

B. M. LOMBARD DIES AT BERKELEY, CAL.

Word of the death on Monday of B. M. Lombard at his home, 52 Euclalyptus road, Berkeley, Cal., reached Portland friends during the day and served to recall vividly the many years of his life spent in Portland.

Lombard was born in Galesburg, Ill., about 53 years ago. It was there his father founded and endowed Lombard college, still an important institution. After being graduated from the United States naval academy at Annapolis, Lombard served two years in the navy before he resigned and came to Portland to establish his residence in 1887. Here he was graduated in the law school of the University of Oregon and commenced a practice in which he engaged for several years prior to the outbreak of the Spanish-American war.

In that war he served as a navy lieutenant under Admiral Dewey at Manila and was later stationed in China. After the war he returned to Portland where he had much realty.

After his marriage in 1904 to Miss Caroline Sloane of New York the Lombard home was maintained at 800 Hancock street, Portland, until 1914, when the family removed to California. In his life in Portland Lombard devoted much time to the development of residence districts.

Aide from Mrs. Lombard he is survived by two daughters, Frances Sloane Lombard and Lottie Matthews Lombard and one son, John Curtis Lombard, all at the Berkeley home, and a brother, Charles H. Lombard, Dallas, Texas.

Miss Barry Loses Father

Miss Mayme Barry of Portland has received information from Walla Walla of the death of her aged father, Timothy Barry. Barry was born in Ireland 77 years ago and came to the Northwest in 1865, when only 22 years old. A wife and two daughters, Miss Mayme and Miss Dolores Barry, survive. The funeral will be at Walla Walla.

Eugene Kiwanians Are Told Methods to Combat Leaguers

Eugene, Or., Sept. 28.—At a large gathering of the Kiwanis club Monday, P. J. Nelson of the Northwestern National bank of Portland told of methods which, he said, were employed by the Non-partisan league in promoting its campaign in the Northwestern states. Nelson was formerly in the banking business in North Dakota and made a study of league operations in that region. He related a story of its conquests in the Dakotas, in Minnesota, Montana, Idaho and Washington, making the prediction that within a few months, if not in the present campaign, the league would secure the balance of power in those states, basing its propaganda upon political and industrial abuses.

Community Center Plan Will Extend To Outlying Points

A plan for organization of community centers in all outlying districts was launched at a meeting of representatives from the various communities held under auspices of Community Service Monday evening at Central library, William F. Woodward presiding. Dr. Phillip A. Parsons, director of the school of social work of the University of Oregon, paid a high tribute to the program of Community Service and said it was the best plan that had yet been offered toward socializing the country by interpreting the word neighbor. Mayor Baker commended the work of the Portland Community Service.

Water Jenkins explained that Community Service stands ready to assist in any program which a community may suggest.
