The best neckwear sale we can remember and rich in values that we don't expect to be duplicated for a long time.

Not a big collection, quantitatively, as neckwear sales go nowadays, but what it lacks in quantity this sale more than makes up for in QUALITY. And 5400 ties, every one of which has individuality and sparkle and beauty, are worth more in our eyes than twice this number of ties in which these qualities are absent—and we will wager that there are many Portland men who think with us on this point.

If men could only see the ties this would not have to be written and it is written not so much to sell the ties as to induce men to come in and look at them when—THEY WILL SELL THEMSELVES! The scarfing silks are from Italy, Switzerland, France, England—and America's best. The ties are from half a dozen of America's most famous makers including C. Stern and Mayer. There are dozens of weaves, scores of patterns, hundreds of colors. Every tie is finished with slip-easy band and men have a choice of the fashionable four-in-hands in large and medium shapes.

THE TIE SALE isn't, by any means, all that we have in store for the men and young men of Portland this second Thursday in October. In fact, this sale of Fall and Winter Suits deserves a much larger space than we give it here. Take a look back at the values quoted.

Those figures fairly shout! But they don't let their enthusiasm run away with their matter-of-fact veracity. It's mighty rarely that a man gets a chance to pick from nearly 200 fine upstanding suits like these at $49.75.

EVERY SUIT is taken from our regular stock, therefore every suit is of standard quality, authentic style, sound workmanship. Suits from Adler Rochester, Louis Holtz and other celebrated makers of suits for young men and men who stay young—the famous kinds to be had here only at Style Headquarters in Portland. The much-in-demand worsteds both finished and unfinished and good dependable cassimeres in Fall and Winter weights. Single and double-breasted models in styles for men and young men.
