

IN SOCIETY

Small Kiddies Make Merry at Halloween Party

MORE than 30 little children frolicked through the rooms of the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. James Forbes on Mount Tabor in honor of little James and Lewis Forbes, Saturday afternoon, in celebration of Halloween. Cornstalks and Jack o' lanterns, together with old witches and goblins, were placed about the rooms and the kiddies enjoyed the old-fashioned games that had been played by their mothers and fathers before them. The children came in costume and masked, and prizes were awarded to those who carried out their characters in true form. Rewards for contests and for costumes were given to Katherine Kehoe, Marjorie Ersted, Kathleen Hayden, Louise Hayden, Betty Watkins, Jimmy Ersted, Bobby Willis, Kenneth North, Junior Nelson and Thomas Blanchard.

The little guests included: Louise Hayden, Katherine Kehoe, Billy Davis, Dorothy Davis, Bernice Healy, Donald Little, Louise Peck, Junior Nelson, Virginia Nelson, Jimmy Ersted, Marjorie Ersted, Helen Pettit, Tom Taylor, William McCarthy, John Poorman, Eleanor Poorman, Muzetta Blair, Vivian Blair, Caitlin Lawson, Fred Cookman, Jane Cookman, Katherine Galbraith, Carl Garbe, Virginia Green, Betty Watkins, Thomas Blanchard, Henry Aldrich, Dorothy Will, Gabriel Covert, Kenneth North, Bobby Willis, Kenneth English, James Forbes, Lewis Forbes.

With the children came their mothers and the party included, among the grown-ups: Mrs. Lloyd Lawson, Mrs. Frank Healy, Mrs. Cassius R. Peck, Mrs. J. E. Nelson, Mrs. A. J. Ersted, Mrs. James Will, Mrs. O. W. Taylor, Mrs. Gladys Ellsworth, Miss Elizabeth Neilson, Miss Christine Forbes, Mrs. Loyal McCarthy, Mrs. Kenneth Poorman, Mrs. J. L. Will, Mrs. Jack Willis, Mrs. D. E. Galbraith, Mrs. F. W. Cookman, Mrs. H. W. Aldrich, Mrs. R. D. Watkins, Mrs. J. C. Green, Mrs. P. W. Blanchard, Mrs. W. C. North, Mrs. W. C. Garbe, Mrs. J. C. English, Mrs. A. Hayden, Mrs. A. C. Holmes, Mrs. Joseph Kehoe, Mrs. Will C. Davis and Mrs. Thomas F. Blair.

A Halloween wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Mrs. Ella Marshall, near Lents, when her daughter, Alice, was united in marriage to Frank Barker on the evening of October 30. The service was read at the midnight hour, the Rev. Mr. Smith officiating. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were in attendance. Autumn flowers in abundance, enriched by the mellow light of miniature electric globes, concealed in pumpkin blossoms, and many jack-o'-lanterns, formed the decorations of the home. The early part of the evening was given over to the usual Halloween fortune tests and pranks, and a cleverly arranged supper was served on the enclosed porch immediately following the ceremony.

The women of St. Stephens Pro-cathedral are planning a tea and bazaar to be given in the assembly room of the Portland hotel December 2. Each year the feature of the bazaar is the display and sale of the Dinal dolls for which the women of the church have achieved an enviable reputation. Other useful and fancy articles beside an assortment of aprons will be on sale. Mrs. Robert Warrack is chairman of the committee for arrangements for the sale, and other members are Mrs. J. N. Duesendorf, Mrs. Frederick C. Malpas and Mrs. E. T. C. Stevens.

Mrs. Victor Brandt will be hostess for a bridge tea Tuesday afternoon at her attractive home in Laurelhurst for the benefit of the National Auxiliary of Greeters of America, of which she is national president. Bridge and 500 will be played and a number of additional guests are invited for the tea hour. Those who will assist the hostess with arrangements for the affair will be: Mrs. G. O. Madison, Mrs. A. E. Holcombe, Mrs. Joseph Herman, Mrs. R. J. Duke, Mrs. E. E. Larimore, Mrs. N. K. Clark, Mrs. Harry Carroll, Mrs. J. W. Bushong and Mrs. A. H. Myers.

Colonel W. A. Starrett of the George Fuller company of New York city arrived in the city Thursday evening to be the guest of his mother, Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett, who is in the city at her home in Sherwood Drive following a serious operation. Colonel Starrett will remain in the city only a few days on his way to Berkeley, Cal., where he will be the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. S. Dinwiddie.

A card party will be given November 16 in the assembly room of the Portland hotel by the members of the Catholic Women's league. The affair will be a benefit for the organization work and attractive prizes will be awarded to those winning high scores at cards.

Lincoln Garfield Relief corps No. 19 will hold a bazaar at room 525 courthouse Friday. Comforts, quilts, all sorts of aprons, many fancy and useful articles will be on sale. A hot dinner will be served to the public from 11:30 to 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Church of Victoria, B. C., spent several days at the Hotel Portland last week while on their way to California to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Leonard entertained with a dinner party Tuesday evening in the main dining room of the Hotel Portland. Covers were laid for 10 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sontag, prominent Tacoma people, are in the city for a few days and are guests at the Hotel Portland.

Betsy Ross tent No. 1 entertained two troops of Boy Scouts at its hall, 525 courthouse last week. Troop 91 of South Portland and troop 76 of Al-

THIRTY-FIVE little kiddies assembled at the home of Mrs. James Forbes on Mount Tabor Saturday a week ago for a Halloween party. The kiddies came in costume and frolicked through the afternoon with goblins and witches, playing the old fashioned Halloween games. Upper pictures show group of children, left, Marjorie Ersted, as an elf; center, Katherine Kehoe as a flower basket, and Junior Nelson as a devil.

After the flag salute refreshments were served and a social half hour was enjoyed. Kenton club will be host for the second of its dances for the winter season Wednesday evening at the clubhouse at Russell and Greenwich streets. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harder will be hosts for the evening.

bertha were the guests and each troop was presented with a large American flag. The program included a vocal solo by D. W. Wendick, song by the veterans' quartet, a recitation by Miss Laura Ahlstrom and greetings to Boy Scouts by Mrs. W. S. Wendick, president of the tent. The flags to be presented were carried to the platform by Patriotic Instructor Mrs. Minnie Anthony and her assistant, Mrs. Ella Goodspeed, who were escorted by four grand daughters of veterans, Miss Dorris Streeter, Miss Virginia Mastick, Mrs. Louise Cor-de-r and Miss Brown. The flags were presented to the scouts by Commander J. T. Butler of the department of Oregon, after which the "Star Spangled Banner" was sung by two grand daughters of veterans, Miss Anna Vesta Williams and Miss Margaret Graham. Scout Masters Vincent Howard and J. A. Oaker responded in behalf of the boys.

A Smart Skirt

With Dash and Snap

We manufacture all the different styles of pleating. We cut, seam, hem, accordion, knife or box pleat, and all styles of pleated skirts—ready to put on belting.

SPECIAL $1.00

Eastern Novelty Manufacturing Co.
Manchester Bldg., 85½ Fifth St.
Broadway 2000

Announcement!

Due to the necessity for us to arrange matters for our retirement from business, we earnestly request our patrons possessing furs placed here in storage to arrange for their removal at the earliest date.

Chas. M. Unger
Broadway and Alder

Hardtime Party Enjoyable Event Of Halloween

MR. AND MRS. J. WALTER JOHNSON of 1121 Stephens street entertained their friends at a cleverly arranged Halloween hardtime party on the evening of October 30. Cards and dancing formed the evening's entertainment, the basement having been transformed into a miniature ballroom, decorated artistically with cornstalks, Jack o' Lanterns and autumn leaves. Sandwiches, coffee, doughnuts and cider were the refreshments served. Halloween stunts completed the evening's fun.

Card honors were awarded to Mrs. Harry Smith, Dr. V. C. Birney and Mrs. and Mrs. J. E.anner. Mrs. H. H. Young and Robert Shepherd won the prizes for the cleverest hardtime costumes. Miss Elise Cramer was charming as a kypsy fortune teller. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strout, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stephens, Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Birney, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McJury, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. E. Tannet, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Polier, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shepherd, Mrs. Frank Keelin, Miss Mabel Smith, Miss Edie Smith, Miss Joanna Cramer, Miss Elise Cramer, Miss Margaret Eade, Miss Ethel Dawson, Miss Annie Young, Dorset Carlock and Leroy Draper.

One of the enjoyable events of the past week was the hard times Halloween party given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johns at 1201 East Tenth street north by the employees of the men's furnishing department of Olds, Wortman & King store and their friends. The house was gay in Halloween decorations with cornstalks, Jack-o'-lanterns and colored lights. Games and dancing furnished diversion for the evening, and a Halloween supper was served in the attic. A prize was given for the best costume worn, and for this Roe Westfall carried off the honors. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Johns, Miss Vera and Miss Marjorie Goethals, Mrs. Madge Thompson, Miss Lela and Miss Stella Formoehien, Miss Florence and Miss Gertrude Vessy, Miss Christina Johns, Miss Helen Gehrett, Ted Clark, John Vigilius, Roe Westfall, Herbert Johns, Virgil Hockenberry, Wesley Wright, Fred Formoehien, C. Frost, A. Olson.

The Rose City Park club will give its next dancing party at the clubhouse on Fifty-seventh and Sandy boulevard Friday evening. All members are invited to bring a friend. Mrs. Frank Verbiske will be hostess for the evening, assisted by Mrs. H. O. Neville, Mrs. W. L. Cornell, Mrs. A. J. Ray and Miss Margaret Austin.

The officers of Martha Washington chapter, O. E. S., were entertained at the Baker theatre Tuesday evening, after which the party went to the Hazelwood, where a dainty supper was served. The hostesses were Mrs. Arthur Straubel, Mrs. Fred Alvord, Mrs. J. Shubert Johnson and Mrs. Charles Fullman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Rowley are up from Seaside and are stopping at the Hotel Portland. Mr. Rowley is manager of the Seaside hotel.

Pierrettes Are Hostesses for Tea Saturday

THE PIERRETES, an organization of younger girls now attending high school in the city, were hostesses for a delightful tea Saturday at the home of Miss Elaine Bennett in Laurelhurst. The calling hours were from 2 to 5 o'clock, and the rooms for the occasion were beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. The Misses Delight Ingold and Elizabeth Hilton received with the hostess, Miss Katherine Riggs poured and Miss Anabel Clark cut the loaves. Those assisting about the rooms were: Miss Jesse Hurtt and Miss Penelope Gehr.

The Minnesota State society will give a harvest party November 10 at 8:30 o'clock at the Portland Social Turn Verein hall. All former Minnesota people and their friends are invited to attend. Cards, dancing and guessing contests will furnish diversion for the afternoon. The usual refreshments will be served.

Mrs. R. J. Himmelright and son of New York city are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell in Irvington, and will remain in the city through the holidays.

Miss Arlie Moore, a former guardian of the Wah-Wah-Taysee Campfire Girls, was guest of honor at an informal supper given by the girls on Friday evening at the Y. W. C. A.

Scout Young Auxiliary No. 3, United Spanish War Veterans, will give a "500" card party Tuesday afternoon 2 o'clock at 525 courthouse.

Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs, who left the city Saturday for an extended visit in the East, was the guest of honor at a smart luncheon Wednesday at the Waverley Country club for which Mrs. Everett was played.

Burberry COATS

From London, England

Including "warmth without weight" Coats. They are made of Australian-fleece. Therein lies the secret of the adequate protection given and the bulkiness eliminated. Various patterns and colorings.

K.S. Ervin & Co., Ltd.

GENERAL ENGLISH TAILORS
Established 1901
SECOND FLOOR SELLING BUILDING
SIXTH AND ALDER STREETS

"Merode" and "Harvard Mills" Underwear Week

November 8th to 13th

AGAIN "Merode" and "Harvard Mills" Underwear Week! Monday, the 8th, is the opening day.

To our friends who already know the joy of "Merode" or "Harvard Mills" hand-finished underwear, this is just a friendly reminder. Now is the time to replenish your supply.

To those who are not yet acquainted with "Merode" or "Harvard Mills" underwear, this is our cordial invitation to visit the store which carries these garments.

"Merode" and "Harvard Mills" underwear is soft, light and finely knit, exquisitely and trimly finished.

And how it fits! Each garment is carefully cut by hand, made with smooth Flatlock seams, and beautifully tailored. From first wearing to last, it never sags or stretches out of shape!

There are models in "Merode" and "Harvard Mills" hand-finished underwear to meet every one's taste—for every style of dress.

Union suits and separate garments for women, girls and children. All weights, in cotton, merino and silk mixtures. Extra sizes for tall or stout women.

Also
"Merode"
and
"Harvard Mills"
(Hand-finished)
Underwear for Babies

Winship, Boit & Co.
Wakefield, Mass.

"My Automatic Cook Lets Me Shop When I Please"

The Westinghouse Automatic—"the Range with the clock"—lets her shop or rest or play when she pleases. It turns the heat on and off at any desired moment, whether she is there or not.

You, too, will appreciate not only the convenience of this range, but also the entire certainty of its operation, the excellence of the foods prepared in it, and the reasonable cost at which it operates.

It is on display, and will be willingly demonstrated, at your Central Station Store, or your electrical dealer's.

WESTINGHOUSE ELECTRIC & MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Westinghouse

ELECTRIC RANGES WITH AUTOMATIC CONTROL

