

MISS DOROTHY GREENE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Greene, who left the city recently to attend Stanford university. Miss Greene makes her home in Piedmont at 337 Jessup street.

Miss Broughton Honor Guest at Several Affairs

MISS MILDRED BROUGHTON, whose marriage to Allan C. Hopkins will be an event of Monday evening, was the guest of honor Wednesday at a luncheon for which Mrs. Harold Broughton was hostess at her home at St. Helens. Guests for the occasion included Mrs. George Broughton, Mrs. Walter Durham, Mrs. J. F. Hopkins, Miss Marian Reed, Miss Ruth Cushing, Miss Florence Knapp. The party motored out to St. Helens for the affair. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Ormond Rankin presided at a tea for Miss Broughton and Friday evening Miss Florence Knapp was hostess for a dinner for Miss Broughton and her fiancé at her attractive home in Willamette boulevard. Guests for the affair included the members of the bridal party.

The wedding will take place at the First Congregation church at 8 o'clock. Dr. William T. McVeen is officiating.

Miss Broughton has chosen for her bridal attendants Miss Marian Reed, who will be maid of honor, and Miss Florence Knapp and Miss Ruth Cushing, who will attend her as bridesmaids. Charles Lemke, who was in service with the bridegroom during the war period, will come from Albuquerque, N. M., to be his attendant.

The ushers will be William Simmons, Arthur Lee, Frank Davis and Major Edward C. Sammons.

An event of interest among G. A. R. people was a surprise party given for Commander C. W. Gausline of General H. B. Compton post No. 22, G. A. R., last week. About 40 friends of the commander, laden with good things to eat, assembled at his home, 1602 Olin street, Tuesday afternoon, on the eightieth anniversary of his birth. The guests ranged in age from the great granddaughter of the commander, who is not quite a year old, to a comrade who has passed the eighty-ninth milestone. Gifts were presented, after which dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Squire announce the birth of a son, who arrived September 16. The baby will be called Edward Noonan. Mrs. Squire before her marriage was Miss Mirae Noonan. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Noonan of Irvington.

Miss Gertrude Moulie, who has been the guest of her aunts, Mrs. John Ross Dickson and Mrs. L. Ward White, for several weeks, left Wednesday for her home in Phoenix, Ariz. Miss Moulie was extensively entertained during her visit in Portland.

Mrs. William E. Nelson will entertain the Rose Society at her home, 692 East Irving street, Friday. The members of Oregon Rose camp, Royal Neighbors of America, are invited to be present.

General and Mrs. Benjamin Alvord and their son, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alvord, left for their home in San Francisco last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gilman have left Portland for the east. They will spend a short time in New York and Washington, D. C. They expect to be absent about five months.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Moller of Hood River were week end guests of Mrs. Moller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Oberbauer, at the Wilmar apartments.

Columbia Beach, Sept. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ingalls and Mrs. Tryer, prominent business people of Portland, and A. D. Dodge, superintendent of the Indian reservations and two Indian schools at Neah Bay, Wash., have been spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Effler of Columbia Beach. Many motor trips were made during their visit, but owing to the inclement weather several jaunts had to be abandoned. Sunday last they motored to Flavel. Saturday last Mr. and Mrs. Milton York, accompanied by Miss Jennie Browning of Portland, called at Columbia Beach en route to Seaside. They had just crossed from Long Beach, Wash. Mrs. York is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stevenson, who lived at Fort Clatsop over 40 years ago. The party motored as far as McGowan last Friday, from Long Beach, and made the crossing to Astoria the same evening in a terrific storm. Their car was placed on a scow and towed by a small tug.

The women's auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was entertained at a party at the home of progressive luncheon at the homes of the officers of the organization. The hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. A. E. Curtis, Mrs. G. Edlund and Mrs. W. Anderson. The members gathered at the home of Mrs. A. E. Curtis and the luncheon progressed to the homes of those named. Throughout the afternoon plans for the future welfare of the organization were outlined. There were 43 members present. The next regular meeting of the organization will be held in the club rooms of the Alisky building, Monday.

Kelso, Wash., Sept. 25.—Miss Bernice Ely and Captain T. Dinsmore Upton were married at a pretty shower Monday, September 16. The bride grew to womanhood in Kelso, graduating from Kelso high school. Her father was the late W. E. Ely and her mother is Mrs. Melville Ely Roach of Eugene, Or. She attended the universities of Washington and Oregon and Bellingham normal, graduating from the latter. She was a teacher in the local public schools, entering the paper work at Puyallup and finally becoming associated with the Ellison White Chautauqua circuit, on which she lectured at a variety of places. They will make a wedding trip to Australia.

Misses Bettie and Susie Michael were hostesses at a party Monday in honor of Miss Pearl Leibo, a popular young bride-elect. The color scheme of red was tastefully carried out in the decorations of autumn foliage, flowers and gaily colored lights. Music and dancing were the features of the evening. A supper was served at a late hour and the party closed with refreshments. Miss Leibo's marriage to Maurice M. Brown of Patterson, N. J., will be an event of this afternoon. The wedding will take place in the parlors of the Benson hotel, the Rev. R. Abrahamson officiating.

Milton, Sept. 25.—Miss Helen Marie Dakin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Dakin of North Milton and Dillard D. York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse York, were married September 22 in Pendleton. The marriage took place in the Christian church and the Rev. Bussabacker was the officiating clergyman. A wedding supper was served at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. York left for a honeymoon trip to Portland. After their return they will make their home in Milton.

Miss Madge Balkins of Eugene and Miss Eloise White of this city have been visitors for a brief period in Island City, where they are guests at the home of Miss Leta Kiddie. The three young women will enter the University of Oregon this year.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hubach are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter, born September 4, which they are to call Dorothy Barbara. Mrs. Hubach will be remembered as Dorothy Bess Terry.

Miss Alice Waldron of this city, who recently returned from Boston, has assumed her duties in Salem as school librarian and is making her home with the family of Justice Charles A. Johns.

Scout Young auxiliary No. 3, United Spanish War Veterans, will give a card party at its rooms, 525 Courthouse, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Brady and Myles Ward Are Quietly Wedded

THE marriage of Miss Verna Brady and Myles Ward of Seattle was quietly solemnized Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Eldridge apartments, the home of the bride, the Rev. F. E. DuBois officiating. The bride is a Washington high school girl and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brady of this city. Mr. Ward is a Delta Sigma Delta man and has been attending college at the University of Oregon. At the wedding little Jean, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. Mrs. Davis played the wedding march and Allison Knight sang the bridal hymn. Miss Dorothy Giffman and Miss Alice Cady were bridesmaids. The bridegroom's attendant was Percival Davis. Following a honeymoon at the beach, Mr. and Mrs. Ward will make their home in Portland.

Miss Maude Decker and Rosmus A. Weber were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath, One Hundred and Nineteenth street and Base Line road, Wednesday evening. The wedding service was read by Rev. John Parsons before an assembly of close friends and relatives of the bride party. Miss Margaret Austin acted as bridesmaid and Albert Johnson was best man. Jaunita Burdick was flower girl and Helen Decker carried the ring. Charles Heath gave the bride in marriage. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Mrs. Charles Decker. Mrs. Ralph Burdick sang "I Love You Truly." The bride's gown was beaded white georgette trimmed with silver lace, and the full wedding veil was worn. The bouquet was of white rosebuds. The bridesmaid's gown was pink georgette and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Armishaw, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Armishaw have returned after a five months' tour abroad, during which they visited with relatives in England and toured France, Holland and Belgium. They also spent a week in New York as guests of their sister, Mrs. Raymond Eddas.

Miss Dorothy Feenaughty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Feenaughty of Rose City Park, left the city Saturday for Chicago where she will attend the Starratt school for girls. Miss Feenaughty is one of Portland's charming daughters and has a wide circle of friends in the city. This is her second year at the Starratt school.

George Wright post No. 1, G. A. R., and Relief corps No. 2 will join in celebrating the birthday anniversaries of their members which came in April, May, June, July and August, September with a dinner at 6 o'clock at 825 courthouse, Wednesday.

A Portland boy who left the city last week for Eugene to enter the state university was Wilbur Carl, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carl of 1125 Albina avenue. This will be his junior year at the university.

Mrs. Mary Reel will be hostess at the next sewing meeting of George Wright Relief Corps No. 2 Friday from 10 to 3 o'clock at her home, 60 East Thirty-first street.

Mrs. R. B. Rogers, who is the guest of Mrs. George McPherson at Waverley Country club, will hostess for a luncheon at the clubhouse Friday with covers laid for 12 guests.

Miss Ella Saari of Laurelhurst has left the city for the week end and will enter the Mount Ida school for girls.

Mrs. B. E. Dumas of Idaho is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. H. McCurtain in Laurelhurst.

Musical Circles Are Awaiting Big Reception

CARDS are out for a reception to be given Monday night honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frans H. Arena, at the home of the Misses Helen and Evelene Calbreath at 860 Belmont street. Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Calbreath, parents of the hostess, and Mrs. Irwin Griffith will assist in the receiving line.

The affair is of wide interest in social and musical circles and will assemble more than 700 friends of the guests of honor, who are each year in the city for a brief visit between seasons. Mr. Arena is the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Calbreath until October 16. With Mrs. Arena he will return to his home in New York city, later to resume his work with his students.

At the supper hour those who will preside in the dining room will be Mrs. A. S. Kerry, Mrs. John F. Daly, Mrs. Homer Goehler, Mrs. Charles H. Tisdale, Mrs. Hugh Williamson and Miss Clarissa Wiley. Assisting about the rooms will be Miss Harriet Griffith, Miss Wilma Klinehart, Miss Katherine Short and Miss Florence Johnson. The hours are from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Miss Nana Seelye of this city is a visitor in Medford at the home of Miss Ila Walker and will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grover at Ashland.

Mrs. James H. Cellars of Astoria and Mrs. Carlton Allen and Miss Zoe Allen are visitors in the city at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cellars.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Vincent of 149 North Twenty-third street announce the birth of a son born to them September 18. Miss Truth Terry left for Eugene Friday to enter the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hubach are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter, born September 4, which they are to call Dorothy Barbara. Mrs. Hubach will be remembered as Dorothy Bess Terry.

Economy Is Our Hobby Down Stairs Sales Room

The entire satisfaction of every customer is the first service of this institution. Our definition of satisfaction is at all times to see that prices are right.

This Brown Calf Lace Broadway Last $10.85

Same in Fine Black Kid $10.85

Very Much in Style Navy Blue Hose—Silk $1.50 a Pair

Knight Shoe Company
Down Stairs Dept.
342 Morrison, Near Broadway

Annual Ball of Afifi Patrol to Be Big Affair

A MUCH anticipated affair is the annual ball to be given by the Afifi patrol and Shrine club of Vancouver, Wash., which will be held at the Multnomah hotel Wednesday evening, October 20. The dance will be formal and the guests will include Shriners only. During the summer the Vancouver Afifi patrol was formed from members of the Vancouver Shrine club. The ball is the first annual event to be given by this organization and is anticipated as an affair of unusual interest.

Miss Laura Hamblet, whose marriage to Fred Breske will be an event of October 2, has been the recipient of many social attentions since the announcement of her engagement. Last Friday Miss Mabel Weed was hostess at a luncheon of eight covers, followed by a bridal shower for Miss Hamblet. Wednesday Mrs. Claude V. Bowman presided at a luncheon at the Fricellia tearoom. Meier & Frank's, for Miss Hamblet, which was followed by an Orpheum party for which Miss Edna Waldin was hostess. Friday Mrs. Thomas Emory entertained with a tea for Miss Hamblet.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hyland and her daughter, Miss Constance Hyland, have taken a house at 60 East Twelfth street for the winter months. Mrs. Hyland and her daughter have recently returned from an extended visit in Chile and Bolivia with Mr. and Mrs. Luis Abellil (Crystal Hyland).

Miss Jean Mackenzie has returned to Portland from Vancouver, B. C., where she has been the guest of friends for several weeks.

Miss Gertrude Moulie, who has been the guest of her aunts, Mrs. John Ross Dickson and Mrs. L. Ward White, for several weeks, left Wednesday for her home in Phoenix, Ariz. Miss Moulie was extensively entertained during her visit in Portland.

Mrs. William E. Nelson will entertain the Rose Society at her home, 692 East Irving street, Friday. The members of Oregon Rose camp, Royal Neighbors of America, are invited to be present.

General and Mrs. Benjamin Alvord and their son, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alvord, left for their home in San Francisco last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gilman have left Portland for the east. They will spend a short time in New York and Washington, D. C. They expect to be absent about five months.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Moller of Hood River were week end guests of Mrs. Moller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Oberbauer, at the Wilmar apartments.

Columbia Beach, Sept. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ingalls and Mrs. Tryer, prominent business people of Portland, and A. D. Dodge, superintendent of the

Month-End Millinery, Fur and Umbrella Sale

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

One of the well-known Wonder Millinery events that is attended in great numbers by economical women that know style.

100 Charming Trimmed Hats $12.50

The charm of the new Autumn Millinery is expressed in these 100 hats at $12.50.

The cleverly fashioned semi-tailored and dress hats, whether it be the large hat with a touch of brighter color in the facing or trim or the modish turbans with the smart jet pin. All are silk velvet, some Panne and Lyons velvet. All colors.

250 Tailored Hats $6.95

of Hatters' Plush and Zibilene Faced With Velvet

We have selected these 250 hats from our regular stock and the price was formerly $7.50 to $10.00.

A Very Special Misses' and Children's Item.

Beaver Hats $4.95

Large, medium and small with ribbon trim. All colors.

50 Rain Sticks Only Month-End Sale Price $10

These umbrellas are $12.50, $13.50 and $15.00, and you must carry a rainstick in Portland, so why not carry one that is beautiful which originally was much higher priced, and because of our month-end sale will cost you but $10.00?

All handles, tips and ferrules are bakelite.

The Wonder Millinery

Eastern Fashions Reflect High Quality, Variety and Moderate Price

But Perhaps Credit Interests You Most

Authentic styles, dependable quality, courteous service, and pleasing atmosphere have built up our business—backed by "cheerful credit." Not content to make it easy for you to BUY, we also make it easy for you to PAY. Any man or woman who respects his obligation (and years of experience have taught us that almost everyone is truly honest) is given credit at the Eastern. Charges for the rest of the month go on November bills.

Captivating Is the Display of Hats at $15

The tailored woman will rejoice in a distinctive assortment of sailors of hatters' plush, beaver and velvet. For dress-up duvetyn and velvet announce their readiness with feathers, wings, ribbons, gay embroideries and metal ornaments. You'll enjoy trying them on.

There's Nothing Commonplace About These Suits

Real individuality is what the well dressed woman wants in her suit—that's why so many come here to buy it. Youth itself speaks in the trim, slim lines of the varied models displayed here. Ripple backs, straight-line effects, up-to-the-ears convertible collars (in the better suits they're of luxurious fur), embroidery, buttons and novel touches, lend charm and character. A splendid group at $75.

Dresses That Are Smartness Plus—never were one-piece frocks so delightfully chic, no matter whether one chooses a straight-line navy tricotine with low waist effect and modish embroidery or a sleek black satin, its panels or pleated tunic accenting its newness. Our selection comprises so many lovely materials, so many colors and styles that you really should see them to appreciate the variety. You should see the assortment at $49.50.

Eastern Outfitters Co.
Washington Street at Tenth
The Gray-Tile Corner