Portland Commission to Stand for No Stalling From Lee Anderson in Wednesday Bout

Anderson to Be Forced by S. Langford

EE ANDERSON, the colored heavyweight battler, who set the San Francisco fistic fans agog with his sensational milling until he put himself in bad by signing up with every promotor who approached him with a con-tract, will have to do battle against Sam Langford Wednesday night in the Heilig theatre or have Referee Francis-"THAM" IS WISE

The Boston "Tar Baby" is too wise a head to permit Anderson to stall, and will likely sink a "bone crusher" as soon as an opening prevails. Langford is depending on his right ability to put away a stake to take care of him after he gets too old to don the padded mitts and for that reason will likely make Anderson is due to arrive from Sacramento Monday night. He will have but one real hard workout for the bout, but according to reports he is in good physical condition, having been boxing regularly around the Golden Gate district. Reports from Sacramento, where Anderson and Jim Barry staged a flasco, indicate that Anderson was using his head and elbows a little bit too much to suit Barry and Jim's seconds covered his gloves with resin. This angered Anderson and the battle ended in the ringside seats, with the police pulling Anderson away from Barry.

If Anderson starts and rough stuff with Sam he will have to pay for it GRUNAN TO BOX WING
