

COX AND LEAGUE, HARDING WITHOUT; WHICH ASKS YOUNG

Senator Harding and his proposal for a separate peace is what the German junkers want. It is what Austria wants. And what Turkey and Bulgaria want.

Harding's Ignorance Is Gross Facts Mean Nothing to Him

Washington, Oct. 16.—(WASH-INGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Senator Harding's carelessness or recklessness of statement, which ever way it may be termed, is starting a number of back-fires for the Republican candidate for president, and making it necessary for his friends to do a lot of explaining, or excusing, or apologizing, which ever way one chooses to put it.

OF 34 CONTESTS FOR SENATE, 16 CALLED DOUBTFUL

Washington, Oct. 16.—(WASH-INGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL)—Nominations for 34 seats in the United States senate in 33 states have practically been completed. The results show 12 Democratic and 13 Republican senators renominated and not less than 16 seats for which the contest is rated more or less doubtful.

WILD GEESE CHASED BY AIRPLANE

DALLAS, Or., Oct. 16.—The pilot and mechanic who brought up an airplane from Portland to the Polk county fair indulged in some rare sport during the trip. They spied a flock of wild geese and gave chase, soon overtaking them.

HARDING LOSES HIS POLITICAL SOUL, IN COLBY'S OPINION

Chicago, Oct. 16.—(I. N. S.)—Declaring that Senator Warren G. Harding has "severed his connection with the nation's conscience and aspirations and is drifting into the sea of opportunism uncharted by principles or high purpose," Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby, speaking in Chicago and Evanston today, vigorously defended the League of Nations.

Doctors to Tour East to Get Idea On Medical Center

Planning to visit leading medical centers of the nation and to spend some time at the Rockefeller and Carnegie foundation offices, President P. L. Campbell of the University of Oregon, Dr. R. B. Dillehunt, dean of the school of medicine, and Dr. Harry B. Torrey of the university faculty, will leave Portland October 28.

CREDIT BARS OF BANKS NOT TO BE LOWER FOR FARMER

Washington, Oct. 16.—(I. N. S.)—The credit bars will not be lowered at the banks for the benefit of farmers, to the extent of changing present rules governing the eligibility of "paper" for rediscount at federal reserve banks.

Fleeing of War Veterans, Charge Against Officials

Washington, Oct. 16.—(I. N. S.)—Charged with conspiracy to fleece a number of world war veterans of large portions of their claims for disability awarded them by the government, and charged with other crimes in connection with war risk frauds, William F. Salisbury Jr., formerly an examiner of claims in the war risk bureau; David M. Griswold, formerly employed in the bureau; Daniel O'Keefe and Aloysius A. Young of New Britain, Conn.; Patrick O'Brien, Herbert L. Chalfant, George V. Seltz and Tenio E. Graves were arraigned before Justice Bailey in the district supreme court today.

Five Acre Plot in Cemetery Donated To Allied Veterans

A plot of five acres in the Mount Scott cemetery was donated today for the use of the company and members of the allied cause who were killed or died in service during the war. The plot was donated through joint efforts of the American Legion, Spanish American War Veterans and Veterans of Foreign Wars by the Mount Scott Park Cemetery association.

Myers Escapes the Payment of $20 On a Technicality

Frank S. Myers, former postmaster of Portland, will not have to pay $20 to R. Bruner for his work in circulating a petition for the nomination of Thomas A. Hayes as an independent candidate for the United States senate, although Myers admitted in District Judge Hawkins' court that he hired Bruner for this purpose.

Wool Men Will Seek Protective Tariff

Salt Lake, Utah, Oct. 16.—(U. P.)—A determined effort to secure legislation placing a duty on foreign wool will be made by the wool men of the United States during the coming session of congress, according to Professor F. R. Macmillan, secretary of the National Wool Growers' association.

Fire Is Threatening U. S. Aviation Field

Washington, Oct. 16.—(I. N. S.)—A hangar at Bolling field, an army aviation station here, caught fire late this afternoon and was completely destroyed. The entire field is threatened with destruction.

Two Youths Sent By Government of Brazil Enter O. A. C.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oct. 16.—Two of 60 Brazilian boys sent to this country for study at the expense of the Brazilian government, are students at the Oregon Agricultural college. Jeas Ferreira Guides, a graduate of a school of agriculture in Brazil, who is specializing in farm crops, and S. De Melle is taking a course in forestry. They will return to Brazil to become government experts. The Brazilian government plans to send 50 young men to this country every year for study in agriculture, engineering and mining.

EFFORT WAS MADE TO CHANGE BENEFIT IN DENTON'S WILL

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 16.—(U. P.)—Information to the effect that an attempt had been made about the supposed time of the murder of J. C. Denton to have the beneficiary clause in Denton's $15,000 life insurance policy changed, was secured today by the district attorney's office, investigating the murder.

DR. LOVEJOY WOULD TURN LIGHT ON LOWER HOUSE

At a mass meeting of railroad men in Eagles' hall Friday night, Dr. Esther Pohl Lovejoy, candidate for congress from this district, said that she will, if elected, refuse to be "bossed" by a house of representative dictators, and that she will insist upon delving into conditions there, and that she will expose anything wrong which she may find.

Seattle Report of Finding of Baby Is Denied in New York

New York, Oct. 16.—(I. N. S.)—A rumor from Seattle, Wash., that the 20-months-old baby of George T. Stagg, former Seattle and New York newspaper man, had been found, could not be substantiated here today. The attorneys for Miss Betty Brainard, Tacoma newspaper writer, who is held here on bail awaiting extradition papers from that city on a charge of complicity in the alleged kidnaping of the Stagg baby, declared they had no knowledge of the child's recovery.

Roseburg, J. Gordon Byrne, Henry E. Durst, Clinton A. Mercer

Alton—Lyle W. Stuart, Floyd D. Wright, Roderick Belknap, Bertell Ford, Boyd C. Homewood.

Russell Bryon Takes Place of Brother in Justice Department

Russell Bryon has been placed in charge of the Portland office of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice to succeed W. R. Byron, his brother, according to an announcement received from Washington today. A short time ago W. R. Byron was appointed chief special agent for the bureau of investigation of the ninth district, which includes Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Alaska. The chief agent intends to make Portland his headquarters and will keep his present office suite. The department at Washington has authorized the equipment of an additional office for the Portland head. As soon as remodeling is completed Russell Bryon will be found in room 308 of the old Postoffice building.

Postmaster Jones To Be Banquet Guest

John M. Jones, Portland's recently appointed postmaster, will be honored with a banquet tonight at the Portland hotel by employees of the postal service in the city. There are 684 employees.

Lost Clothes While in Jail

While he was in jail four days, Joseph Thomas, Erickson hotel, was robbed of his clothes which were left at the hotel, he told the police today. The property stolen, according to Thomas, consisted of shirts, underwear, two suits and a suitcase.

First R. O. T. C. Band Formed by Men of State University

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 15.—The first R. O. T. C. band has been organized. Herbert Hacker is to direct the organization. In order to form the band 35 men were transferred from the duty companies to the band. Those transferred are: Cornets—Meryl W. Deming, James L. Pearson, Melvin C. Staples, Harold H. Brown. Trumpets—L. Lee Williams, Willis D. Link, Charles R. Hendrie. Trombones—Herbert Hacker, Walter Wegner, George W. Johnson, John W.

Norwegian Bonds Absorbed Quickly

A $5,000,000 issue of 8 per cent 25 year bonds of the city of Christiania, Norway, was absorbed by the New York market in less than one hour this morning. The issue was handled by an eastern syndicate headed by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Freeman Smith & Camp expected to participate in the sale of the bonds, but were advised at an early hour this morning that the issue had been oversubscribed.

Shotgun in Loot

A 12-gauge shotgun, fishing tackle and a gold watch and chain comprised thieves' loot from the home of P. E. Barnes, 8229 Forty-fifth avenue, Friday night.

IN THIS WEEK'S NUMBER Fine Colored Map of New Austria Showing Territory Won and Lost by the Peace Terms; the Territory to Be Decided by Plebiscite; etc.

Polling 600,000 Voters In Six Pivotal States

In this week's LITERARY DIGEST the first installment of THE DIGEST'S poll of 600,000 voters in the six big doubtful states of New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and California, is published. These votes have been polled from all classes of voters with entire impartiality and the results of the poll are extremely interesting, because the electoral votes of these six states total 140, or more than half of the 266 votes necessary for a choice by the electoral college.

- Men Suggested for the Next Cabinet
Labor's "Retreat From Moscow"
The Price of Falling Prices
Efforts to Break the House Famine
The League Preventing War
Europe's Debts and Our Duty
Viscount Grey as an Irish Peacemaker
Salvaging Austria
Lenine as a "Scientific Fanatic"
Analyzing Accidents to Save the Workers
Character Revealed in Hand-Shaking
Porcelain Money
Pilgrim Treasure Discovered
Bygone Best Sellers
Religious Pleas for the League
The "Soviet of Youth" Again

- K. of C. to Fight "Shameful Propaganda" in Rome
America's Waste of Babies
The Electoral College—What It Is and How It Functions
Wages in Great Britain—1914-1920
New Anecdotes and Incidents of T. R.
Korea as "Americanized" by the Japanese
Coblenz Is Becoming "Disgustingly American"
Dancing With Rattlesnakes to Incline the Gods to Send Rain
The Profitable Pursuit of Rum-Running Over the Canadian Border
Sports and Athletics
Best of the Current Poetry
Topics of the Day

October 16th Number on Sale To-day — News-dealers 10 Cents — $4.00 a Year This is a Mark of Distinction to Be a Reader of The Literary Digest FUNK & WAGNALLS COMPANY (Publishers of the Famous NEW Standard Dictionary), NEW YORK

Use Resinol for children's hurts Bathe the injured spot well with Resinol Soap, then apply Resinol Ointment, and see how quickly the tears are forgotten. The soothing, healing, antiseptic qualities which make Resinol Ointment so effective brings prompt relief to the little hurts. If you haven't Resinol in your medicine cabinet buy a jar today. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment sold at all drug stores.