

IN WASHINGTON HARDING TICKET SWEEPS POLLS

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—Republican candidates won hands down in King county and the state of Washington, partially complete returns proved conclusively early this morning.

The soldier bonus bill is adopted by a comfortable majority. The Carlyon $30,000,000 road bond measure is beaten. Throughout the state, Senator Warren G. Harding piled up a long lead, beginning with the first precinct returns. Harding polled 76,411 in 686 precincts out of the 2378 in the state; Cox, 26,330; Christensen (Farmer-Labor), 19,770. In King county, 263 precincts gave Harding 34,473, Cox 10,953, Christensen 11,162.

GOVERNOR HART REELECTED

Governor Louis F. Hart will continue as chief executive of the state for another four years. In 558 precincts in the state, Hart has 55,323, Bridges (Farmer-Labor) 31,214, Black 13,965. For United States senator, 581 precincts in the state give Jones 59,045, Cotterill 17,610, France 22,832. In King county, 263 precincts gave Jones 32,857, Cotterill 8618, France 16,711. Jones is reported to have swept the state with a big plurality, running ahead of the ticket in some counties.

CONGRESSIONAL RESULT

Congressman John F. Miller won in the first congressional district, comprising Seattle and Kitsap county. Second congressional district: Three precincts out of 142 gave Lindsey H. Hadley 848, William Bouck 334. Third congressional district: Fifty-six precincts out of 559 gave Albert Johnson (Republican incumbent) 3062, Fishburne 895, Bone 1130. Fourth district: Thirty-five out of 453 precincts give Summers, Republican, 1385; Miller, 345; Hill, 189. Fifth district: One hundred and six precincts out of 623 gave Webster, Republican, 4777; Fleming, 3317.

BENTON

Kennewick, Wash., Nov. 3.—Eighteen precincts out of 31 in Benton county give Harding 882, Cox 465; Senator, Jones (Rep.) 550, Cotterill (Dem.) 235, France (Farmer-Labor) 600; congressman, Summers (Rep.) 869, Miller (Dem.) 254; governor, Hart (Rep.) 824; Black (Dem.) 233, Bridges (Farmer-Labor) 684; road bill referendum No. 1, for 237, against 1094; referendum No. 2, soldiers' bonus overwhelmingly carried.

CITY OF VANCOUVER

Vancouver, Wash., Nov. 3.—Nineteen precincts complete out of 55 in the city give Harding 1814, Cox 888; Jones 1291, Cotterill 548, Hart 1371, Black 477, Bridges 701, Simpson 1094, Blair 1031, Johnson 815, Thompson 1109, Bennett 1162, Sterling 812, Paul 1166, Davey 706, Carson 959, Christy 608.

COLUMBIA

Dayton, Wash., Nov. 3.—Twenty-two precincts in Columbia county show the following returns: Harding, 1058; Cox, 563; Watkins, 10; Debs, 28; Cox (Labor), 3; Christensen, 35. For senator: Jones, 1008; Cotterill, 464; France, 67. For governor: Hart, 1166; Black, 216; Bridges, 143; Burgess, 1. For lieutenant governor: Coyle, 1193; Bohlike, 406; Dowles, 31. Secretary of state: Elmke, 1043; Hazard, 430; Harlin, 79. Attorney general: Thompson, 1051; Hanna, 1051.

GRAYS HARBOR

Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 3.—Complete returns from scattering country precincts, one complete in Aberdeen, indicate complete from Hoquiam and from Montesano, this morning indicated the entire Republican ticket had been elected in Grays Harbor county. That the county had given a big majority for Senator Harding for president and for Governor Louis F. Hart and the full Republican state ticket was certain. Indications were that Senator Harding and Governor Hart had carried the county by nearly 2 to 1.

Reports from all parts indicated the heaviest vote in the history of the county. As a result of the extremely heavy vote, the large number of candidates and the four referendums being voted upon, returns from all precincts were slow in coming in. Only 14 of the smaller county precincts had been reported complete. The closest race it appeared from the returns in hand, was for sheriff.

Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 3.—This city will give a plurality for Harding of more than 1000. Grays Harbor county, from precincts so far reported, will give Harding 4000 plurality. Entire Republican ticket, national state and county, will receive substantial pluralities. Farmer-Labor ticket is not indicating strength expected in isolated places.

Klickitat

White Salmon, Wash., Nov. 3.—Complete returns from six precincts in Klickitat county give Cox 191, Harding 235; senator, Jones 218, Cotterill 220, Miller 126; Hart 239, Bridges 134, Black 109; Coyle 222, Bohlike 109; state representative, Miller 270, McKereher 143; county commissioner, Wyers 260, Lusk 164; road bond measure, yes 52, no 235. The soldiers' bonus measure carried by a good majority.

LEWIS

Chehalis, Wash., Nov. 3.—Twenty-nine out of 79 precincts in Lewis county give Harding 1698, Bridges 1087, Black 343. Harding carries county by about two to one. Senator Jones and Congressman Johnson carried county by the same ratio. The entire Republican ticket has a majority in the county. The contest between Swofford, Republican, and Scollard, Democrat, for state senator is close, with Swofford leading by 125 votes in 40 precincts. A close race is on between Reynolds, for judge, and Willis, his opponent, with Reynolds leading by 60 votes in 30 precincts. Precincts not in are counted as strong for Reynolds. The soldier bonus referendum carried the county with a big majority. Other measures failed to carry. The Farmer-Labor ticket voted straight, including Elmer Smith.

Morton

Morton, Wash., Nov. 3.—Every precinct in Eastern Lewis county literally snatched the third party under with the possible exception of one not yet heard from which is very small. Republican candidates won over radicals, 3 to 1. Figures indicate entire ticket on both referendums carried big as did the constitution amendment, while the amendment to increase state officials' salaries lost by two votes.

PACIFIC

South Bend, Wash., Nov. 3.—Incomplete returns indicate that Hart for governor, as well as the balance of the Republican ticket, will carry Pacific county by a heavy majority. The Carlyon bill is doubtful. The soldiers' bonus bill will carry by a heavy majority. The two proposed amendments will not carry. The contest for county sheriff is a close one and it is likely that Chester, Democrat, will win over McDonald, Republican.

THURSTON

Olympia, Wash., Nov. 3.—Thurston county's incoming vote gives Harding 1127, Cox 345, Christensen 496. For senator, 1091, Cotterill 230, France 573; highway bond, for 954, against 763; soldiers' bonus, for 1057, against 490.

YAKIMA

Yakima, Wash., Nov. 3.—Fifty-nine out of 96 precincts in Yakima county give: Harding, 8001; Cox, 2633; Christensen, 3104. Hart for governor is leading Bridges, Farmer-Labor, by about 1000 less than the head of the national ticket. The Farmer-Labor party has no returns so far reported, carried only three small rural precincts; others are running 3 and 4 to 1 Republican. Republican county ticket safe with probable exception of Bear for sheriff. Who is closely pressed by Cronso, Democratic nominee.

BENTON COUNTY

Kennewick, Wash., Nov. 3.—Incomplete returns on five precincts in Benton county give Harding 103, Cox 56, Jones 100, Cotterill 50, France 20, Summers 99, Miller 45, Governor Hart 106, Black 32, Bridges 62; for road bill 8, against 30; soldiers' bonus, for 14, against 10. If vote proportion is maintained it would show a slight gain for Cox over Wilson in 1918.

COLUMBIA AND CHELAN

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 3.—Returns from 20 out of 23 Columbia county precincts give Harding 1633, Cox 560, Christensen 83; Hart 1162, Black 418, Bridges 184; Jones 1630, Cotterill 448; for Carlyon 443, against 383; for bonus 779, against 586; for domain 336, against 98; for increase 118, against 71. Returns from 24 out of 97 Chehalis county precincts give Harding 1365, Cox 522; Hart 1347, Cotterill, blank; Bridges 425; Jones 1347, Cotterill, blank; for Carlyon 315, against 626; for bonus 996, against 355.

SKAMANIA

Stevenson, Wash., Nov. 3.—Six precincts in Skamania county give Harding 319, Cox 197, Christensen 171; for senator, Jones 320, Cotterill 170, France 168; for congressman, Johnson 393, Fishburne 169; for governor, Hart 320, Black 168, Bridges 158; entire county Republican ticket was elected.

HARDING IS 7TH OHIOAN ELECTED

By Raymond Clapper
Marion, Ohio, Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—Warren G. Harding awoke today to find himself elected president of the United States by the largest majority ever given any presidential candidate.

He is the seventh native Ohioan to be elected president, all Republicans. The Hardings will rest today. Tomorrow night Marion will stage its big celebration in honor of the senator's election. President-elect Harding and his wife expect to leave Marion Friday or Saturday for Point Isabel, Texas, only six miles from the Mexican border, for a two weeks' rest. After two weeks at Point Isabel, it is likely that Senator Harding will take a cruise in Central American waters, probably inspecting the Panama canal.

RESULTS FROM STATES IN EAST

ILLINOIS

Chicago, Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—The size of the plurality given Senator Harding and all Republican national and state candidates in Illinois remains the only question to be settled today. Every Republican candidate on national and state tickets has been elected, returns available this morning make certain. Senator Harding's plurality, Republican leaders stated early today, will reach 700,000 in the state. Returns from 1843 precincts out of 5730 give Harding 423,612 and Cox 156,012. William B. McKinley, Republican, has overwhelmingly defeated Peter A. Walter, Democrat, for the United States senator. With returns available for 1639 precincts McKinley has 313,066 and Walter 123,543. Election of Len Small, Republican, as governor by a plurality of approximately half a million seems assured. Small's vote from 1639 precincts is 324,563 to 177,255 for James Hamilton Lewis, Democrat. Downstate points have given Small an estimated plurality of 350,000, while his estimated plurality in Chicago is 189,000.

IOWA

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—From precincts in Iowa has gone Republican by overwhelming majorities, returns tabulated from more than one fourth of the state's 2348 precincts today showed. In 908 precincts out of the state's total of 2348 Harding received 238,915 and Cox 82,705. For United States senator 748 precincts gave Cummins, Republican, 144,950; Forster, Democrat, 84,889. For governor, 738 precincts gave Kendall, Republican, 150,894; Herring, Democrat, 84,074. On the basis of returns, Harding's majority in Iowa will be approximately 400,000; Cummins' majority will be around 200,000, and Kendall's will be about 150,000, political authorities were predicting. These same returns showed Iowa's delegation of 11 Republican members to the house of representatives elected by safe margins.

MISSOURI

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—Normally staunch Democratic strongholds, swinging to the Republican ticket, have sent Missouri into the list of Republican states for the third time since the Civil war. Returns received up until 2 o'clock this afternoon indicated a plurality for President-elect Harding of 60,000 in the city of St. Louis, with a total plurality of 75,000 in the state of Missouri, and that the entire Republican state ticket had apparently carried overwhelmingly. Fifteen hundred and six precincts of a total of 3810 in the state, including 576 of the 600 St. Louis precincts, gave Harding 419,854; Cox 335,717. For United States senator, 2183 precincts gave Spencer (Republican) 410,183; Long (Democrat), 338,368. For governor, 1486 precincts gave Udy (Republican), 428,713; Atkinson (Democrat), 325,613. The Republicans claimed also to have elected an overwhelming majority to the Missouri legislature and to have swept their candidates into all state offices. Missouri swung into the Republican column in 1904, when Roosevelt carried the state, but even then the governorship went to Fox, Democrat. In 1908 Taft carried the state and Hadley, also Republican, won the governorship, but the remainder of the state offices went to Democrats.

MONTANA

Helena, Mont., Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—President-Elect Warren G. Harding is leading in Montana with 14,018 votes, to 7786 for Cox, in 158 precincts out of 1482 in the state. Interest in Montana now centers in the race for governor and in the congressional contest. Dixon (R.), in the gubernatorial contest, shows from the same number of precincts 12,204 and Wheeler (D), 7234. Forty five precincts out of 471 in the First congressional district give Watson (D) 3384, McCormick (R) 2662, and in the Second district McCuiker (D) 2245, Haddock (R) 5220. Twenty-three out of 48 precincts in Yellowstone county this morning gave Harding 3884, Cox 1226. Ten precincts in Carbon county give Harding 523, Cox 268. Eight precincts in Musselshell county give Harding 823, Cox 437. Nine out of 35 precincts in Gallatin county give Harding 413, Cox 442, which includes the four precincts in Bozeman and is about one fifth of the estimated vote in the county. The ninth complete precinct in this city shows Harding 332, Cox 129. Thirty-seven complete precincts from Silverbow county give Harding 1736, Cox 1201. Entire returns show Dixon (R) 3206, Wheeler (D) 833 in the race for governor, an apparent reversal of results obtaining in the rural districts.

NORTH DAKOTA

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—Non-partisan league headquarters today claimed the reelection of Lynn J. Frasier for governor for the third term. The vote tabulated early today gave J. M.

O'Connor a lead of 13,000, but few of the rural precincts, where Non-partisans are strongest, had been heard from.

NEVADA

Reno, Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—Indications today were that not only has Senator Harding carried Nevada but the Republicans have won the senatorial contest. The latest compilation from all over the state today gave Harding, 4872; Cox, 2310. The figures on the senatorial race stood: Oddie, Republican, 3718; Henderson, Democrat, 3309, and Martin, independent, 1259.

OHIO

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—With more than one half of the vote in Senator Harding's majority over Governor Cox in their home state was estimated today at more than 300,000. The vote in 3460 of the 7269 precincts showed, Harding, 523,736; Cox, 356,547. These returns showed Cox a possible winner in only six counties. Harry L. Davis, Republican, apparently will have a majority for governor over Vic Donahay of at least 100,000. Returns from 2382 precincts gave Davis 290,281, Donahay 246,220. Frank S. Willis, Republican candidate for senator, was elected over W. A. Julian by possibly 200,000. The only Democrat of the 22 congressmen who appeared certain of election

TENNESSEE

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—Tennessee, for the first time since 1853, when Grant received its electoral vote over Seymour, has gone Republican in a national election. The "Solid South" at last has been broken by the cohorts of Republicanism, for Senator Warren G. Harding, according to incomplete but fairly accurate returns, has carried the state over Governor James M. Cox by between 5000 and 10,000 votes. Governor A. H. Roberts also was overcome in the Republican landslide, and Colonel Alf Taylor's majority over him will be 10,000 votes or more. Not content with capturing the state nationally and electing Colonel Taylor governor, the Republicans have also seized two additional seats in congress from Tennessee.

UTAH

Salt Lake, Utah, Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—An overwhelming victory for the entire Republican national and state tickets in Utah is apparent from early returns. Indications are Harding's majority will exceed 45,000. Senator Reed Smoot (R.) is running with Harding, Don B. Colton (R.) has been elected to congress from the first district and E. O. Leath-erwood from the second. Charles R. Mabey (R.) was elected governor. The

WYOMING

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 3.—(U. P.)—A plurality of between 11,000 and 12,000 in a total poll of 60,000 votes is indicated for the Harding-Coolidge ticket by returns today from 300 of 625 precincts in Wyoming. Frank D. Mondell (R.), floor leader in the national house of representatives, has been reelected by a plurality in excess of Harding's. There was no senatorial or gubernatorial contest in Tuesday's election.
