

Dedication Ball At Laurelhurst Very Elaborate

THE Laurelhurst club opened its re-modeled clubhouse Thursday evening with an elaborate dedication ball, which proved to be one of the most brilliant functions ever sponsored by the club. Over 300 guests attended and enjoyed the dancing, the space for which is now double its former extent. Lovely autumn flowers and shaded lamps of fared an effective setting for the dancers, and the club members were justly proud in their capacity as hosts. Mayor Baker in a few words complimented the board of directors and the club in general for their enterprise in enlarging and beautifying the clubhouse, and received from the assembled guests a vote of thanks to the board for its work. Over 70 new family memberships were placed upon the club roster during September, and a season of unusually successful activities is anticipated for the year.

The women's afternoon card party was held at the clubhouse Tuesday afternoon, with a large attendance. Mrs. F. L. Stoeckle and Mrs. W. P. Richardson were the hostesses. The high scores in bridge were Mrs. A. Laidlaw and Mrs. Marks; in 500, Mrs. Frank Philippi and Mrs. H. J. Meyer.

The Women's Progressive unit will meet at the clubhouse on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The fortnightly card party will be held at the clubhouse Thursday evening, with Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Perkins as hosts. The affair is for members only.

The Wisconsin State society will meet on Thursday evening at Thirteenth and Main streets, at the Turner hall. A program of interest has been arranged by the new committee. The business meeting will take place at 8:30 o'clock, followed by dancing at 9:30 and cards. A dainty lunch will be served. All Wisconsin people are welcome, with their friends. The Iowa society is also invited to meet with them this month.

Miss Marie Chapman and Robert Alexander McDonald were married Wednesday morning at St. Mary's cathedral. Father George Campbell officiating, assisted by Brother Tobias of Columbia university. Miss Loretta Chapman, sister of the bride, was her attendant, with Miss Loretta Quinn as bridesmaid. Alfred J. O'Brien was best man. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left Wednesday afternoon on an extended trip East.

TWO attractive brides of the week were Mrs. Chance Calvin Coon (Maxene Schaefer), who was married Friday at the First Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Will F. Hessian (Della Mae Randall), married Saturday at her home in Irvington.

Mrs. Will F. Hessian

Last Sunday was the fifty-sixth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Kelly of Gloucester street. Their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren surprised them by arriving in a body. Many gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Kelly and twenty-five friends were present. Mr. Kelly is a Civil war veteran and a new member of Gen. H. B. Compton post No. 22, G. A. R. He is one of the three comrades of that post to celebrate a wedding anniversary last week.

Secrets

Many secrets you will find revealed in the green box of Nadine Face Powder

They are secrets which every woman would solve—secrets of personal charm.

The secret of a rose-petal complexion—NADINE'S gift to womanhood.

The secret of lasting charm—charm which endures throughout the day.

The secret of skin-comfort—skin which never has a hint of harm.

To you, as to a million others, NADINE will reveal these intimate secrets.

You can procure NADINE from your favorite toilet counter or by mail—60c.

NATIONAL TOILET CO.,
Paris, Tenn., U. S. A.

Sold by Roberts Bros. and Other Toilet Counters.

Miss Gulliford Made Bride at Home Wedding

MISS DAPHNE GULLIFORD became the bride of Leighton Steel Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gulliford, in Rose City Park. The service was read in the presence of an assembly of friends and relatives by the Rev. Harry Calvin of Orenco.

An improvised bower of autumn greenery and chrysanthemums was placed for the ceremony and preceding the service a number of appropriate selections were played by Miss Marie Frauchaud of New York city, the music continuing softly during the ceremony.

White taffeta worn with a veil of tulle and a coronet of orange blossoms were chosen by the bride for the wedding costume and her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride roses and bouvardia. Miss Clephane Gulliford, sister of the bride, acted in a smart frock of white organdie and carrying pink rosebuds, was bridesmaid. Zina Wise was the bridegroom's attendant.

Throughout the rooms pink and white asters and chrysanthemums were used with autumn leaves. In the dining room Mrs. C. J. Smith, an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Claude Hampton of Pendleton presided. Mr. and Mrs. Gulliford were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Samuel M. Steel and Miss Medora Steel, mother and sister of the bridegroom. The bride is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity and attended the University of Oregon. Mr. Steel was graduated from Oregon Agricultural college and during the war period served overseas with the United States navy. Mr. and Mrs. Steel will make their home at 1055 East Irving street in Laurelhurst.

Community Service will sponsor a dance at The Auditorium Saturday evening. Mayor Baker has granted the use of the building for the occasion and the affair will benefit the organization. A small admission fee will be charged. Special features will be arranged for the occasion. Interest is rapidly growing in the Community Service chorus which meets every Monday evening at the Central library under the direction of Walter Jenkins. The work of the chorus is developing interest in community music, which, according to Mr. Jenkins, is "the common denominator of community activity." Folk songs, popular choruses and negro spirituals are the present features of the work and the chorus is open to all who are interested.

The Minnesota society will hold its first meeting since May next, Wednesday evening in Turn Verein hall, Thirtieth and Madison streets. A good program, cards, dancing and refreshments are promised. Members are asked to bring sandwiches.

Colonel A. J. Robinson of Vancouver barracks was host at a delightful dinner party given Saturday evening at the Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for 12 at a table decorated in roses and ferns.

Portland Symphony Orchestra

SEASON TICKETS GOING RAPIDLY
Send in your subscription early.

BENNO MOISEWITSCH

PIANIST, SOLOIST

FIRST CONCERT OCTOBER 27

Heilig Theatre

CARL DENTON, Conductor

Other eminent soloists engaged for the season—Joseph Lhevinna, Emilio Gogorza, May Peterson and Helen Slater.

Prices: Season Ticket (six concerts), Lower Floor and first five rows balcony, $10; next nine rows, $8; last eight rows and first seven rows gallery, $5. (No war tax.)

Subscribers select their seats before the first concert, thereafter tickets will be mailed.

WEARING APPAREL
RUGS, CARPETS
AND HANGINGS
CLEANED OR DYED

Enkes

PHONE
EAST 7300

NOTICE

Home Owners and Buyers
Why buy until you have
"The Globe"
FURNACE

COME AND SEE FOR YOURSELF
Get our prices this week

ALDER SHEET METAL WORKS
1400 Wash. St. Broadway 2009

Miss Schaefer Charming Bride Of Friday Last

THE marriage of Miss Maxene Browne Schaefer to Chance Calvin Coon of this city was an event of Friday afternoon. The service was read at 2 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, Dr. Harold Leonard Bowman officiating, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bridal couple.

There were no attendants and the ceremony was marked with simplicity. The bride was smartly attired in French blue duvetyne worn with a small hat of black with paradise feathers and a corsage of orchids.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Lillian Schaefer, and has a wide circle of friends in the city. Mr. Coon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Coon and is a University of Minnesota man and a member of Theta Delta Chi fraternity.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Coon left for Sound cities. They will visit British Columbia and sail for San Francisco, later visiting points of interest in Southern California before returning to Portland, where they will make their home.

The comrades of Gen. H. B. Compton post No. 22, G. A. R., are busy these days celebrating the wedding anniversary of their members. The last one was held Tuesday, when about 40 members of Compton post and W. R. C. assembled at the home of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Drew in Courtney street. Rev. Mr. Drew is past department chaplain of Oregon and the occasion was the fifty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Drew have resided in this community many years and are highly esteemed by their neighbors and G. A. R. friends. Congratulations were received and refreshments served.

Columbia Beach, Oct. 9.—Miss Hazel Yull, youngest daughter of George Yull of Skipanon and a former resident of Warrenton and Columbia Beach, has been spending several months touring Canada with her sister, Mrs. Ed Fee, and family. Mrs. George Yull has also spent a long vacation visiting her children in Canada, but is now at home in Spokane, Wash.

Miss Catherine Louise Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Miller, 70 East Eighteenth street north, left Thursday for Boston, where she will complete her education in the Leland Powers School of the Spoken Word.

Columbia River anchor No. 3, ladies' auxiliary to Masters' Mate's and Pilots' association No. 17, will meet Tuesday at 2 o'clock at 411 Lumber Exchange building. All members requested to be present and all who are eligible are welcome to this initiation.

H. LIEBES & CO

Autumn Fashions

Sponsored by H. Liebes & Company

ANNOUNCING
The union of French Fashion and American workmanship—and the reunion of high quality and lower price.

The lower prices have not reduced the ex-
clusiveness in design,
nor the supremely
high quality known in
H. Liebes & Co. garments.

H. Liebes & Co. Announces
Presentation of

Hickson INC

Fall and Winter
Originations in

SUITS--WRAPS AND FROCKS

Ours Exclusively in Portland

Also Displayed
HARRY COLLINS'
Newest Creations in Feminine
Attire

H. Liebes & Co
ESTABLISHED FURS 149-151
BROADWAY

Suits

Other than Hickson or
Collins

—in wonderfully soft and rich materials in deepest autumn and winter tones. Styles of unusual refinement, many enriched with luxurious furs as well as the tailleur silhouette.

Priced $50 to $195

Coats and Wraps

Other than Hickson or
Collins

—modes for opera, dance, evening and afternoon functions; modes for street, motor, business and all wear—of softest and most luxurious materials in a host of individual styles.

Priced $50 to $195

Frocks

Other than Hickson or
Collins

—a wealth of color radiates in the evening and dancing modes, the charm of style is evinced by touches of extreme here and there. —afternoon, dinner and street modes in a variety of enchanting styles.

Priced $45 to $175

Miss Randall Is Wed Saturday to Will F. Hessian

THE marriage of Miss Della May Randall and Will F. Hessian was quietly solemnized Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Randall in Irvington. Miss Randall has a wide circle of friends in the city. The service was read by Dr. E. M. Pence, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, in the presence of a few close friends and relatives of the bridal couple.

The bride has a wide circle of friends in Portland. She is a member of a pioneer family of Gilliam county. Mr. Hessian is financial editor of The Journal. During the war period he was in service receiving his commission in France and overseas with the 148th field artillery, later being attached to general headquarters on special work.

Following a brief trip to British Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Hessian will return to Portland, where they will make their home at 514 Vista avenue.

Miss Eliza Greile, who left early in the summer with her mother for Holland, has sailed for America and will arrive in Portland some time this month.

Multnomah
Cleaning and Dye Works

Postage paid one way
on out-of-town work.

We Are the Leaders in Dyeing. Why?

Because our customers tell us.
Our customers say they are pleased.
We do convince you. Oriental rugs, carpets, drapes and hangings dyed or cleaned by our new scientific method.

Our autos at your service
East 2920 732-734 Sandy Boulevard