backs gained yard after yard by their shiftiness.

Nisbett, who did most of the kicking for the Bears, outplayed McKenna by quite a margin, although McKenna's kicking in the game was much better than he did against Washington a week ago.

The Aggies suffered the loss of 70 yards in penalties. They were penalized several times for offside plays. California was penalized 43 yards, two penalties being called for holding.

SMITH HAS GREAT TEAM
To be beaten by a gridiron aggregation such as California is no disgrace for a team. Smith has a regular scoring machine—strong on the defense and very powerful on the offense.

California got the jump at the start, when Rose's kickoff went but 15 yards. The Bears were held for downs and an exchange of punts followed. After the Aggies were penalized five yards Toomey broke away for a 21-yard gain on a criss-cross play and was downed on the Aggies' three-yard line. Turning the ball as he went down, Hughie McKenna recovered it. McKenna punted and Toomey ran the ball back to the Aggies' 22-yard line. California then began a line attack that put the ball inside the Aggies' 10-yard line, when Beaver fight stopped them. California then resorted to forward passing, but their attempt was lost when Sprott passed the ball over the end line high over Muller's head.

ROSE MISSING CHANCE
From the 20-yard line McKenna punted to midfield. Rose recovering the kick when Toomey fumbled. A forward pass followed, but Rose missed an excellent opportunity to tally when he dropped the ball.

Rose just got his finger tips on the ball and it looked for a moment as though he would hold it. An exchange of punts followed and McKenna completed a pass for 10 yards and Wood completed another for seven, but the bears were held and McKenna was forced to punt.

MARCH ON GOAL LINE
Taking possession of the ball on the Aggies' 36-yard line, California began an attack that led to the first touchdown, after three line bucks, Berkeley completed a pass for nine yards, giving the Bears first down. Hodler was injured on this play and was taken out of the game.

Right at the start of the second period, Sprott completed a short pass to Erb, and Sprott gained one yard on an end run. The Aggies broke up a pass and McKenna punted to midfield, but the Bears started their march over again. Sprott and Toomey made yardage in three downs and a 13-yard forward pass from Sprott to Toomey, with a five-yard penalty on the following down, put the Blue and Gold team on the Aggies' 21-yard line. Sprott broke through on a split buck for 10 yards and on the next down the Aggies were penalized again. This put the Bears in shape to score and Sprott carried the ball six yards around the Aggies' right end for a touchdown. Toomey kicked the goal. California made first down twice during the remainder of the period, but was never close to scoring. In the first half, California gained first down eight times against once for the Aggies. At the start of the second half after an exchange of kicks, California made yardage twice, but Bob Stewart broke up their march by intercepting a pass. McKenna and Nisbett exchanged punts a couple of times, then the Aggies started to buck the line and succeeded in breaking through for a first down, but they were set back by a 15-yard penalty. McKenna caught the Bears napping on a criss-cross and gained 14 yards and Kasberger went over for 4 more, but another holding penalty put the Aggies back again. After two downs, the Aggies pulled their Halloween prank.

McCart was substituted for Clark and McPadden started for the bench, Clark slipping off the field on the West side of the gridiron. When McPadden reached the east end of the field, McKenna shot a long forward pass and "Mac" started down the field. It was only Sprott's speed that prevented the Aggies from scoring. The Aggies then were stopped in an end run and failed on a forward pass.

AGGIES CROSS LINE
It looked dark for them but California was penalized five yards and it gave the Aggies first down on the 15-yard line, as the period ended.

At the start of the third period a pass from Kasberger to Wood put the Aggies on the California six-yard line. Harold McKenna took Wood's place at full-back. On the first play, after a 5-yard penalty against California for offside, Harold McKenna carried the ball over the line.

The teams surged back and forth in the Aggies' territory for several minutes and then Sprott and Muller completed a pass on a third down. Sprott gained five yards. Andy Smith then shot Morrison, one of his crack subs, into the line and Toomey and Morrison gained yardage.

The Bears tried to break through on split and cross bucks but the Aggies held them and then Toomey dropped back and made a field goal, making the score 10-7.

After receiving the kickoff the Aggies opened up a forward pass that netted them nearly 30 yards, but Erb broke up the march by intercepting a pass. Morrison then punted to McKenna who juggled the ball and fumbled when he started to run. Hall was down like a flash on the ball and recovered it. Toomey gained two yards and on the next two downs California put the ball on the one foot line, Morrison carrying it over on the last downs.

After the kick-off, Coach Rutherford made several changes in his lineup and the Bears started another pass attack, but time halted their march, although McPadden had an opportunity similar to Rose's in the first period to score.

The Aggies made first down five times during the game, while California moved the stakes 12 times.

Community Hall in Phoenix Is Gaining Great Popularity

Ashland, Oct. 28.—The members of the Presbyterian church at Phoenix served a chicken dinner on Wednesday evening in Community hall, attended by more than 200 from Medford, Ashland, Talent and vicinity.

Community hall at Phoenix is becoming one of the most popular meeting places in this part of the valley. The funds raised at this dinner will be used to improve the building.

A series of community affairs looking to the fostering of the community social spirit along the lines followed by progressive communities over the country has been programmed for the coming winter. A men's "Brotherhood club" has been organized.

The first card party on this season's calendar, given on the fortnightly ladies' day at the Elks hall, was a large affair, with Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg and Mrs. J. H. McGee as hostesses.

AN ENDORSEMENT OF HERBERT GORDON, For Mayor

We believe that Portland has an opportunity afforded in this election to do something that few cities have ever had the opportunity of doing—that is, to get a real business man to manage the city's business.

We are absolutely convinced that if Portlanders realized this that they would overwhelmingly take advantage of it. That opportunity is to elect Herbert Gordon, one of Portland's ablest and most constructive business men, mayor.

Herbert Gordon, we know, has the nerve and ability to achieve very heavy reductions in the city's expenditures without sacrificing efficiency. He has the practical business experience and the knowledge of public affairs required to enforce a program of economy. The fact that the 1921 budget, if allowed, will add more than $2,500,000 to the cost of city government, as compared to 1917, clearly shows the need of a strong, proved business executive as the city's head. And Mr. Gordon, we believe, is the only candidate capable of carrying through such a policy. He has always been a constructive force in Portland. The record of his personal and business life is clean.

Portland, we believe, needs a new leadership and a new policy—a policy looking toward tax reductions rather than a continuation of war time extravagances. Therefore we bespeak fullest consideration of his high qualifications by our fellow voters.
