

CELEBRATED DEER OF 3 LEGS SHOT IN CREEK CANYON

Hunters who have haunted the wilds of Southern Douglas county and have returned home with tales of a three-legged deer, need not be doubted longer. These hunters are vindicated, for the three-legged deer has been killed.

F. M. Brown, chief deputy game warden for the state, brought this report home this morning. He, with several district deputies from Southwestern Oregon, had been hunting game law violators for more than two weeks in the wilds of Douglas county.

Last week Brown saw the three-legged deer in Cow Creek canyon. The animal—a big 4-year-old buck—had been killed by hunters. Upon examination it was found that one foreleg of the deer had been completely shot away, probably when it was a year old. Fur had grown over the injury and not a trace of a scar remained.

Brown cannot explain how the animal lived three years with only three legs. During the stay of his party in Douglas county six cases were prosecuted. A number of other cases are pending. All of the arrests were in connection with deer hunting.

Pierce and Dennis In Neck and Neck Race for Senator

La Grande, Or., Nov. 4.—"Horse race" politics had become the interesting feature of the Union county election of local officers, with a neck and neck race, in which Walter M. Pierce, Democrat, and Bruce Dennis, Republican, are the two participants, about equally matched, for office of joint senator from Union-Wallowa counties.

The unofficial returns, for Union county, give Pierce a majority of 22 votes, but reports Thursday morning from Enterprise declare that all but one precinct, that of Pittsburg, which has few voters, were counted unofficially, and that Dennis was leading Wallowa county by a 61 majority, and so would win the senatorship from the two counties by 38 votes.

Republican Victory Cause of Boost of Wool Firm's Stock

Announcement was made today of an increase in capitalization of the Columbia Basin Wool Warehouse company from $400,000 to $1,200,000. The announcement said that more than half of the additional $800,000 would be subscribed by Portland people.

President T. J. Mahoney, managing director of the company, declared election results indicated that "Oregon and the Northwest will be assured of protection to its wool industry," and this was ascribed as the chief cause for the increase in capitalization.

Orders From Rail Lines Follow Drop in Price of Lumber

Railroads are taking advantage of the recent drop of 30 per cent in the price of lumber to place orders for their requirements for the coming year, according to the weekly bulletin of the West Coast Lumbermen's association. Purchases of the roads, and the California demand are the chief sustaining factors in the Oregon and Washington lumber market, and during the week ending October 30 a 25 per cent decrease in railroad buying was offset by a like increase in California business.

During the week covered by the association report, West Coast mills produced 70,074,083 feet, which was 29 per cent below normal. New business accepted amounted to 48,054,315 feet, and shipments for the week totaled 62,189,403 feet. Cargo orders represented 16,295,438 feet of the total volume of new business. Domestic cargo orders were 11,801,507 feet, and export orders amounted to 4,493,931 feet.

New business for rail delivery totaled only 975 cars, mostly for non-competitive territory west of the Mississippi river, where the increased freight rate favors Northwest lumber products. Large Eastern markets are not buying West Coast forest products to any great extent, according to the bulletin. Local orders for the week totaled 2,508,877 feet.

Rail deliveries for the week, including the movement of material for the railroads, amounted to 1294 carloads, while local deliveries totaled 3,339,749 feet. Water shipments totaled 19,629,654 feet, of which 15,001,573 feet went eastward and 4,627,781 feet went overseas. The unshipped balance of orders for rail deliveries is down to 4106 cars. Unshipped balance in domestic cargo orders is 301,328,979 feet, and in export orders the balance is 29,331,340 feet.

COX PLANS JAUNT ABROAD IN SPRING

By Herbert W. Walker
Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 4.—(U. P.)—Governor James M. Cox said today he probably would visit Europe in the spring of 1931.

He indicated he desired to make a first-hand investigation of conditions there as they affect the United States, in addition to satisfying a love for travel.

Apparently the governor, who has worked hard all his life, plans to "take things easy" in the future. He has made no mention of any future political plans, despite the fact he has received hundreds of messages pledging him support in 1924.

Today the governor was back in his newspaper office, devoting some attention to his paper for virtually the first time since his acceptance speech. He continued in a most cheerful mood.

He expects to go to Columbus tomorrow to clean up executive business that has accumulated during the last two weeks of the campaign. Newspaper correspondents who have been with the governor during the campaign will be his guests at a dinner at Traill's End tonight.

In response to his message to Senator Harding, congratulating him on the Republican victory, the governor has received the following reply:

"As the successful candidate I thank you for your message of congratulation and pledge of support."

Cox expected to leave for his Mississippi hunting trip early next week.

Japan Remains Firm in Face of California Vote

Tokio, Nov. 4.—(U. P.)—Although arousing great interest, thus far no serious agitation or demonstration as a result of the California vote on the anti-alien land law has been reported in Japan.

The people seem tired out after three days of strenuous celebration marking the ceremony of unveiling of the Meiji shrine, which was made a national event.

JAPANESE TO PROTEST NEW LAW IN ACTION IN COURT

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—(U. P.)—California Japanese today announced their intention of starting court action to enjoin the state against placing in effect the anti-Japanese program which was passed by the voters on Tuesday.
