, Saturday, October 2.

Mrs. Adolph Neu was hostess for an informal tea Saturday afternoon for Miss Edith Fullerton of San Francisco, who is the guest of Miss Lee Tevis in Irvington, and who will visit Mrs. Neu this week. At the tea hour Mrs. Gorrell Swigert and Mrs. Harold Dekum Gill presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Grant S. Mays, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ralph A. Watson for a short time, left the city Saturday evening for Los Angeles, where she will visit for a few months.

Rayford Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bailey of The Alameda, a former Jefferson high school student, left last week to enter the University of Oregon.

Rayford Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bailey of The Alameda, a former Jefferson high school student, left last week to enter the University of Oregon.

Rayford Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bailey of The Alameda, a former Jefferson high school student, left last week to enter the University of Oregon.

Rayford Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bailey of The Alameda, a former Jefferson high school student, left last week to enter the University of Oregon.

Rayford Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bailey of The Alameda, a former Jefferson high school student, left last week to enter the University of Oregon.

Rayford Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bailey of The Alameda, a former Jefferson high school student, left last week to enter the University of Oregon.

Rayford Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bailey of The Alameda, a former Jefferson high school student, left last week to enter the University of Oregon.

The Last 4 Days of Our 10th Anniversary Sales

More extraordinary specials for a fitting windup to the most successful sale we ever held—a month of unusual values, marking our tenth milestone of progress in the service of Portland women. Every item in this advertisement is super-special.

Anniversary Offering of Suits and Coats at $49.50

Specially purchased for this sale, this wonderful group (just 85 in the lot) compares favorably with our regular $59.50 to $75 garments.

Suits—

Smart models of yalama, turtleneck and velour (plain and checked) in navy, brown and other fall shades. Convertible collars, some of fur, add to their attractiveness.

Coats—

Splendid styles in bolivia cloth and plush, cut on modish lines, with big, wrappy collars of self-material or fur.

We consider this special the greatest we have offered during this month of wonderful items. Every woman who needs a coat or suit should by all means see this bargain group. Second floor.

The Biggest Millinery Special of the Anniversary Sale

Handsome Hats With Burnt Goose Brims

Ordinarily We Would Mark These Hats at $18 to $25

As a crowning triumph to a succession of remarkable millinery specials comes this offer of stunning hats at $13.50. The finest of velvet and duvetyne are combined with exquisite burnt goose feathers in making these beautiful hats. Metallic cloth or fancy pins lend a touch of brilliance to some of these smart shapes, most of them small and upturned as to brim. Surely never were such smart hats sold at such a price.

They're on the third floor. Be sure you see them.

SENSATIONAL BLOUSE VALUES

Georgette Blouses Trimmed
With Hand-made Lace --- $9.85

Regular $15
to $22.50
Values

A sale of vital interest to every woman, for these blouses are handsome enough for dressy wear, yet suitable for business also. Exquisitely fine, firm quality georgette, daintily trimmed with real filet lace, in a variety of charming effects. Sleeves are long, and neck outlines varied. Bought specially for this anniversary sale—for your benefit.

A rare value—look for these blouses in the Blouse
Department on the first floor

Store Hours
9:15 to 5:45

EMPORIUM
124 to 128 SIXTH ST. JUST OFF WASHINGTON

Shop in the Morning

Serge and Tricotine Dresses $15

"Before the war" such dresses were not unusual—in 1920 they're wonderful for the price. Straight-line effects, embroidered or braided.

Last Days of the Fur and Plush Coat Sales

Specials From the Down- stairs Shops

Silk
Petticoats... $5

All Jersey and taffeta tops, with fancy flounces.

Sub-standard Silk
Hosiery of well known make, at

$1.35 a pair

$4.25 Vanity Fair
Silk Vests $3.25

Crepe de Chine
Nightgowns $5