

FOR HARDING, BUT AGAINST LEAGUE, DECLARES BORAH

By George R. Holmes
Marion, Ohio, Oct. 5.—(I. N. S.)—Senator Warren G. Harding has received personal assurance from Senator William E. Borah, one of the peace treaty irreconcilables, that he has not withdrawn from active participation in the campaign.

Senator Harding today made public a telegram received from the Idaho senator, in which he said he would continue to work for Harding's election and the league's defeat in his "own way."

The telegram to Senator Harding said:
"In view of reports, I wish you to know my speeches in future will be along the same lines as at Dayton and in the senate. I want to see you win, and I want to see the league, scheme defeated. In my own way I shall vote my time to the achievement of both propositions. (Signed)

"WILLIAM E. BORAH."
Senator Harding will at Des Moines on next Thursday deal with some aspects of the league issue as raised by President Wilson in his White House statement of Sunday. Asked today to comment on the president's statement, Senator Harding said:
"I shall have nothing to say touching on the League of Nations until my Des Moines speech on Thursday, when I expect to devote some attention to the matter."

Today was an off day on the Harding schedule and the senator planned to devote most of it to preparing the speeches he will make on his western trip which starts tomorrow.

It is planned to leave Marion Wednesday forenoon, getting into Chicago late in the afternoon and leaving there the same night for Des Moines. Senator Harding will speak in Omaha Thursday night, Kansas City Friday night and in Oklahoma City on Saturday night, returning to Marion from the latter place.

Confederate Vets Are Assembling for 30th Annual Session

Houston, Texas, Oct. 5.—(I. N. S.)—"Bulletin-Southwestern front: At an early hour today General Lee's men, under Commander K. M. VanZandt, captured Houston, lock, stock and barrel."

With hands that are gnarled by age, with faces that are furrowed and seamed, with a tread that has lost its cadence, but with eyes that sparkle as of old, thousands on thousands of the old boys of the gray were here for the opening today of the thirtieth annual reunion.

"Johnny Rebs" by the trainloads will continue to arrive throughout the day until approximately 10,000 gray-clad veterans have been assembled. For four days the old men will forget the 60 years that have passed since the stirring days of their youth and live again, with their comrades, the battles of yesterday.

Watterson Declares Cox Certain Winner

New York, Oct. 5.—(I. N. S.)—"Write H. Cox is unbeatable," said Henry Watterson, veteran Kentucky editor, in a statement he issued here Monday. He described the Democratic presidential nominee as "a man who does things."

Mazamas Recount Year's Activities; Executives Chosen

Resume of the year's activities and plans for 1921 were discussed by the Mazamas at their annual meeting and election in the clubhouse in the Chamber of Commerce building Monday night.

Retiring President E. C. Sammons recounted the year's achievements, the ascent of Mount Baker, Shuksan and Hood, the building of Tanner creek trail, the increase of membership from 475 to 562, and the local walks and social events. Miss Harriet Monroe, chairman of a committee in charge of the preparation of a series of Oregon outdoor information, announced that a series of articles on Mount Hood, written by scientists and historians, mostly Mazamas, is now ready for publication. Members voted to present H. P. Hardesty, veteran Mazama, now residing at Bend, with a ring similar to that recently presented to John A. Lee. Ray Piloon, ranger in the Snoqualmie national forest in Washington, brought before the club the recreational advantages of the Monte Cristo country.

Election resulted in this executive council: Roy W. Ayer, Martha E. Nilsson, Alfred F. Parker, A. Boyd Williams, Lola I. Creighton, L. E. Anderson, Eugene H. Dowling, Harry L. Wolters and Laura H. Peterson. Council members will elect officers next week.

Senator Harding will at Des Moines on next Thursday deal with some aspects of the league issue as raised by President Wilson in his White House statement of Sunday. Asked today to comment on the president's statement, Senator Harding said:
"I shall have nothing to say touching on the League of Nations until my Des Moines speech on Thursday, when I expect to devote some attention to the matter."

It is planned to leave Marion Wednesday forenoon, getting into Chicago late in the afternoon and leaving there the same night for Des Moines. CANDIES

—The same sweets which royalty in Europe favored, made by the same artist who enjoyed the patronage of kings and queens.

RUE DE LA PAIX
CHOCOLATES

—RUE DE LA PAIX CANDIES were the most popular confections with many crowned heads of Europe when our confectioner produced his little masterpieces in candy abroad.

He is a native of Budapest, the noted capital of Hungary. There for many years he made candies much sought by royalty, among whom were—

Queen of Greece Queen of Roumania
Queen of Holland Emperor Franz Joseph
King of Servia, and Others

But this creator of sweets no longer makes candy for kings and queens. He now presides in our Candy Kitchen on the Eighth Floor where he creates even better candy, because better ingredients are available.

And what are Rue de la Paix Candies, and what does Rue de la Paix signify?

There is a wonder-street in Paris—a street that is world-renowned for its production of only the very finest things in the world—Rue de la Paix. These candies were wisely named, for Rue de la Paix boxes contain only the most delicious and most wholesome confections—no other candy equals them, and their price, considering the quality, is very reasonable.

The Rue de la Paix boxes are packed with such delicious creations as——Stuffed Dates—Dates stuffed with choicest of candied apricots and selected walnuts—preserved with a rum extract.

—Epimeres—Made of delicious whipped chocolate centers rolled in chocolate nonpareil.

—Bouffants—Of cream brulee with flavor of cream and almonds.

—Clothes—Filled with whipped almonds and cream and rolled in chocolate nonpareil.

—Mocha Straws—A center of heart candy made with lots of butter and cream—rolled in chocolate and the ends dipped in chocolate nonpareil.

—Wonder Creams—Most marvelous coffee butter-cream centers dipped in milk chocolate.

—And then there are the most delicious centers of Maraschino cherries, peaches, apricots, pineapple, dipped in cream and milk chocolate.

Remember, candies good enough for you are good enough for royalty. $2.00 per pound.

—Sweets Booth, Street Floor, Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

—Orange Marmalade Cups—Filled with orange marmalade and walnuts and dipped in creamy milk chocolate.

—Avelin Creams—Filled with delicious almond nougat and, roasted almonds.

—Oatmeal—Fluffy whipped chocolate dipped in milk chocolate.

—Vivian Creams—Filled with burnt almonds and sugar and dipped in plain chocolate.

—Chocolate Truffles—Creamy whipped chocolate dipped in milk chocolate and rolled in roasted almonds.

—Turkish Coffee—Black coffee liquid centers and coffee cream covering.

—And then there are the most delicious centers of Maraschino cherries, peaches, apricots, pineapple, dipped in cream and milk chocolate.

Remember, candies good enough for you are good enough for royalty. $2.00 per pound.
