

COX SURE WEST WILL CAST VOTE ON SIDE OF PEACE

By James M. Cox
(Written Especially for Universal Service)
Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 1.—I am convinced that the reawakened conscience of America will express itself in certain terms November 2, and that a rebuke will be administered to those who in conspiracy have endeavored to win a presidential election at the cost of national honor, at the cost of world civilization and at the cost of world prosperity.

When I started this campaign in mid-August I made the prediction that before the middle of October the line of the enemy would be broken. The reactionary forces already have been forced back from the first trench and they crossed the second trench; they will cross the third trench so fast they won't see the fourth trench when they come to it.

CONFUSION IS FOUND

In the West I found a universal sentiment for the League of Nations, but I found also a confusion and doubt as to domestic issues under a continuation of a so-called Democratic administration.

The overwrought emotions of war had been deftly played upon by designing politicians so that in the depression which followed the failure of a Republican congress to pass laws for a readjustment and the failure of the senate to ratify the treaty of peace it was readily believed, as the reactionary plotters hoped it would be, that the administration itself was to blame.

When we broke through the conspiracy of silence and the people were enabled to know the facts, a new understanding came to be and resentment was emphatic toward the conspirators.

SEES VICTORY IN WEST

My information and my belief likewise now is that the cause of peace will carry most, if not all, of the Western states.

In the industrial Middle West, much to my surprise, the cause of the League of Nations seems to be the sole matter of interest, notwithstanding in this section, which is decidedly progressive, the records of both presidential candidates as to progress and reaction are well known. I believe we will carry every Middle Western state.

I found the tide in full in Western states and the current running strong. My observation and advice is that most of the states will cast their votes for the cause of peace by our entrance into the League of Nations.

South of the Ohio river every state will render an overwhelming favorable decision and every so-called border state will do likewise.

In my opinion the campaign of non-partisanship in behalf of a sacred cause has so aroused the American people that our victory will be a sweeping one. I have had experience in political campaigns, but in all my life I have never seen indications so strong.

The reactionary cry has finally settled to the original psychological slogan, "We want the change," but the people have asked themselves this question: "A change from what to what?" and have decided to let the best they ever knew alone.

HOUSE WILL TURN DEMOCRATIC, SAYS CHAIRMAN FLOOD

Washington, Nov. 1.—Representative Hal D. Flood of Virginia, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, issued a statement Saturday night in which he claimed that the Democrats will regain control of the house. This prediction, he said, is based on authentic information from every congressional district in the country. Flood says:

"There is absolutely no doubt in my mind that the Democrats will gain control in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Ohio, Indiana, Oklahoma, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Montana, Missouri, West Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Minnesota and Virginia."

TO OVERTURN G. O. P.

"We will win a sufficient number to overturn the present Republican majority. The voters of the Ninth Virginia district will retire Representative C. Bascom Sloop, the only Republican member from that state."

"The campaign of education conducted by the Democrats has had its effect and the men and women in these commonwealths are going to support the Democratic candidates as a rebuke to the tactics practiced by the Republicans."

"They are determined to turn back Democratic control legislative branches of our government."

Senator Nathaniel B. Dial of South Carolina said:

"Owing to the lack of funds and organization, the Democrats were slow in getting started on their campaign, but the decided swing to Governor Cox and the Democratic ticket within the past six weeks convinces me the Democrats will be victorious."

"The great majority of the American people want the League of Nations, with or without reservations. Failure of the senate to ratify the treaty has cost farmers, business men, laboring men and consumers hundreds of millions of dollars. The people realize that, and will elect a Democratic senate to support Cox, and enough Democratic congressmen to make a large gain in the house."

Wilson Will Sleep, Not Await Returns

(By United News)
Washington, Nov. 1.—Election returns will be received at the White House by telegraph and Secretary Tumulty and a number of officials will be in the executive office to receive them. President Wilson will be furnished with the earlier returns, but will retire at the customary hour, and wait until the following day for the verdict on the League of Nations, according to the present plan. This has been the president's usual custom in elections, even when he was in good health.

Daylight Saving Ends in Chicago

(By United News)
Chicago, Nov. 1.—At 2 o'clock Sunday morning Chicago clocks did a right-about face to 1 o'clock, and everybody proceeded to forget about daylight saving.

Which Is the Best for Oregon, This BIRD or This BABY? Vote for the BABY! 317 X NO

Do we live in the age of the Golden Rule, or don't we?
How would you like to have some sentimental theorist go into your community and pick on your richest possession—your cranberry marshes, berry fields, hop fields, orchard lands—and propose to hand them over to the Federal Government for a playground for wild life just because you were so isolated it was easy to take it away from you?

Haven't we had just about enough withdrawals of our natural resources from Oregon?
Theorists who never did any pioneering in their lives have conceived the impractical idea of presenting Malheur Lake, in the very heart of one of Oregon's greatest valleys, to the Federal Government for a bird refuge.

We have had land troubles, water troubles, settler troubles, cowboy troubles, gunmen, coyotes, rabbits, crickets and grasshoppers; and now comes along the sentimental theorist, and he's the worst of all.
Guess we people over in Harney have got some rights in this country!
Bill No. 217 robs the school fund of thousands of dollars.
It robs ranches of hundreds of homes on the soil.
It robs Central Oregon of a rich producing area.
It robs the tax rolls. This is not an emergency measure—if in doubt vote No.

Oregon's engineers are against it!
Oregon's attorney-general is against it!
Oregon's state Land Board is against it!

The Kiwanis society is against it!
The Central Oregon people are against it!
All who understand it are against it!

Everybody who loves BABIES better than BIRDS is against it! Vote 317 X—NO!

Who Shall Run This Nation's Affairs After March 5, 1921?

You Must Decide Tomorrow

WHICH?

Republican Party	Democratic Party
Saved 2 1/4 billions as soon as Republican congress took office in May, 1919.	Wasted billions in conduct of war.
Checked extravagant demands of Democratic administration for money.	Spent a billion for airplanes. Not a single American fighting plane reached the front.
Vigorously supported war and started preparation for reconstruction.	Unprepared for war; unprepared for peace. It has failed to make peace for two years after the armistice.
Took the lead in reducing war-time expenditures.	Has kept war-time expenditures going up to date, except those which the Republican congress has been able to cut down.
After the armistice, Republican congress passed resolution repealing extraordinary war-time powers of president. (This was pocket-vetoed.)	Vetoed the National Budget system which would have put the nation's affairs in business-like shape.
Passed National Budget system bill. (This also was vetoed.)	Failed utterly to lower the high cost of living. Shot it up higher.
Pledges restoration of protective tariff.	Failed to prevent dumping of cheap foreign products on our markets.
Will introduce economies in running national government, thereby reducing taxation.	Failed to make proper legislation for agricultural interests of the country.
Restored railroads to private ownership, saving a loss of almost a billion a year.	Made government jobs for 320,000 extra employes who are still holding office, two years after the armistice.
Will enact new legislation to protect agriculture and labor.

You Can Assure Sane, Constructive, Businesslike Conduct of the National Government Only by Voting for the Republican Nominees for President and Vice-President, Harding and Coolidge; Stanfield for Senator, and McArthur, Hawley and Sinnott for Congress.
