

SCOTT'S SLAYER TO BE HANGED, NOT EXTRADITED

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 29.—(U. P.)—Joseph Scanlon, said to be a drug addict, and said to have been identified by a former "pal" as the slayer of Deputy Sheriff Robert C. Scott, will not be brought back from Vancouver, B. C., to answer to a charge of murder, it was stated today.

Instead, Scanlon and Mike Molyneux will be hanged in New Westminster on January 27 for kicking to death a logger, Daniel Morrison, whom they found in bed ill when they went to rob his hotel room.

Scott was killed in a skirmish between deputies and two automobile bandits in Rainier valley suburb last April.

Milton Auxiliary Elects
Milton, Or., Oct. 29.—Milton's Red Cross auxiliary elected the following officers: Chairman, Mrs. T. C. Elliott; vice chairman, Mrs. S. S. Shields; secretary, Mrs. Robert McEwen; treasurer, George A. Price; directors, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. W. Ahearn, Mrs. T. A. Williams and Mrs. A. Reid.

The Colombian government has continued for three more years a contract with a German geologist as head of a scientific research and exploration commission.

Blazing the Trail

—More than a century ago, without any blare of trumpets, Lewis and Clark placed their packs upon their backs, plunged into the wilderness and broke the trail into the Northwest.

—Great have been the results of their work and the people of the Northwest have profited by it.

—Lipman, Wolfe & Co. were the first to break the trail back to lower prices.

This was done without any hue or cry. We made up our minds to reduce prices and we did.

—By proper merchandising, we have been able to give to the people of Portland all the benefits to be derived from buying at lower prices.

—Lowering prices is considered an inherent duty of this establishment, and the buying public has profited by the policy. In truth you can term Lipman, Wolfe & Co. Pathfinders of 1920.
