

Dance Promises To Be One of Smart Functions

ONE of the smart functions of the season will be the subscription dance to be given at the Benson hotel November 11 by a group of younger married folk. Patronesses for the event will include: Mrs. Henry W. Metzger, Mrs. Ruth Schweitzer, Mrs. Max Hirsch, Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Mrs. Joseph Rothchild, Mrs. F. Seiler, Mrs. Lloyd Frank, Mrs. Milton Wurzweller, Mrs. Jesse B. Ettleson, Mrs. Harold M. Wendell, Mrs. Charles F. Berg, Mrs. William Heller Ehrmann, Mrs. Herbert L. Pray, Mrs. Sanford Lowengart, Mrs. Roy Marx, Mrs. Sigmund Ottenheimer. Invitations have been issued to about 200 guests.

The marriage of Miss Bessie Oella Storey to Vilroy Cole Miller of Livingston, Mont., was an event of Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Storey of Irvington. The service was read in the presence of a small number of friends and relatives by Rev. John H. Gardner Jr. of Detroit, Mich. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Davidson, and the music was continued softly throughout the ceremony. Miss Marie Whinnie was bridesmaid and Blaine R. Smith Jr. was the bridegroom's only attendant.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white satin with Irish lace brought from France by the bridegroom, who was in service overseas. Her flowers were Ophelia roses. Miss Gammie wore a smart frock of blue satin and georgette crepe and carried pink roses.

The bride, who has been a student of the Russian School of Dancing under Miss Gammie, is a former Tacoma girl and has made her home in Portland only a short time. She was graduated from the Girls' Collegiate school of Los Angeles. Her father, J. O. Storey, is a prominent lumberman of this city.

Mr. Miller is a graduate of Ann Arbor and of Princeton university. He is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity and of the Key and Seal club of Princeton.

Following a brief honeymoon through Montana and a few days' visit in Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home in Livingston, where the bridegroom is engaged in business.

Cherryville, Oct. 30.—The wedding of Archie Avenell of Cherryville to Miss Muriel Bissell of Portland was celebrated at the residence of the bride's mother, in Portsmouth avenue, Sunday at high noon, the Rev. Atkinson of the Methodist Episcopal church officiating. The bridegroom is employed by the Crown Paper company of Oregon City and is an overseas veteran. Mr. and Mrs. Averill left for a brief wedding trip to sound cities and will make their home at Oregon City after November 1.

Miss Helen Catron was hostess at a charmingly appointed dinner given Tuesday evening at the Hotel Portland to announce the engagement of Miss Dorothy Bade and E. MacFarland Green. Covers were placed for 10 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Loring K. Adams entertained Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas and Mrs. May Debra Schwab at the University club dinner dance Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bert E. Haney also joined their party.

MRS. JOSEPH W. HAMMOND is one of the charming recent brides who have come to Portland to reside. She was Miss Edith M. Rubie of San Francisco before her marriage several weeks ago.

Old Fashioned Dance Given at Country Club

AN old-fashioned dinner and a dance were given Saturday night at Waverley Country club as a feature of the celebration of Halloween. More than 150 reservations for dinner parties were made and the affair was a delightful one. Among those who were hosts for small parties were: Mr. and Mrs.

Thomas H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Neighbor, Mrs. Francis Burke, A. S. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Nevins, A. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Kerr, Mrs. C. V. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Sharpe, O. B. Stubbs, Dr. and Mrs. J. Phillippe Tammie, J. C. Banks and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jewett came down from Gardiner Friday to meet relatives arriving from the East to spend the winter in Oregon.

Ben Butler Relief corps will hold its regular meeting at 625 courthouse Thursday at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Halloween Is Celebrated in Fitting Colors

ONE of the unique affairs of the week was the Halloween party given Tuesday evening by the "Self-Starters," a group of the younger married folk who have arranged several delightful functions throughout the last year, each being featured with a program which is carefully kept a secret until the guests assemble. For Tuesday night's affair the company, which includes about 30 young people, met at the entrance to the Lone Fir cemetery when being summoned by the committee of the club. The guests were shrouded in sheet and pillow case costumes and masked. Following their leader, they were escorted to the Laurelhurst clubhouse, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron M. Frank for dinner, which was served in novel fashion from long tables covered with black tablecloths. The clubhouse was banked in autumn foliage, and the crimson leaves were artistically arranged about the lamps of the club and upon the tables. Following the dinner the company enjoyed an informal dance.

An election day ball will be held in the Knights of Columbus building next Tuesday evening. The dance will be given by P. J. Vogl, F. J. Schneiderjost, C. J. Lair, Vincent Collins, Dr. J. M. Murphy and John Callahan. A feature of the evening will be the receipt of election returns on a private wire, which will be announced during intermissions. Invitations for the affair are obtainable at the K. of C. clubhouse, 364 Taylor street.

The Women of Rotary were Halloween hostesses at Women of Woodcraft hall Saturday evening, with men of Rotary as guests. Fortune telling booths, stunts, cards and dancing were among the evening's features. The fact that guests were in costume added special interest to the occasion. Mrs. E. C. Peets and Mrs. E. W. Ellis were among those active in managing the affair.

Misses Campbell Hostesses for Halloween Party

AT THE home of Floyd J. Campbell, 411 East Fifty-second street north, the Misses Helen and Florence gave a very merry Halloween party, Saturday evening when dancing and a general good time was enjoyed.

The decorations were typical of the season, yellow and black favors with cornstalks and jack-o'-lantern pumpkins. The refreshments consisted of individual pumpkin pies, miniature doughnuts and apple cider.

The 40 guests included Josephine Orput, Rodney Keating, Joy Johnson, John Kirk, Gwendolyn Kohms, Robert Tasker, Helen Gripper, Kenneth Wilson, Frances Gripper, Wayne Woodmansee, Marguerite Dutcher, Chester Dutcher, Helen Cantine, Robert Dickinson, Gertrude

Houk, Ned Kittos, Jane Fitzpatrick, Cornelius Tomsett, Penelope Gehr, Herbert Cronkite, Dorothy Anderson, Griggs Carlson, Anabel Clark, Lloyd Davies, Freda Russ, Ben Matthews, Hazel Smith, Joyce Dahl, Mary Clarin, Robert Bernal, Esther Figgins, Jesse Laman, Katherine Short, Hilton Ross, Mildred Johnson, Otto Pick, Jack Lothrop, Allen Crisell.

Mrs. C. N. McArthur has been the inspiration for several informal affairs during the past week. Mrs. W. B. Roberson entertained for her with bridge and a tea Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. LeRoy E. Fields was a luncheon hostess in her honor and Mrs. Henry W. Metzger was hostess for a luncheon honoring Mrs. McArthur Saturday afternoon. Monday, Mrs. Carl L. Wernicke will entertain informally for her.

The Iowa State society will meet Wednesday evening, at the Portland Turn Vereta hall. The business meeting will begin promptly at 8:15 o'clock, to be followed by a program of cards, and dancing. Refreshments will be served. All Iowans and friends are invited to attend.

Hill Cadets Are Hosts at Merry Party

ONE of the merriest of the many gay Halloween parties for the younger boys and girls was the festivity given Friday night by the faculty and the junior cadets of Hill Military academy. The ballroom in the residence hall at 115 North Twenty-fourth street was decorated in Halloween colors and features. Over the windows were valances of orange crepe paper adorned with witches and owls, while the electric lights were shaded on pumpkin-like globes. Bon bons and gay paper hats were distributed as favors for the grand march and the supper.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Tower are up from Coos Bay for a short visit and are guests at the Hotel Portland.
