

Halloween Party Will Be Given at Laurelhurst Club

The Laurelhurst club women's progressive unit will give a Halloween and hard times party the evening of October 30 at the clubhouse, the affair to include all club members. The club members will dance at the clubhouse Thursday evening and the afternoon card party for women members will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. George G. Wentworth and Mrs. Charles Irwin will be hostesses.

The fortnightly card party was held at the clubhouse Thursday evening with a large attendance. Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Perkins were hosts. The high scores in bridge went to Mrs. W. P. Richardson and Mrs. James Forbes. In five hundred Mrs. R. C. Bradley and W. M. Rice.

The dancing classes were opened for the season by A. C. Holmes, the instructor, Monday evening and a large crowd attended the opening class.

The Study club met at the clubhouse for its opening meeting of the season, Monday afternoon, with a good attendance.

The Elite Dancing club was formed last week from the members of the Service circle drill team, Neighbors of Woodcraft. The club will give a series of dances through the winter. The first affair will be a Halloween dance to be given at the Army October 27. The members of the club include: Miss Eunice Ross, Mrs. Anna Cox, Mrs. American Tietjen, Miss Carlee Crowner, Mrs. Dennison, Miss Inth, Miss Beatie Willgerodt, Mrs. Nan Boyd, Mrs. May Campbell, Mrs. William H. McDaniel, Miss Leona Hayward, Miss Blanch Stephens, Mrs. James D. Gillilan. Patronesses for the first dance include: Mrs. C. C. Van Orsdall, Mrs. Anna Mardall, Mrs. Minnie Hiner, Mrs. Nellie Starr, Mrs. Minnie McGregor, Mrs. Gene Harney, Mrs. Dona McDaniel, Mrs. Carol Himmelgarn.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Allen Denmore are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter, born to them last week. Mrs. Denmore will be remembered as one of the soloists at the Church of Our Father (Unitarian).

Members of Alpha Chi Omega alumnae met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. MacDonald Mayne. The affair was planned as a surprise trousseau shower for Miss Alberta Cavender, whose marriage to Osborn B. Morrow will be an event of early November.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund W. Ottenheimer entertained with an informal dinner party Monday evening at the Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for 11 guests.

Portland friends have received cards

MRS. JOHN RAYMOND ROBINSON (Gertrude Towne) of Buffalo, N. Y., who is the house guest of Miss Madelle A. Lyon. Miss Lyon and Mrs. E. H. Streit entertained at a smart tea for Mrs. Robinson last week at the home of the latter.

Mrs. Robinson Honor Guest of Many Affairs

ONE of the much feted visitors in Portland is Mrs. John Raymond Robinson (Gertrude Towne) of Buffalo, N. Y., who is the guest of Miss Madelle Lyon for a short time. Mrs. Robinson is a former Portland girl, whose wedding was an event of last year at Forest Hall on Columbia river highway.

Mrs. Ernest Hamilton Streit and Miss Lyon entertained at a delightful tea at the home of the former in Lucretia court Saturday. Mrs. Edward Pape was hostess for a luncheon of six covers at the University club Thursday afternoon, her guests including Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Victor W. Strode, Miss Madelle Lyon, Mrs. Temple and Mrs. Streit.

Friday Mrs. Strode asked a number of girls in for the afternoon in honor of Mrs. Robinson, who expects to leave for her home in the East early this week. Mrs. Walter Yerian and Mrs. Vernon Wayne Burke entertained the visitor at a dancing party at the home of the former in Irvington Friday evening.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Ruby Faye Robinson and Arthur P. Wilson. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Robinson, in East Madison street. The bride was lovely in a gown of net over silver cloth, with a tulle veil held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Vida Cunningham, was charmingly gowned in pink taffeta and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. Russell Jackson was best man. The service was read by the Rev. W. L. Wilson, father of the bridegroom, and the bride was given in marriage by her father. Before the ceremony Miss Ruth Smuckley sang a wedding song. Miss Ruth Journquist played the wedding march. The ceremony was attended by a large number of relatives and friends and was followed by a reception, for which the rooms were artistically decorated with autumn leaves, ferns and flowers. The bride is a graduate of Washington high school. Wilson attended Washington high and during the war was in France two years. He is now a pharmacist connected with the A. W. Allen Drug company. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will make their home in Portland.

In honor of Miss Sara Hems, an attractive young bride-elect, Miss Tillie Spellman entertained with a trousseau shower at her home Wednesday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated with gaily colored autumn foliage and flowers. Music and dancing were the features of the evening. The engagement to Edward Nudelman, Seattle was recently announced. No definite date for the wedding has been made, but will probably be an event of the early winter.

The second dance of the season was given Saturday night at B'nai Brith with a much larger attendance than favored the opening party, a convincing evidence of the need and popularity of regular dances at the building. Another dance will be given Saturday, October 30, with many attractive Halloween features.

Mrs. C. D. Bruun, who left the city some time ago to place her niece, Miss Edith Marshall, in school in California, is spending a short time at the Oakland hotel, Oakland. She will remain there until October 25, returning to Portland soon after that date.

Miss Nell Parker was hostess for a delightful bridal shower Wednesday evening, honoring Miss Eva Perry, whose marriage to Eldon J. Evans will be an event of November 4. Gifts of aluminum for the bride's home were brought by girl friends who attended the affair, and the rooms were adorned for the occasion with a bridal motif of hearts. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Oliver Parker and Mrs. Frank Perry. The supper table was attractively arranged with bride dolls and heart place cards. Guests included Mrs. June S. Jones (Roberta Downing), Mrs. W. G. Korlam (Opal Downing), Mrs. Olive McClung, Mrs. Dorcas Wells, and the Misses Eva Perry, Olive Landogon, Elsie Fitzler, Fern Oswald, Margaret Crawford, Jessie Sawyer, Lazona Melching.

Mrs. George Pfavel and Miss Nellie Pfavel are here from Astoria for a few days and are guests at the Hotel Portland.

Ben Butler Women's Relief corps was host for a dinner served to Portland corps last week and at that time entertained several guests from other similar organizations. The next meeting will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock at the courthouse when the Rev. C. E. Cline will give an address on Abraham Lincoln.

MRS. C. N. McARTHUR (Lucille Smith), who has recently returned to Portland to spend a few weeks before returning to Washington, D. C. Mrs. McArthur is living at 705 Davis apartments and is being much entertained.

Engagement of Mrs. Shillock Is To Be Bride of Judge Anderson

AN interesting engagement announcement was made Saturday at an afternoon party given by Mrs. James A. Bent when the news of the betrothal of her sister, Mrs. Edith Camp, to Ted Walker was told to a number of friends.

Miss Camp is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Camp and has a host of friends. No definite date has been announced for the wedding. Mr. Walker is engaged in business in this city.

Among those who enjoyed the pleasant surprise were: Mesdames Harlan Pearson, George Rotegarde, A. D. Keene, Roy Camp, Hermes Wrightson, the Misses Hazel Camp, Eva Tucker, Eudora Cowan, Aasef Lassen, Lois Martin, Henrietta Haines, Helen Coe, Bernice and Eva Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson and Sammie Jackson II and Mrs. Etna Ransom left the city early last week for Baltimore, Md., where they will spend a short time before going to Virginia to visit at Mr. Jackson's boyhood home. Before returning to Portland they expect to make a sea trip through the West India islands and will return to Portland by way of California. They expect to be absent from the city about two months.

Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood asked a few friends in for luncheon Wednesday at her home in Kearney street. The affair was most informal, and guests included Mrs. Kurt H. Koehler, Mrs. W. L. MacGregor, Mrs. Grenville Vernon, Mrs. Mary H. Scarborough, Mrs. Josephine Andrews, Mrs. Frederick L. Warren, Mrs. George C. W. Low and Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe.

Miss Elizabeth Stanfield and Mrs. John Raymond Robinson were honor guests at a luncheon given by Miss Alva Jo Cagle on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Berger, 738 Melrose drive. Purple asters and Caroline Testout roses decorated the table, around which were seated 12 guests. Following the luncheon Mrs. William Stitt entertained with a box party at the Baker theatre.

Dr. Emil Enns, pianist; Charles South, violinist; Otto Wedemeyer, baritone, and Miss Margaret Notz, accompanist, were guests at Hill Military academy Wednesday, and gave the cadets an artistic musical program. The honor guests, Messrs. Wedemeyer, Enns and South, are members of the faculty at the academy.

Peter A. Porter circle, No. 25, Ladies of G. A. R., will give an old-fashioned basket social Wednesday at Baker's hall, Albina avenue at Killingsworth. The women are asked to wear old-fashioned costumes and bring luncheon for two.

Miss Ethel Laughlin and Miss Mildred Glasco, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Moser, returned to their home in Chicago Wednesday. The visitors were extensively entertained during their stay here.

FURS and MYSTERY

BY N. M. UNGAR

The sublime ignorance displayed by inexperienced clerks in some stores in answering customers' questions is pathetic, but would be immoderately ludicrous were it not for the fact that it is so often very costly to the customer.

For instance, a girl was shopping for a beaver collar, and upon being shown one asked if the fur was genuine beaver, and the clerk said, "Yes, that is genuine Nutria Beaver." Upon being pinned down for an explanation of what Nutria is, the clerk said that it is the fur from a beaver's stomach.

Now, is it any seven-day wonder why people become dissatisfied when their fur apparel does not wear, or look as they should? Nutria, the trade name of the South American Coypu, closely resembles some grades of North American Beaver, but that is no reason why it should be sold as "Nutria Beaver," or the more ridiculous explanation, "fur from a beaver's stomach."

Personal supervision by one of practical experience should be given all transactions in furs. Clerks should have sufficient knowledge of furs that would enable them to be the buyer's assistant, and not merely a selling automaton.

The shop of reliable furs will not only represent the merchandise in its true form, but when necessary will also open a seam and show what is below the beautiful lining and padding.

Fur of the wolf makes warm, durable muffs and robes and is highly prized by many owners, but in view of the fact that a majority of people are but children in the hands of the unscrupulous dealer, it is well to beware of the Wolf in Sheep's Clothing.

Community Girls To Have Rally Tuesday Evening

MISS HARRIET LEACH and George Natansen will appear on the program of the community service rally to be held in the assembly room of the Multnomah hotel, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Charles F. Berg will be chairman of the evening, and Mayor Baker will address the young people. Miss Kathleen Cockburn will outline the plans for the winter activities. All young men and women interested in community service and their friends are cordially invited to be present. No admission will be charged.

The regular weekly activities of community service will be as follows: Monday, community service chorus, room A, Central Library, 8 p. m.; Tuesday, athletics, gymnasium, Washington high school, 7:45 p. m.; Thursday, American short story class, 438 Northwestern Bank building, 7:30; Friday, military drill and games, armory, 7:45. All community service girls are welcome at the Y. W. C. A. swimming pool every Wednesday from 5 p. m. to 8 p. m. Girls are required to bring suits and towels.

Miss Harriet Mardall became the bride of William H. McDaniel at high noon Tuesday, the Rev. H. H. Griffin officiating. Mrs. H. M. Mikkelsen was matron of honor and H. M. Mikkelsen was best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. James D. Gillilan, a sister of the bridegroom. For the occasion the rooms of the bride's home were handsomely decorated with dahlias and autumn leaves. The bride was gowned in brown taffeta, the gown having been remodelled from the wedding dress worn by the bridegroom's mother, 37 years ago. Following the ceremony a wedding collation was served. Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel will make their home in Portland.

Miss Carol S. Dibble of Salem left recently for Seattle, where she will continue her studies with the Cornish School of Music, taking up work in the dramatic department.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Strahorn are down from Spokane on a combined business and pleasure trip and are stopping at the Hotel Portland. Strahorn is a prominent railroad contractor.

Mrs. Thomas W. Spencer is down from McMinnville for a visit with her daughter, Miss Cornelia Spencer, who makes her home at the Hotel Portland.

Miss Eleanor Adams of Galveston, Texas, is the house guest of Mrs. W. P. Campbell.

Mrs. Randolph Flagg asked a few friends in for the tea hour Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Schenck announce the birth of a son who arrived Thursday. The baby will be named George.
