

COUNTY GENERAL BUDGET GAINS 40 PER CENT IN 1920

Auditor Martin Submits Comparative Statement, Showing Increases in Various Departments

In a comparative statement of receipts and disbursements of the first eight months of the years 1919 and 1920 in the budget of Multnomah county, just prepared by County Auditor Sam B. Martin, he shows that the 1920 budget's general fund was increased $578,151, or 40 per cent increase over the budget of 1919.

The comparisons just made show that the first eight months' disbursements were increased 44 per cent over the 1919 general fund budget, while the receipts during the same period, not including the balance on hand the first of the year, were less than a 12 per cent increase over 1919.

ROAD FUND GAINS

An increase of 18 per cent over the 1919 budget is seen in the 1920 road fund. The first eight months' expenditures of the road fund budget, as compared with the expenditures of the 1919 budget, shows an increase of 18 per cent, while the collections for the same period were increased only about 5 per cent.

The general fund budget for the first eight months of 1919 was $1,455,103.49; for the same period in 1920 it was $2,033,254.14, or an increase of $578,150.65.

Here are the figures on the disbursements and the percentages of increases during the eight months' period of 1920:

Salaries in 1919, $384,016.27; in 1920, $570,530.85, or an increase of 48.5 per cent.

Extra labor in 1919, $40,555.63; in 1920, $61,687.01, or an increase of 52.4 per cent.

Various bills and contracts in 1919, $591,710.92; in 1920, $860,747.44, or an increase of 45.2 per cent.

Registration and election in 1919, $25,480.63; in 1920, $48,803.46, or an increase of 91 per cent.

Juries and witnesses in 1919, $27,545.94;

in 1920, $23,808.44, or a decrease of 13.1 per cent.

HOSPITALS INCLUDED

Expenditures on new county hospital in 1919, $4,010.85; in 1920, $107,708.80.

The receipts for the first eight months of 1919, including a balance on hand of $6,715.77, were $980,763.74; for 1920, including a balance of $162,753.01, they were $1,248,006.30, showing an increase of 11.7 per cent.

The road fund disbursements during the first eight months of 1919 amounted to $360,719.25, while for the same period of 1920 they were $428,541.47, or an increase of 18 per cent, while the receipts showed for the same period an increase to $360,719.25, while for the same period of 1920, the figures for of 1920 they were $428,541.47, or an increase of 18 per cent, while the receipts

Dan Kellaher Right Here Is the Proof

From New York Times, Saturday, October 23, 1920
COURT UPHOLDS RULE AGAINST 8-CENT FARE
Appeals Tribunal Says Public Service Commission Cannot Grant Increase to B. R. T.

The Court of Appeals denied yesterday the motion made on behalf of Lindley M. Garrison, Receiver of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, for a re-argument concerning the right of the Public Service Commission to permit the Company to raise the fare on its surface lines to eight cents. The decision of the court that the Commission has no jurisdiction over the fare when the fare is stated in the franchises stands.

Corporation Counsel John P. O'Brien said last night that the decision of the Court of Appeals gave pleasure to the Mayor.

"It means," he said, "that the highest Court in the state has adhered to its decision of last July, in which it followed the ruling made in the famous Quinby case in April, 1918, where it held that the Public Service Commissions are without power to override the five-cent fare stipulated by a city in granting a franchise."

Stanfield a Stranger to Swift

Chamberlain More Liable to Partnership Charge Than Stanfield

STANFIELD'S OWN STATEMENT

Portland, Oregon, October 28, 1920.
The Journal
To the Editor:

My attention has been called to certain advertisements and articles in your paper in which it is alleged that I am a partner of Swift & Company and of Mr. L. F. Swift, in various livestock and business enterprises. This allegation is untrue for I am not a partner in Swift & Company or any of its subordinate establishments, nor have I any partnership arrangement with Mr. L. F. Swift. I have never met Mr. Swift except at a stockmen's banquet in Chicago and have never discussed business matters with him.

I own only 130 out of 4000 shares in the Columbia Basin Wool Warehouse Company, which is a corporation engaged in the purchase, storage and sale of wool, with headquarters in the city of Portland. I made my subscription to this enterprise in order to help put Portland on the map as a wool center. The remainder of the 4000 shares is divided among a large number of stockholders, most of whom are business men of the city of Portland, although Mr. Swift owns several shares of stock. The stock of this company was bought and sold on the market and the fact that I own a few shares and that Mr. Swift also is a stockholder does not in any sense make me a copartner of Mr. Swift.

I own only five shares of the 1000 shares of the Livestock State Bank at North Portland. Mr. Swift is also a stockholder in this concern but it is not a copartnership and those who own stock are in no sense partners. A number of the stockholders both of the Columbia Basin Wool Warehouse Company and the Livestock State Bank also own shares of stock in the United States National Bank of Portland. Senator George E. Chamberlain is a stockholder and director in this bank, but it would be the height of folly to charge him with being a partner of the other stockholders and directors of this institution.

I own no shares whatever in the Portland Cattle Loan Co.

I am engaged primarily in the sheep business, although I have cattle and other agricultural interests. I raise and purchase sheep and cattle and have frequently sold both through the Union Stock Yards of Chicago, and in some instances have sold to Swift & Company, but I have also sold to various other packing plants in Chicago, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Joseph and North Portland. I have sold beef and mutton on the open market but the fact that I have sold at times to Swift & Company does not in any sense make me a partner in any of their enterprises.

My business is a legitimate one and needs no defense.

I am not a speculator but a producer and a large employer of men, and a large purchaser of all materials. I have at times owned shares of stock in various enterprises, but it would require a very wide stretch of the imagination to picture me as a partner of the other stockholders, many of whom I have never seen and who are entirely unknown to me.

I had hoped that the present campaign would be conducted in a clean and dignified way with due regard for the issues of the day and with no consideration of irrelevant issues. I have no objection whatever to a full and free discussion of my record as a business man, provided this is an adherence to facts. I feel that I have been misrepresented in the matter of the alleged partnership with Swift & Company and Mr. L. F. Swift, I therefore take this opportunity of informing the public as to the exact state of the affairs.

Yours very truly,
R. N. STANFIELD.
(Paid Ad., Stanfield for Senator Republican Club.)
