

LOWER PRICES ARE NOW BEING SHOWN

Prices are again lower for sugar and retailers should not charge above $16 a sack generally, although deliveries should cost an additional sum.

Wholesale prices on meats are again showing losses and some of the retailers are beginning to follow, although most firms continue to ask extreme values. Consumers are advised that they can buy cheaper and if they do not, it is their own fault.

It begins to look as if a still lower price will be named for flour at an early date and consumers are advised to buy sparingly at this time.

Canned milk is lower even though fresh milk is advanced. It is caused by the accumulation of stocks.

Eggs have about reached the high point, already some of the stores are beginning to cut. Brown eggs are even better than white stock and are cheaper, too.

Chickens are also cheaper at both wholesale and retail.

Potatoes are showing practically no change but onions are slightly higher because of the scarcity due to the rains.

The following prices are generally in retail shops for good quality. Some values are fractionally higher and inferior stuff fractionally lower.

Butter—Best creamery, 67¢ @ 70¢.

Eggs—Fresh laid, 80¢ dozen; ordinary, fresh, 65¢ @ 70¢ per dozen.

Poultry—Chicken, dressed, 40¢ @ 45¢ per lb.

Pork—Salmon, 10¢ @ 20¢ per lb.; halibut, 25¢ per lb.

Flour—Best local patent, $2.35 @ $2.75 per sack, 48 lbs.

Potatoes—Burbank, 3¢ @ 3 1/2¢.

Onions—Dried, 3 1/2¢ per lb.

Blackberries—Oregon, 15¢ @ 20¢ per box.

Green Corn—25¢ @ 45¢ per dozen.

Diogenes Can Quit

Chicago, Oct. 1.—(U. P.)—Diogenes can blow out his lantern. A Chicago woman recently sent the treasurer of a Methodist church $2. Some of her friends had taken her to a church paragon on their tickets and she wanted to "make it right."

Companions at Preserving Time

FRUITS that you love in the summer-time seem more delicious in winter in the form of preserves.

MELOMAR imparts to fruit preserves a unique appeal—there's the real fruit flavor with a new keeness and a smooth, mellow sweetness that never tires the palate. Another thing—MELOMAR preserves can't "muddy."

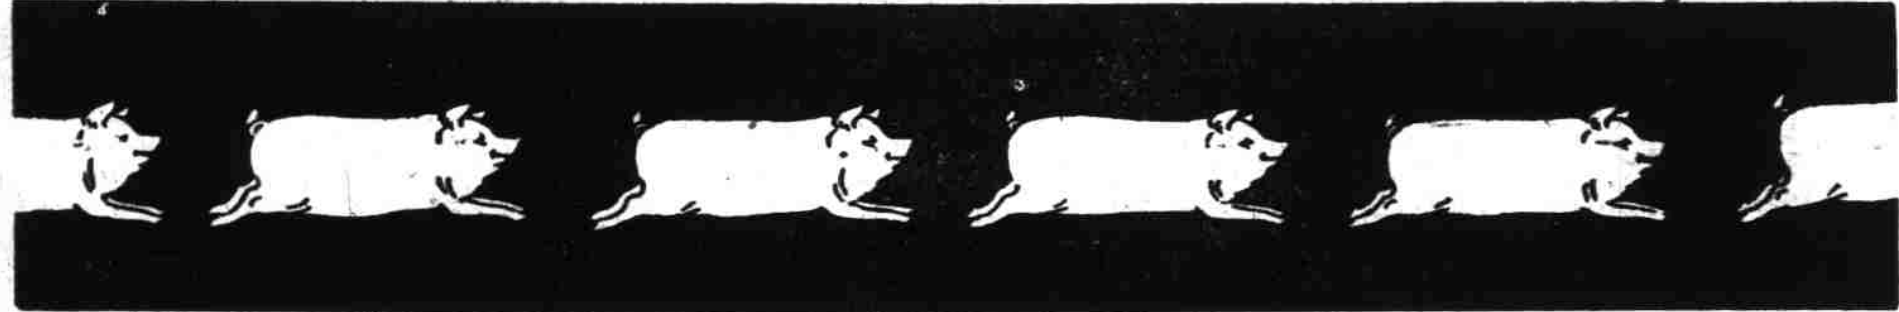

There's no few places where MELOMAR won't work in—
—you'll be surprised

For Preserving:
Use the same proportions of MELOMAR SYRUP to fruit as you would sugar.
