KEYSER PROVIDES PENINSULA PARK'S WINTER SCHEDULE

First of the complete programs for the community houses was announced today for the Peninsula park house by Superintendent of Parks Keyser. The program includes regular gymnastic drills, corrective gymnastic work, folk dancing, games and social activities. Men and women and boys and girls have been given a schedule that will provide for a complete winter of playground activity.

As an auxiliary to the work carried on in the community houses, the park board, cooperating with the school board, has made it possible for 19 classes in gym work to be started in the various schools on both the east and west sides. The Parent-Teacher associations are cooperating to a great extent to make these district school classes a success.

The complete program includes, in the ladies' gymnasium division, classes Wednesday and Saturday at 1:30 p. m., for boys and girls 3 to 6 years; Wednesday and Saturday at 3 p. m., for juniors 6 to 11 years; Tuesday and Friday at 4 p. m., for intermediates, 12 to 14 years; Monday and Thursday at 3:30 p. m., for high school girls, 14 to 18; ladies' classes Tuesday and Fridays at 10:30 a. m., 1:30 and 8 p. m. Aesthetic dancing will be taught Monday evenings at 7:30 p. m. and basketball Thursdays at 7:30 p. m.

In the men's division, juniors have Wednesdays and Saturdays at 4 p. m. and 10:30 a. m., intermediates, Monday and Thursday 4 p. m., high school boys, Tuesday and Friday at 4 p. m.; seniors, over 18 years, Monday and Thursday, 8 p. m.; business men, Tuesday and Friday at 7:30 p. m.; junior leaders, Saturday, 1:30 p. m.; senior leaders, Saturday, 2:30 p. m.

TROUTDALE

Ira N. Gabrielson of Powell Valley passed through Troutdale Wednesday with an auto load of bees and hives from the farm of J. C. Wilson of Springfield. The appliances of the Wilson farm have been purchased by Gabrielson and will hereafter be located on his Powell Valley orchard tract.

A. D. Kendall of Troutdale has about 20 hives of bees between the Columbia river highway and the railroad nearly opposite the bank, from which he sold this year nearly 200 in white clover honey. He has been successful in raising much more. The honey is of the very best quality and is nearly all sold locally. J. P. Loudon, near the Sandy river bridge, has as many more. It is understood they are as faithful and profitable workers as those of the Kendall place.

McGinnis and Kendall have shipped from their nine acres of celery over 400 crates this season and are still busy. The output is nearly all disposed of in Montana and Idaho, but some goes to Chicago, Seattle, Portland and St. Paul. Other tracts in this vicinity have shipped about 2000 crates this season. A few years ago some Japanese workers were employed by McGinnis, and they have been operating for themselves near Salem and returning out a large amount of product that has invaded the Portland markets.

Martin Federpel, the sauerkraut king of Oregon, is treating his 40 acres of cabbages into the product that has won him fame and almost fortune on his farm near Troutdale. In a few days he will be turning out the product by the ton. It will take a few weeks to ripen before being put on the market. Some of his early cabbage sauerkraut is now available, but only a small quantity was put down. Six men will be employed in the sauerkraut mill which is up to date in the way of improved machinery.

Mrs. Annie W. Reynolds of Portland is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wright, at her home in Troutdale. Spoken by Lou Harlow feasted Sunday on a bear ham sent him from Wapinitia by Heckler. The meat was pronounced very tender and palatable by several neighbors invited to participate.

L. A. Harlow and wife moved into their new home. Mrs. Harlow will entertain the Ladies Aid Wednesday, November 3, and a good attendance is expected. Preparations for the coming bazaar will occupy the energies of the visitors.

Herman Blazer and J. W. Sisk are on a hunting trip in Southwestern Oregon, and will be gone for several more days.

The masquerade party to be given in the brick building Saturday evening is attracting the young folks in the vicinity of Troutdale.

The children of Mrs. Lydia Ostrand surprised her Saturday night on the occasion of her sixtieth birthday. An old-time home supper was enjoyed, friends of the family participating. Among those present were Mrs. Eva Pointer of Portland, C. E. Bush of Astoria, three children of Bridal Veil, W. J. Ostrand and wife of Bridal Veil.

Friends of William W. Spence, son of W. C. Spence and wife of Troutdale, were surprised to learn of his marriage at Whitman college, at Walla Walla, last week to Miss Nola Cresop. Both are students at Whitman. They are expected to spend a part of their honeymoon in Troutdale.

ALBINA ALL-STARS TO MEET BEAVERS

The Albina All-Stars will meet the Kenton Beavers in a football battle next Sunday morning on the Jefferson football field.

The bureau of construction of the city of Portland is placing a danger signal at the intersection of Alberta street and Albina avenue to help eliminate the numerous auto accidents.

The Peninsula apartments, at 1125 1/2 Albina avenue, are being thoroughly renovated and painted.

A new pool room has been established at 1137 Albina avenue. It will be called The Club. The grand opening will be held Saturday night.

The Jackson Dancing academy has moved from its old home on Killingsworth avenue to the corner of Beach street and Mississippi.

A song-fest was held at the North Portland library last Thursday for the students of the Oakley Green and Thompson schools. The children also enjoyed several stories pertaining to Halloween.

Nell Emmot and family will move into their new home above the Albina Dressed Beef shop some time next week.

Returns of the elections will be flashed from the Crystal theatre at Albina and Killingsworth through the courtesy of J. K. Case & Son, grocers; Fryers pharmacy, Crystal theatre and the Colonial Candy company.

C. Frost and family of 191 Church street have returned to their old home at Favidon, Ohio.

The Jefferson field was the scene of a lively football game last Sunday. The Highland team defeated the Overbrook football team. Al Case refereed the game.

A Roosevelt day Republican rally was held last Wednesday night at the North Portland library. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Piedmont Republican club. The Hon. Gus C. Moser spoke on national issues.

A jitsu dance was held in the gymnasium of the Jefferson high school last Wednesday by the students of Jefferson.

Expansion of Nut Culture in State In 2 Years Shown

Colonel Henry E. Dosch, secretary of the Oregon state board of horticulture, is just completing the manuscript for the biennial report of this board, which will be printed in time for presentation at the convening of the next legislature. It will contain much interesting information regarding the development of horticulture in Oregon and especially in Multnomah county and surrounding territory.

Considerable space will be given, says Colonel Dosch, to the extension of French walnut growing in Oregon, and the report will show that there are now more than 10,000 acres of these trees in this state, most of them being in Multnomah, Washington and Yamhill counties.

Horticulture in all lines has made gratifying development during the last two years, according to the showing which will be made in this report, and especially in the lines of walnuts, loganberries, raspberries, prunes, cherries, pears and apples.

The Free Methodists will hold a home missionary meeting Sunday afternoon to consider what can be done about taking the gospel to over 300 Japanese known to be resident, or sojourning in and near Gresham.

Tom Ginder and Will Mensinger have returned from a fishing venture at Waldport.

There was a large attendance Thursday evening at the reception given at the M. E. church to Rev. A. Hisey, recently assigned to labor in the Gresham vineyard.

A party consisting of Grand Bell, wife and three sons and T. L. Evans and wife, has gone to Southern California for the winter.

Joseph Crowstone of Idaho, who is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Hicks, at Corbett, is reported to be very ill.

The Corbett Sunday school has an enrollment of 48 pupils.

The telephone facilities of the Multnomah and Clackamas Mutual have been increased by a new switchboard, additional lines and a special operator for long distance calls.

The Pleasant Home Sunday school is to be held Sunday to the district convention in the Baptist church. Miss G. S. Parkes, state secretary, will speak in the morning and E. W. Peterson, county president, in the afternoon. Lunch will be served at noon.

SON RUNS TIGARD STORE HIS FATHER FOUNDED IN 1852

H. B. Tigard, who runs the store at Tigard founded by his father, Wilson M. Tigard, at Tigardville, in 1852, has lived all his life in this vicinity and knows all the old settlers and their families.

"Father started his store in 1852," said H. B. Tigard, "as an accommodation to the neighbors. He always ran it on that principle. When Tigard started in 1914 because the electric line left Tigardville to take care of itself a mile and a half away, I started this store and left my brother to run the old store. Father died in 1888, before an electric line was thought of. The two centers have almost grown together. With two electric lines and a hard surface highway, Tigard is one of the easiest suburbs to reach from Portland. GRANGE STARTED IN 1874

The Tigard Grange is one of the oldest in the country. It was started in 1874 and has never missed its regular monthly meeting. It now meets on the third Thursday of each month and around its hall situated in a beautiful grove on the Capital highway between Tigard on the electric lines and Tigardville—the old town—on meeting days the farmers gather for miles around. Mrs. Annie McDonald is master of the grange for the present term.

An auction sale of N. G. McDonald's stock and implements is advertised for Saturday at his farm four miles west of Tigardville. McDonald has retired after a number of years of farming and rented his homestead.

CHEESE PLANT PROSPERS
The Red Rock Cheese factory near Tigard is a money-making institution. C. W. West and his son, H. A. West, have recently been turning out nearly 8000 pounds of cheese a week. There are 23 farmers supplying them with milk. Last year there were 36. The product now has 115 customers on the Red Rock books, with the demand exceeding the supply. Last year there were but 52 customers. Payments are made every 30 days and new machinery has enabled the Wests to greatly enlarge their output.

A special school election has been called at Tigard to vote additional funds to maintain the school through the 1920-21 year. A little more than $3000 is asked. A. H. Vincent, clerk of the school board, posted notices Thursday for a meeting to be held Monday, November 15. Plans have been drawn for a building to cost $75,000 and capable of accommodating 500 pupils, but owing to the high cost of materials and labor the taxpayers thought best to postpone the voting of funds or the letting of contracts.

FIND NEW HOMES BETTER
People in Tigard and vicinity who used to say a few years ago that what was needed was a series of "first-class funerals to get rid of the mossbacks" are finding that new homes are better than funerals for giving an upward push to community enterprises. The town is being surrounded by people from the cities seeking small farms, orchards and gardens. As the number of suburbanites increases the community spirit grows. Before many years the town will be incorporated, the new schoolhouse built, some good streets and pavements connected with the Capital highway and better water facilities provided.

From 20 to 25 students of the Portland high schools and other educational institutions reside in and near Tigard. If three or four school districts would combine a union high school could be maintained with 100 to 150 pupils, according to estimate of some who have inquired.

MASONS TO FORM ORENOMAH LODGE

Orenomah lodge, A. F. and A. M. will be organized under dispensation of the grand master Friday evening, November 19. The elected officers of the lodge are:

M. C. Hurn, worshipful master; J. P. Fairhurst, senior warden; Earl H. Schrader, junior warden; C. W. Kemp, secretary; C. E. Green, treasurer. The lodge will transfer into the new lodge its regular meetings and have participated in the conferring of degrees and are pronounced qualified and efficient. The list of Masons holding permit cards who will transfer into the new lodge is constantly growing. The lodge will start with 63 or more and applicants for degrees will soon run it up to 100 members. Until arrangements can be made for building, the lodge will meet in the Thompson hall.

Parties in Multnomah station have noticed that for the past several months the very large proportion of the accidents on the Terwilliger boulevard and the Capital highway occur at the juncture of the two pavements or very near there. This is attributed to the change from asphalt to cement in the roads and to the grades on each side. Speeding at this point is very dangerous and is not necessary.

The Sunday school will give a Halloween party Friday evening, October 29, at the hall over the Thompson store. The need for a Community club of some sort is becoming apparent to many residents. It was the organization of the citizens in the vicinity of Multnomah station two years ago that secured the Capital highway extension of the Terwilliger boulevard, better train service, better school facilities, Bull Run water and other advantages. Just now there is need for such a body to secure a modern school building. The present temporary school building is crowded and likely to be more so. The attendance is nearly 100. Several children would attend if accommodations were provided.

The longest tunnel in the world, 15 miles in length, is planned by a Russian railroad to save an 815 mile detour.

OFFICIALS MEET LENTS' CITIZENS TO TALK PAVING

City officials conferred during the week with citizens of Lents at a community gathering in which the question of paving several districts was considered. Those participating were City Commissioner Barbur and Mann, City Engineer Laugaard, Deputy City Attorney Tomlinson, A. G. Johnson and Mark Goode for the city. It was explained that improvements, including a 12-foot pavement, curbs and sidewalks could be laid for as little as $3 a front foot. A committee was appointed to gather signatures to petitions for the organization of improvement districts with the eventual idea of gaining the permanent street improvement sought.

Mrs. Opal Elliott Hiett, secretary of the First Congregational church of Portland, and her father, J. E. Elliott of Lents, have left for Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the winter.

Miss Adina Morierud was recently married to John T. Witly. A birthday party was given recently for Mrs. S. Starfug at her home, 851 Fifty-third avenue. A dinner was given in the evening.

Gladius Bishop, who has been visiting her parents at 9424 Fifty-fifth avenue for a week, has gone east for an indefinite period in quest of a position with some railway company.

A Halloween social will be given by the Christian Endeavor societies of seven churches of the Mount Scott district this evening.

Mrs. Joe Smith and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Harvey of Sixty-seventh street, visited their son, Paul of Corvallis. They also visited Mrs. Joe Smith's nephew, Frank Gregor of the same city.

Mrs. Alice Anderson of Sixty-eighth street southeast has gone to San Francisco to visit her sister, Mrs. R. L. Pratt. After visiting there a few weeks she will go to Sanger, Cal., to visit her uncle, L. E. Van Roush.

P. A. Kennedy, superintendent at Kelly Butte, had the misfortune to crush his hand Tuesday afternoon while at work.

Mr. and Mrs. Millspaugh are moving to their home in Ninety-second street from Heppner.

S. C. Thomas, from Loma, Mont., is visiting at the Lewellen home. George Holster, who lived on Sixty-seventh street but now resides at Goldendale, Wash., visited his daughter, Mrs. David Byers of 3522 Sixty-seventh street, last week, and from there staid on an extended visit east, going to Sheridan, Mich., and planning to return home by the Southern route.

Mrs. Anna Urdike, mother of J. E. Urdike, arrived from Chehalis, Wash., last week and will remain for an indefinite time at her home in Gilbert Road. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tryon of Sacramento, Cal., are visiting. Mrs. Tryon's cousin, Mrs. John Howe of 5405 Eighty-second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood are visiting at the home of J. C. McGrew of 8741 Fifty-sixth avenue.

Frank Dittmer of Glendive, Mont., took dinner Tuesday with his niece, Mrs. Ed Draste of 9409 Fifty-seventh avenue southeast. They had not met for 11 years.

Mrs. Ray Blanchard of Billas, Idaho, is visiting her uncle, C. H. Blanchard of 6713 Thirty-fifth avenue.

The school factions of Fairview have agreed to forgive and forget—until after November 3.

Mrs. J. H. Peterson and Mrs. J. W. Molar have returned from Hood River, where they have been engaged in saving the apple crop.

Ed Burlingame is visiting relatives in Tygh valley.

Transposition of music from one key to another has been simplified by the invention of an instrument resembling a slide rule.
