Smart Wedding Is Attended By 200 Guests

AUTUMN foliage, combined with fall flowers, formed the setting for the wedding of Miss Ruby Page Ferguson and Anthony Euwer Wednesday evening at the Church of Our Father, Unitarian. The wedding hymn which preceded the ceremony was sung by Mrs. Alice Price. Ralph W. Hoyt played the wedding march. The service was read in the presence of more than 200 guests by the Rev. William G. Elliot Jr., and was followed by a benediction sung by Mrs. Price.

The bride, who is a young woman of unusual charm, was gowned in white satin with chiffon and tulle, the gown cut en train, and the wedding veil descending from a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley combined with Bride roses. Miss Maude Ferguson, a sister of the bride, was a charming maid of honor and wore a smart frock of georgette and tulle with Venetian lace. Her flowers were pink rosebuds and mauve orchids.

Miss Jean McDonald and Miss Edith Carlson, college friends of the bride, from Tacoma, Wash., were bridesmaids. They were handsomely gowned in orchid tinted satin. Eugene Euwer, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The bridal procession was led by little Jane Collett, niece of the bride, who carried a dainty basket of flowers.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Mrs. C. Elizabeth Ferguson of South Dakota, mother of the bride; Mrs. Virginia Courtney Euwer of Parkdale, mother of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Ralph Collett of Portland, a sister of the bride, received with the bride couple.

For the reception, the rooms were banked with orange and autumn leaves. At the punchbowl Miss Annie Gringsby presided during the evening. The wedding cakes were served by Mrs. Ulysses Moore. Out-of-town guests included Arthur Salenbach of Parkdale; Mrs. William Albert Harbison of Pittsburg, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Myrtle Ferguson Ames, Iowa, a sister of the bride; Mrs. Emma McDonald and Miss Margaret McDonald of Tacoma.

Both Mr. Euwer and his bride have an unusually wide circle of friends in Portland. Mr. Euwer is widely known by his humorous writings in verse, which he has admirably illustrated himself. Mrs. Euwer is a gifted reader and has been an instructor in expression in an Eastern school. Following their honeymoon, which will be spent in the mountains, Mrs. Euwer will leave for New Zealand on tour with a Chautauqua circuit and Mr. Euwer will return to New York to complete the details for the publication of his most recent work. He expects to join his wife in New Zealand in March and together they will go to Australia and to the Orient.

Of wide interest to Portland friends is the marriage of Miss Frances Marie Strowbridge to Raymond G. Osborne of Los Angeles, which will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Strowbridge, Wednesday evening, at 790 East Eighth street south. The engagement announcement was made Wednesday at an informal tea for which Miss Wynne Fred Chamberlain was hostess, guests for the occasion including a group of the younger girls. The news was told by the employment of dainty betrothal cards attached to yellow chrysanthemums, which were presented to the guests by the small brother of Miss Strowbridge, William Wadhams Jr. Chamberlain, a girl of unusual charm and personality and has many friends in Portland. She has been a student at the Cumbeck School of Expression at Los Angeles and returned to Portland only last week. Mr. Osborne is in business in Los Angeles and will return to that city with his bride to live.

The marriage of Miss Helen Marty and Christian Wise was quietly solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wise, in Eighty-eighth street. The service was read by the Rev. H. T. Cash. For the ceremony the rooms were tastefully decorated with carnations in pink and white. A delightful wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Wise left for Seattle for a short honeymoon trip, after which they will be at home to their many friends at 2121 Sixtieth avenue southeast.

Portland friends will be interested to know that Mrs. Clarence Jacobson will arrive in Portland within the week, returning from New York with Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot. Mrs. Jacobson has been abroad during the summer and fall months.

The friends of Mrs. Helen Ekin Barrett will be pleased to learn of her continued convalescence at her home, although by the order of her physician she is not permitted to receive callers yet.

Martha Washington chapter No. 14, One of the Eastern Stars, held a reception for its past matrons and patrons

Wednesday evening. The program was much enjoyed and included a vocal solo by Miss Phyllis Wolf, a violin solo by Master Marcell Newman, song by Mrs. Charles Yelding, and a reading by Master Maurice Cannon. The presence of several distinguished guests added to the evening's pleasure. Mrs. J. J. Johnson, worthy matron, was the recipient of two beautiful bouquets, one the gift of the past matrons, the other presented by the committee in charge. The dining room was beautifully decorated with where quaint corsage bouquets marked places for those present. A dainty supper was served.

The Daughters of Isabella spent a pleasant evening in their clubrooms in the Cathedral hall enjoying a Halloween party Tuesday evening. The girls were met at the door and ushered through dark halls by ghostly figures to the assembly hall, which was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and fall colors with black cats and witches peeping from every corner. After spending the evening with games suitable for the occasion refreshments were served.

One of the enjoyable birthday surprise parties of the week was given at the home of Miss Frances Nelson Tuesday evening, the occasion being her nineteenth birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in music and games until a late hour, when a supper was served. Games followed the supper. In addition to the cadets those present were Mr. and Mrs. Swindells, Mrs. Mae Crawford, Dr. Ernest Estes, Mrs. F. G. Hansen, Mrs. Charles Hansen, Miss Helen Hansen of Enunclaw.

The Margold Five Hundred club held the first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. F. I. Marshall, 5330 Forty-first avenue southeast, Friday. The afternoon was spent at "500" after which refreshments were served. Card honors fell to Mrs. H. F. McInturff. Other members present were Mrs. C. O. Roman, Mrs. Allen G. Miss Newbegin Honor Guest of Mrs. Kellaher

MISS ELLEN NEWBEGIN, whose marriage to Ernest Crichton will be an event of the latter part of November was the guest of honor at a smart luncheon for which Mrs. Dan Kellaher was hostess at her home in Irvington Wednesday. The table for the affair was unusually attractive. A miniature platform covered with a blue and silver rug leading from it to the table was the setting for a keeplee bridal party, the bride and bridegroom, the bridesmaids and the entire company, and the platform was surrounded with a number of dainty Wellescraft candles in colors to harmonize with the gowns of the bridesmaids. A guest prize of the candles was given to the bride-elect. Covers were laid for Miss Newbegin, Mrs. James B. Ambrose, Mrs. Edward Barnes Watson, Mrs. Gillis Kellaher, Mrs. James Jancy, Mrs. Earl Latourrette, Mrs. Charles T. Frenn, Mrs. Frank S. Barnes, Mrs. Robert McMurray, Miss Jeanette Wiggins, Miss Katherine Corbin, Miss Loris Ganong. Following the luncheon bridge was played, card honors falling to Miss Corbin.
