WEATHER CONDITIONS

An important low pressure area is central in lows, extending from Texas to the Lake region and St. Lawrence valley. The pressure is low also in Alaska and Northwestern Canada. Two high pressure areas are apparent, one central on the Southern Atlantic slope and the other in the northern Rocky mountain states. Precipitation has occurred on the extreme North Pacific coast and over a large area extending from the northern Rocky mountain states eastward to the lower lake region and southward to Texas. Show is falling in parts of Idaho, Wyoming and South Dakota, being accompanied by high wind in the last named state. Preezing temperature prevails over the West, except along the Pacific coast and near the Mexican boundary, Relatively high temperature prevails in the Lake region and lower Mississippi valley.

Relative humidity at Portland: Noon yesterday, 38 per cent, Precipitation since January 1: Total, 27.07 isoches, normal, 31.49 inches; deficiency, 4.24 inches.

OBSERVATIONS

Veatch of Cottage Grove, well known throughout the state, already has voted in times for president and on November 2 will cast his sixteenth vote for a national executive. He began in 1860, when he voted for Abraham Lincoln, and in that time has missed his vote only three times. Mr. Vaetch is a Republican.

Vote For J. O. Bailey

Attorney General

(Of Portland, Oregon)

Indorsed by the Multnomah County Republican Committee for Attorney General.

AS A candidate for the office of Attorney General, J. O. Bailey relies on his record as assistant Attorney General, for the past five years, and backs up his claim to the office on specific accomplishments, and not on generalities or worded promises.

Office Too Important to Be Overlooked

With the growth of the state and the increase in he number of state boards and commissions, the duties and responsibilities of the Attorney General have multiplied in the past five years. Prior to 1915, the state paid out thousands of dollars for special attorneys in important litigation. Since that time, much of this work has been done by J. O. Bailey as Assistant Attorney General, thereby relieving the state of paying exorbitant fees to outside attorneys to defend the interests of the state.

Bailey's Proven Merit and Capacity Record as Assistant Attorney-General

SUCCESSFULLY prosecuted the Hyde-Benson land fraud suits, recovering for the school fund approximately 14,000 acres of land valued at several hundred thou-

SUCCESSFULLY defended the constitu-men's Compensation Act; ten hour factory law; water code and minimum wage law. SUCCESSFULLY protected the state state's interest in swamp and overflow lands by procuring much needed legislation.

SUCCESSFULLY prosecuted the Pacific land fraud case, recovering for the school fund $125,000, and opening 10,000 acres for settlement. SUCCESSFULLY obtained for subscrib-relephone & Telegraph Company, credit for approxi-mately $130,000 excess charges.

SUCCESSFULLY protected the state's navigable streams and lakes by providing necessary legislation.

"The Horse That Draws the Plow Should Have the Fodder"

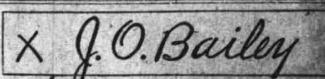

The Oregon Voter Said on October 30th:

"The other candidate is J. O. Bailey, who has handled some of the most important cases arising under Mr. Brown's administrationnotably the celebrated school land and timber land cases, and the rate cases. His handling of these cases reflected great credit upon his abilities. He is a man of more aggressive temper than Mr. Van Winkle, which by many is regarded as a reason for preferring him His reputation for integrity is excellent."

The vacancy in Attorney General's office occurred too late for printing names on ballot. Therefore your choice will have to be written in, as follows:
