

TOWN TOPICS

Travelers to all points of the United States or abroad should take advantage of expedited information and service offered through the Oregon Journal Information and Travel Bureau...

COMING EVENTS
Multnomah County Sunday School association convention, November 12.
Western Walnut association, Portland, November 17 and 18.

WEATHER FORECASTS
Oregon and Washington—Saturday fair; variable winds.
Oregon and Washington—Sunday fair; continued cold; moderate winds, mostly northerly.

WEATHER CONDITIONS
Low pressure prevails in Alaska, over the southwestern states and in New England. The areas of high pressure are apparent, one central in the middle Mississippi valley and one in Washington...

Table with columns: STATIONS, HIGHEST, LOWEST, PRECIPITATION. Lists weather data for various locations like Boise, Idaho; Boston, Mass.; Buffalo, N.Y.; etc.

Sagebrush Birds Her Subject—"Birds of the Sagebrush Country" will be the subject of a talk on birds by Miss Mary Baker before the Oregon Audubon society on Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the library hall.

To Lecture for Near East Relief—This evening at 8 o'clock, J. J. Handaker, state director of the Near East relief, will give a stereopticon lecture at the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church.

Alaskans Will Meet—The Alaska society will have an interesting and entertaining evening Monday, November 8, at its club rooms in the Hotel Portland.

Commander to Be Here—John K. Witherspoon, commander-in-chief of the United Spanish War Veterans, will be present at a meeting of Camp Scout Young in the veterans hall at the courthouse at 8 p. m. Saturday.

Guard Officers to Dine—Officers of the National Guard of Oregon are preparing for a dinner on the evening of November 30 at the Chamber of Commerce which will include among its guests many prominent business and professional men in Portland.

Hood River Stage leaves St. Charles hotel daily at 8:15 a. m., 10:30 a. m. and 2:45 p. m. Stage for Bridal Veil leaves 4 p. m. Leaves Hood River for Portland at 8:30 a. m., 11 a. m. and 2:45 p. m.

"The Election and Its Message"—The subject at Temple Beth Israel tonight will be "The Election and Its Message." Services at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise will speak on the "Lesson of the Sabbath." Services at 10:30.

Warehouse Company Incorporates—The Eagle Warehouse company files its articles of incorporation Thursday, showing Portland as the principal place of business, the capitalization as $50,000, and W. R. Bagot, W. H. Stevens and George J. Perkins as the incorporators.

Social Workers to Convene—The Social Workers' association of Oregon will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at 8:15 at Beth Israel hall, where it will be addressed by Dr. P. A. Parsons of the University of Oregon extension division and Earl Kilpatrick, former executive secretary of the Oregon west division of the American Red Cross.

Seattle Business Men to Sup With Portland Saturday
Thirty Seattle business men, members of the One Hundred Per Cent club, will banquet at the Multnomah hotel Saturday night and act as hosts to an equal number of Portland business men. The event marks one of the trade excursions of the Seattle club and the head of the visiting delegation will be Ed F. White, president of the organization.

Building permits were issued Thursday to school district No. 1 for the erection of six portable school houses. The Millmade Construction company is named as builder and the new structures will cost $2500 each, with the exception of the Almsworth school, which consists of two units and is estimated at $5000.

Ad Club Winners In Window Display Contest Announced
Winners of Ad club prizes in the window display contest inaugurated by that club to give prominence to the slogan "get a slip from your neighbor and plant it on your own," were announced Thursday afternoon by the club. Stores of the city were placed in seven divisions. Winners in the various divisions were: Women's wear, Eastern Outfitting company; second, Wonder Millinery company; Furniture, Powers Furniture company; no second. Music, Sherman Clay company; no second. Wiley B. Allen company; second, Jaeger Brothers; no second. Men's clothing, Politz Clothing company; no second. Florists, Clark Brothers; no second. East Side stores, Kennard & Adams.

Stefansson Coming
Stefansson opens big 9 number Portland Lagoon contest at 8 o'clock in a ticket sale. Buy today, Meier & Frank's—Ad.

Double Trading Stamps
Five gross of clear white Jap China Tea and Chocolate Cups and Saucers special at only 12 1/2 c. Honest Goods at Honest Prices.

Are You Taking Advantage of the low prices we are making throughout our store? There is real economy in every purchase you make of us.

Blankets and Comforts Prices Reduced
Lay in your winter supply of Bedding now at our low prices. Fine Plaid Bed Blankets, large size, new fresh stock direct from the manufacturer to us.

FINE LARGE COMFORTERS
Moro silk covered, filled with choice white cotton—just the proper weight. Our $8.50 Comfort for $6.85

Women's and Misses' Bathrobes
An unusual selection of choice colors and designs in all the new collar styles, satin bindings and pretty girdle cords. Unusual values—$6.75 to $12.

Domestic
At much lower prices. Every item a money-saver. 72-in. Blackie Sheeting, excellent quality, at $9. 36-in. Cambric Muslin, our 50c quality, at 33c. Our 40c Outing, white and colored stripes, at 29c.

Sport Hose
Wool and Wool and Silk Sport Hose for ladies' wear with low shoes, $1.25 to $3.75 pair.

Boys' Ribbed Union Suits
Fleece lined, all sizes, special at $1.28.

Men's Suits Reduced
Our Suits represent the highest standard of tailoring that can be put in a ready-made suit. Made of pure worsted and all wool suiting, in Fall and Winter weights.

For Saturday! SPECIAL SALE OF SHEET MUSIC 4 Copies $1
Our Musical Floor, the Seventh

GRANT PERMITS FOR 6 PORTABLE SCHOOL HOUSES

Building permits were issued Thursday to school district No. 1 for the erection of six portable school houses. The Millmade Construction company is named as builder and the new structures will cost $2500 each, with the exception of the Almsworth school, which consists of two units and is estimated at $5000.

Police and Firemen Vie for Honors in Nursery Tag Day
Keen rivalry will develop Saturday when the police and fire departments vie for the honor of victory in tag sales for the Albertina Kerr Nursery home. Teams from each bureau have been appointed and tag day will be enlivened by the good natured contest. The winning team is to be rewarded by the endorsement of a bed in the name of its department.

2 Arrests Follow Streetcar Battle
George Waidenkiller was arrested Thursday night on a charge of assault and battery and his brother on a charge of disorderly conduct as a result of a disturbance on a Vancouver street car October 27. The two boys are alleged to be members of a gang called the "Forty-fives" who are said to have attacked the motorman and conductor. The disturbance had its beginning in a skating rink on the Columbia boulevard, according to Special Agent Pat Maher of the P. L. & P. company. They will be tried in the municipal court in a few days.

20 U. of O. Students Visit Packing Houses
Twenty students of the University of Oregon medical college today visited a number of slaughter houses in Portland under guidance of City Health Officer Parrish. Dr. Parrish occupies the chair of public health at the college and the visit was part of the course prescribed.

Haskins Funeral Saturday
Vancouver, Wash., Nov. 5.—Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Haskins, who died Wednesday, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Limber's chapel, Rev. E. E. Sitter officiating.

Cards of Thanks
For the many voluntary acts of kindness to him and to us, that have been so generously bestowed during the illness and death of our husband and father, Mose Christensen, and for the numerous expressions of esteem to his memory, we make this most sincere, but inadequate, public acknowledgment. Carrie M. Christensen, A. Victor Christensen.

Seattle Business Men to Sup With Portland Saturday

Thirty Seattle business men, members of the One Hundred Per Cent club, will banquet at the Multnomah hotel Saturday night and act as hosts to an equal number of Portland business men. The event marks one of the trade excursions of the Seattle club and the head of the visiting delegation will be Ed F. White, president of the organization.

Building permits were issued Thursday to school district No. 1 for the erection of six portable school houses. The Millmade Construction company is named as builder and the new structures will cost $2500 each, with the exception of the Almsworth school, which consists of two units and is estimated at $5000.

Police and Firemen Vie for Honors in Nursery Tag Day
Keen rivalry will develop Saturday when the police and fire departments vie for the honor of victory in tag sales for the Albertina Kerr Nursery home. Teams from each bureau have been appointed and tag day will be enlivened by the good natured contest. The winning team is to be rewarded by the endorsement of a bed in the name of its department.

2 Arrests Follow Streetcar Battle
George Waidenkiller was arrested Thursday night on a charge of assault and battery and his brother on a charge of disorderly conduct as a result of a disturbance on a Vancouver street car October 27. The two boys are alleged to be members of a gang called the "Forty-fives" who are said to have attacked the motorman and conductor. The disturbance had its beginning in a skating rink on the Columbia boulevard, according to Special Agent Pat Maher of the P. L. & P. company. They will be tried in the municipal court in a few days.

20 U. of O. Students Visit Packing Houses
Twenty students of the University of Oregon medical college today visited a number of slaughter houses in Portland under guidance of City Health Officer Parrish. Dr. Parrish occupies the chair of public health at the college and the visit was part of the course prescribed.

Haskins Funeral Saturday
Vancouver, Wash., Nov. 5.—Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Haskins, who died Wednesday, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Limber's chapel, Rev. E. E. Sitter officiating.

Cards of Thanks
For the many voluntary acts of kindness to him and to us, that have been so generously bestowed during the illness and death of our husband and father, Mose Christensen, and for the numerous expressions of esteem to his memory, we make this most sincere, but inadequate, public acknowledgment. Carrie M. Christensen, A. Victor Christensen.

GRANT PERMITS FOR 6 PORTABLE SCHOOL HOUSES

Building permits were issued Thursday to school district No. 1 for the erection of six portable school houses. The Millmade Construction company is named as builder and the new structures will cost $2500 each, with the exception of the Almsworth school, which consists of two units and is estimated at $5000.

Police and Firemen Vie for Honors in Nursery Tag Day
Keen rivalry will develop Saturday when the police and fire departments vie for the honor of victory in tag sales for the Albertina Kerr Nursery home. Teams from each bureau have been appointed and tag day will be enlivened by the good natured contest. The winning team is to be rewarded by the endorsement of a bed in the name of its department.

2 Arrests Follow Streetcar Battle
George Waidenkiller was arrested Thursday night on a charge of assault and battery and his brother on a charge of disorderly conduct as a result of a disturbance on a Vancouver street car October 27. The two boys are alleged to be members of a gang called the "Forty-fives" who are said to have attacked the motorman and conductor. The disturbance had its beginning in a skating rink on the Columbia boulevard, according to Special Agent Pat Maher of the P. L. & P. company. They will be tried in the municipal court in a few days.

20 U. of O. Students Visit Packing Houses
Twenty students of the University of Oregon medical college today visited a number of slaughter houses in Portland under guidance of City Health Officer Parrish. Dr. Parrish occupies the chair of public health at the college and the visit was part of the course prescribed.

Haskins Funeral Saturday
Vancouver, Wash., Nov. 5.—Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Haskins, who died Wednesday, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Limber's chapel, Rev. E. E. Sitter officiating.

Cards of Thanks
For the many voluntary acts of kindness to him and to us, that have been so generously bestowed during the illness and death of our husband and father, Mose Christensen, and for the numerous expressions of esteem to his memory, we make this most sincere, but inadequate, public acknowledgment. Carrie M. Christensen, A. Victor Christensen.

GRANT PERMITS FOR 6 PORTABLE SCHOOL HOUSES

Building permits were issued Thursday to school district No. 1 for the erection of six portable school houses. The Millmade Construction company is named as builder and the new structures will cost $2500 each, with the exception of the Almsworth school, which consists of two units and is estimated at $5000.

Police and Firemen Vie for Honors in Nursery Tag Day
Keen rivalry will develop Saturday when the police and fire departments vie for the honor of victory in tag sales for the Albertina Kerr Nursery home. Teams from each bureau have been appointed and tag day will be enlivened by the good natured contest. The winning team is to be rewarded by the endorsement of a bed in the name of its department.

2 Arrests Follow Streetcar Battle
George Waidenkiller was arrested Thursday night on a charge of assault and battery and his brother on a charge of disorderly conduct as a result of a disturbance on a Vancouver street car October 27. The two boys are alleged to be members of a gang called the "Forty-fives" who are said to have attacked the motorman and conductor. The disturbance had its beginning in a skating rink on the Columbia boulevard, according to Special Agent Pat Maher of the P. L. & P. company. They will be tried in the municipal court in a few days.

20 U. of O. Students Visit Packing Houses
Twenty students of the University of Oregon medical college today visited a number of slaughter houses in Portland under guidance of City Health Officer Parrish. Dr. Parrish occupies the chair of public health at the college and the visit was part of the course prescribed.

Haskins Funeral Saturday
Vancouver, Wash., Nov. 5.—Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Haskins, who died Wednesday, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from Limber's chapel, Rev. E. E. Sitter officiating.

Cards of Thanks
For the many voluntary acts of kindness to him and to us, that have been so generously bestowed during the illness and death of our husband and father, Mose Christensen, and for the numerous expressions of esteem to his memory, we make this most sincere, but inadequate, public acknowledgment. Carrie M. Christensen, A. Victor Christensen.

Advertisement for Walk-Over Boot Shop. Features images of shoes and text: "There Are Shoes and Shoes", "When you wear Walk-Overs, you enjoy the benefit of 46 years' experience in making good shoes.", "For Saturday! SPECIAL SALE OF SHEET MUSIC 4 Copies $1".

Advertisement for Hazelwood Candy. Features an image of a house and text: "HAZELWOOD CANDY", "Nougat Jelly Roll—$1.25 per lb.", "Assorted Fruit Flakes—80c per lb.", "Home-Made Specials $1.00 and $2.00 Per Box".

Advertisement for Sam'l Rosenblatt & Co. Features an image of a man in a suit and text: "Suits and Overcoats Reduced", "Lower prices on fine clothes", "Hart Schaffner & Marx", "Everybody wants lower-priced clothes, but nobody wants cheaper clothes—you won't find any 'cheap' clothes here—Hart Schaffner & Marx quality is never inferior.", "Also PASTES and LIQUIDS for Black and White shoes".

Advertisement for Sam'l Rosenblatt & Co. Features an image of a man in a suit and text: "Suits and Overcoats Reduced", "Lower prices on fine clothes", "Hart Schaffner & Marx", "Everybody wants lower-priced clothes, but nobody wants cheaper clothes—you won't find any 'cheap' clothes here—Hart Schaffner & Marx quality is never inferior.", "We're giving the public what it wants—fine suits and overcoats at lowered prices. This is your opportunity.", "Sam'l Rosenblatt & Co. Fifth at Alder Gasco Building".