

MRS. HIRSCH HAROLD BROMBERG (Mazie Cartman), whose marriage was an event of Thursday evening at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. A. L. Goldstein in Elliott ave. Mrs. Bromberg is a San Francisco girl.

Mazie Cartman Weds Playmate Of Childhood

ONE of the pretty weddings of the week was that of Miss Mazie Cartman and Hirsch Harold Bromberg, which was solemnized Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Goldstein in Elliott avenue. The service was read by Rabbi Jonah B. Wise in the presence of a few close friends and relatives of the bridal couple. For the ceremony the rooms were adorned with lovely autumn blossoms and an improvised altar of chrysanthemums and greenery was placed for the ceremony.

The bride was smartly gowned in ivory toned brocaded satin made in draped mode with a veil of embroidered tulle. Pearl tracery embellished both gown and veil and coronet of lace and orange blossoms formed the headpiece. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, John Dellar. There were no attendants.

Following the ceremony a wedding reception for more than 200 guests was held. Assisting about the rooms for the evening were Miss Elizabeth Dellar, Miss Margaret Dellar of Seattle, Miss Belle Simon, Miss Lorna Abrams, Miss Belle Caro and Miss Blanche Barde.

The bride is a San Francisco girl, who spent her early childhood in Portland, which is her native city. She is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Esther Cartman of San Francisco and is an accomplished musician and dancer. She was graduated from the San Francisco schools and finished at the Cumnock school in Los Angeles. Mr. Bromberg and his bride were playmates as children and renewed their friendship this summer when Miss Cartman paid a visit to Portland with her mother. He was in service overseas with the A. E. F. and since his return has been attached to the business staff of The Journal.

Following their honeymoon, which will be spent in California, Mr. and Mrs. Bromberg will make their home in Rose City Park.

Mrs. William George Tucker was hostess at an informal luncheon at her home at Lucretia Court, honoring Mrs. B. Clifford Ireland of San Francisco. Covers were placed for eight guests: Mrs. A. E. Dugman, Mrs. Paul Daniels, Mrs. William Hodecker, Mrs. Wallace Morris, Mrs. Henry Viereck and Mrs. J. R. Mummax. Mrs. Ireland was hostess at a delightful luncheon at the Portland hotel Saturday, with covers placed for six. A box party at the Baker followed. Mrs. Ireland left for her home in San Francisco Wednesday.

Dr. Gustave E. Bruere left the city last week for the East and has been attending the convulsion of the American College of Surgeons at Montreal this week. He will join Mrs. Bruere in New York today and they will visit friends there for the week, returning to Portland in a short time. Mrs. Bruere went east to place their daughters, Ruth and Alice, in the Knox school at Cooperstown, N. Y.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. George Knight Clark to Percy Hannigan. Mr. and Mrs. Hannigan are quietly married October 2 and spent their honeymoon motoring through California. They will make their home for the present in Los Angeles, where Mr. Hannigan is manager for Morris Brothers.

The opening dance of the season was a delightful affair at B'nai B'rith hall. The next affair will take place next Saturday evening and a special Halloween party will be given on October 30.

Peter A. Porter circle No. 25, Ladies of the G. A. R., will give a "500" party this evening at the residence of Mrs. Ross Garrison, 1281 Corbett street. Take Fulton car to Sweeney street.

Employes Have Enjoyable Time At Dance Party

A DELIGHTFUL affair of Tuesday given Tuesday evening at the Portland Heights club by the employes of the Eastern Outfitting company of honoring the Misses Adrienne and Alma Shemanski, who are both brides-elect. A novel and entertaining feature of the evening was the mock wedding in which the Messrs. Littman, Bishop, Irwin, Krause, Wright and McMullen and Duffield assumed the roles of members of the bridal party, attired in original costumes and carrying out their various parts with clever impersonations.

Miss Alma Shemanski, who has been a member of the firm for several years and who recently announced her engagement to Abe Cohen, was presented with a handsome gift by her co-workers. Miss Adrienne Shemanski received a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums from the employes.

Those who had charge of details for the success of the affair were William Krause, Jean Terry, Mrs. E. Yerkes, L. J. Conners and L. A. McMullen.

A charming bride of the week was Miss Hazel Minar, whose marriage to Ray A. Yergen took place Wednesday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. W. Minar, 1170 East Salmon street. Dr. J. A. Staub of Sunnyside Congregational church read the service in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. An abundance of autumn foliage and flowers adorned the rooms and formed a bower under which the bridal party stood. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Manly Danforth sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Dora Danforth, who also played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin." The bride was beautiful in a gown of white satin with pearl trimmings and a tulle veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bride roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Mrs. Manly Danforth, as matron of honor, was charming in shell pink georgette, with a bouquet of pink rosebuds. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Edwin L. Minar, and another brother, W. Harold Minar, served as best man. Mrs. Yergen is popular socially in the younger set of the city. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Yergen of Aurora, well known pioneers of the Willamette valley. The bridal couple will be at home after November 1 at their home near Aurora.

Mrs. Percy Charlton of Chicago, who arrived in Portland Monday to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Warren Keeler, was honored at a smart tea Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Crete M. Donald, daughter of Mrs. Keeler, received with her mother and the guest of honor. At the tea hour those who presided at the tea table, which was centered with an attractive arrangement of autumn blossoms, were: Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. E. E. Montgomery, Mrs. Thomas H. Geeverly, Mrs. B. M. C. Whittaker, Mrs. J. Guy Strohm and Mrs. W. C. Cameron. Mrs. Charlton will remain in the city about a fortnight.

Chester Traxler entertained a few of his friends at the home of his parents, 1556 East Everett street, Saturday, the event being his ninth birthday anniversary. Games were played and refreshments served. Those present were: Gladys and Harlan Potts, Clarence and Dorothy Parnald, Lorene and Kenneth Woodward, Hazel Alya, Dick Mosberg, Ostrad Bergdall, Edgar Endicott, Gwendolyn Wendeborn, Evelyn Bryant and Etta and Chester Traxler.

H. B. Compton W. R. C. No. 52 held its sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. I. N. Shatto Friday. The attendance was good, a luncheon was served and much work accomplished.

Mrs. W. J. Vincent, 333 East Fifty-fifth street north, will entertain the Corinthian chapter past matrons at a bridge luncheon Wednesday.

Commencing Tomorrow Morning at Nine, Our Most Important Step Towards Lower Prices

Annual Week of Sales

Months ago we foresaw that prices would come down. We bought sparingly and when the big fall in the market came we were not heavily loaded with merchandise which we had paid a big price for. At the break we bought and bought heavily at the shattered prices, thus making the wonderful values enumerated here possible.

Now! We sincerely advise and urge you who have waited for lower prices to "BUY NOW." Never before in the history of this institution were values so impressive. Every garment in this "Annual Week of Sales" measures up to the well known and recognized Liebes standard in quality, style and dependability.
