

SOCIAL CALENDAR WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10
Kenton club dance at the clubhouse, evening.
Marriage of Ethelwynne Harris and Allen C. Hemphill at St. Stephens pro-cathedral, 8:30 o'clock.

Stage, Screen; Woman's Realm

CLUB CALENDAR WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10
Musical and tea by New England Conservatory club with Mrs. A. M. McFinn, 181 North Twenty-third street, from 3 to 6 p. m.
Willamette chapter, D. A. R., with Mrs. Walter You, 475 East Forty-second street north, at 2 p. m.

Canadians Plan Armistice Dance

A BENEFIT concert and dance will be given by the Canadian and Imperial War Veterans' association at Pacific hall, 409 Alder street, in celebration of Armistice day, Thursday evening. The program is in charge of Mrs. A. H. Huyck, Gabriella Pullin and F. T. Crowther. A quartet arranged by E. Trevor-Jones will give a group of selections and a highland dance number will be presented by Miss Betty Forbes of Oregon City. A humorous selection by M. Runciman will complete the program, which will be followed by an informal dance. The music for the dancers will be supplied by the club orchestra. Refreshments will be served and all persons interested in the support of the organization and its relief work are urged to attend.

St. Agatha's third annual bazaar will open this evening with a dinner served by the women of the club orchestra. The bazaar is to continue through November 10 and 11. Some of the features will be the parcel post booth, the fish pond, the refreshment table and the country store. In addition to these, many booths will offer a variety of beautiful hand-made articles, etc. Charges for the dinner will be 75 and 50 cents. The proceeds of the bazaar are to be used for the new church.

Miss Agnes McBride and Miss Neil Imhaus, who left the city some time ago for the east, are visiting friends in Boston, Mass.

Gordon Granger Relief corps will hold its annual plant and bulb sale at room 525, courthouse, Thursday afternoon. Also a sale of home cooked foods, many suitable for Thanksgiving, will be held at the same time and place.

Mrs. William L. Wood has returned from Philadelphia, where she went some time ago to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Randall (Helen Wood). Mrs. Randall is convalescing after a severe illness and her young son, Lambert Wood Randall, accompanied Mrs. Wood to Portland, where she will remain until she is able to travel again when, with her mother, Mrs. Randall and the baby will leave for Arizona where they expect to spend three months. They hope to leave the city about December 1.

Mrs. Guy Standifer has returned to Portland following a sojourn of three months in the East during which she visited New York, Washington and other Eastern cities. She is domiciled at the Benson hotel.

Mrs. Roger B. Sinnott and her mother, Mrs. Lowndale, have given up their home and will spend the winter at the Mallory hotel.

A number of Portland women were guests at a tea Saturday, for which Mrs. C. J. Hoffman was hostess at Woodland, Wash. The party was met at the train by motors and enjoyed a delightful afternoon at Woodland. Their number included Mrs. Ernest Du Bois, Mrs. Thomas Redrich, Mrs. Herman Funk, Mrs. John Urquardt, Mrs. Arthur Fletcher and Mrs. James P. Stapleton.

Mayor Baker has offered the use of the Auditorium to the Community Service girls for Saturday evening. A masquerade dance will be held at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Scott have taken apartments at the Multnomah hotel for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Walker, who make their home at the Multnomah hotel, expect to leave the city for Vancouver, B. C., where they will sail early in December for Australia. They will stop at Honolulu and will visit New Zealand before returning to the states.

Eric V. Hauser Jr. is spending a few days in Portland and will leave the city the latter part of this week for Minneapolis.

Mrs. W. C. Hanna, (Claire Oakes), who has been visiting Portland friends for a few weeks, expects to sail for Honolulu to visit her mother, Mrs. Adrian M. Oakes, December 1. Captain Oakes is stationed for the winter months in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Welch announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lottie Welch, to J. R. Thompson, Thursday morning, November 4.

The next dance of the series given by the Tillamook club will be an event of Saturday evening at Multnomah hotel. Mrs. C. B. Baker will be hostess for the evening. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock.

Social club of Portland chapter No. 97, O. E. S., is planning two dancing parties for the near future, the first to be given November 20, at the W. O. W. hall, 324 Russell street, and the second, to be given December 3 at Pythian temple. Mrs. Oscar Wikander is worthy matron of the chapter.

Mrs. W. E. Furnish was hostess for an informal tea Friday afternoon at her home in Clifton street, honoring Miss Marjorie McGuire, who recently returned from an extended trip through the East. At the tea hour Miss Katharine Corbin presided at the ten and Mrs. John Hunt Hendrickson cut the ices.

Treasury officials to urge upon congress revision of taxes, but held the $4,000,000,000 annual taxation must continue some years to meet obligations.

MISS BERTHA LUTZ of St. Paul, Minn., who is a visitor at the home of Miss Louise Niemeier in Laurelhurst.

Miss Bertha Lutz of St. Paul, Minn., who is a visitor at the home of Miss Louise Niemeier in Laurelhurst.

P. E. O. Chapters Of Portland Foregather

By Vella Winger
THE beautiful Irving home of Mrs. O. W. Meike, president of Chapter A of the P. E. O. sisterhood, was the scene Monday afternoon of a large and delightful gathering of women, the occasion being the annual affiliation day of the six Portland chapters. In addition to members of the local chapters there were present the state president, Mrs. Mary K. Logan of Tualatin, and members from the chapters of La Grande, Woodburn, Newberg, Eugene, Clatskanie, Forest Grove and Oregon City, as well as St. Paul and Kansas City, the entire attendance numbering 125.

The quarterly birthday dinner of the Peninsula Park Laverander club will be held Friday of this week at 12:30 at the Peninsula park field house. The change in day of meeting is necessitated on account of Thursday being Armistice day.

The Woman's Psychic club will meet Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. in the church parlor at East Beaver and Haswell streets. After the business meeting there will be one hour of psychic development. The public is cordially invited.

Miss Isabelle McKean has been chosen assistant in the department of health education of the Y. W. C. A. This branch of the association work is progressing rapidly and many girls are learning to swim. It is necessary now to make dates for private lessons at least a week in advance, as so many are availing themselves of the opportunity.

The employment department of the Y. W. C. A. had applications for work from 137 women and girls during October. Many positions have been secured.

Central Presbyterian Church Women's society will hold its annual praise service in the church auditorium Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. H. L. Bowman will deliver the address.

The Portland Grade Teachers' association will hold an important meeting Wednesday at 4:30 in Central library.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Welch announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lottie Welch, to J. R. Thompson, Thursday morning, November 4.

The regular meeting of the Thompson school Parent-Teacher association will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. A full attendance of members and friends is desired. An excellent program has been prepared, including musical selections from several pupils of Mrs. Ernest Johns, a community sing, with Walter Jenkins as leader, and several interesting numbers from various rooms of the school.

Bishop McGrath blessed the outer and inner walls and the altar.

Archbishop Christie, in his sermon of dedication of the divorced couple, constituted a growing menace, which, if unchecked, will eventually undermine the American republic. The archbishop emphasized the stand the Catholic church has taken against divorce and urged religious education as a safeguard for the nation in the future.

The local council Knights of Columbus acted as escort to the clergy at the dedication of the church.

In the afternoon the Knights of Columbus held initiation, conferring all three degrees on a large class of candidates, P. J. Hanley, district deputy, and officers of Portland and the Dalles council conducting the work. In the evening the local council was host at a banquet honoring the visiting churchmen and Knights of Columbus.

Teachers to Meet County School Head

Roseburg, Nov. 9.—School Superintendent O. C. Brown has arranged a system whereby the teachers of rural schools will be able to meet with the county school superintendent in sessions at least three times each school year. Districts have been listed in zones. All teachers in a zone will meet with the superintendent in the out problems they meet. The plan, it is believed, will prove more helpful than visits to separate schools. Full institute credit will be given.

WHO? WHAT? WHERE?

ORPHEUM—Broadway at Taylor. Vaudeville features the "Spirit of Mardi Gras." 2:30 and 8:20.

FANTASIES—Broadway at Alder. High class vaudeville and photoplay features. Afternoon and evening. Program changes Monday after-noon.

LOEW'S HIPPODROME—Broadway at Yamhill. Direction Ackerman & Harris. Vaudeville. Afternoon and night.

BAKER—Morrison at Eleventh. Baker Stock company in "The Grey Trail." Matinee Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, 2:30; evening, 8:20.

LYRIC—Broadway and Morrison. Lyric Musical Troupe company in "Tango Craze." Matinee daily, 2:30; evening, 8:20.

COLUMBIA—Sixth at Stark. Basil King's story, "Earthbound." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

LIBERTY—Broadway at Stark. "45 Minutes From Broadway." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

RIVOLI—Washington at Park. "The Revenge of Tarran." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

MAJESTIC—Washington at Park. "The North Wind's Malice." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

PEOPLES—West Park at Alder. May Allison in "Field of Truth." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

STAR—Washington at Park. Harry Carey in "Sundown Slim." 11 a. m. to 11 p. m.

CIRQUE—Fourth, near Washington. Constance Binney in "30 East." 9 a. m. to 4 o'clock the next morning.

FRATERNAL

Eureka council, Security Benefit association, gave a special convocation Monday evening and conferred the R. A. degree at Sunnyside Masonic Temple.

Sunnyside lodge, Royal Arch Masons, held a special convocation Monday evening and conferred the R. A. degree at Sunnyside Masonic Temple.

Sunnyside lodge, A. F. and A. M., is compelled to continue its extra sessions for degrees and Tuesday evening will confer Fellowcraft work at its temple in Hawthorne avenue at East Thirti-ninth street.

The Yeomen of Ivanhoe lodge, B. of A. Y., will give another of their social dances Wednesday evening at N. of W. hall, Tenth and Taylor streets, and members and their friends are assured a good time.

Industry lodge, A. O. U. W., held a well attended meeting Monday evening at the First Presbyterian church and received a class of candidates. After the close of business a most acceptable buffet lunch was served.

New Bend Catholic Church Dedicated; Divorce Is Scored

Bend, Nov. 9.—Archbishop Christie of Portland, assisted by Bishop McGrath of Baker, Father Sheehan and Father Gabriel Harrington of Bend, Father Butler of Heppner and Father Adrian Shafer of St. Francis of Assisi here Sunday morning.

Bishop McGrath blessed the outer and inner walls and the altar.

Archbishop Christie, in his sermon of dedication of the divorced couple, constituted a growing menace, which, if unchecked, will eventually undermine the American republic. The archbishop emphasized the stand the Catholic church has taken against divorce and urged religious education as a safeguard for the nation in the future.

The local council Knights of Columbus acted as escort to the clergy at the dedication of the church.

In the afternoon the Knights of Columbus held initiation, conferring all three degrees on a large class of candidates, P. J. Hanley, district deputy, and officers of Portland and the Dalles council conducting the work. In the evening the local council was host at a banquet honoring the visiting churchmen and Knights of Columbus.

Fun Is Feature For New Week At Pantages

AN ELEMENT of fun runs through the new bill at the Pantages theatre in a manner that proves entirely entertaining and which has its climax in the presentation of "Sweet Sixteen," a musical offering featuring girls—tall ones, small ones and any kind at all. Jack Collins and Bert Morrissey are the principal comedians of "Sweet Sixteen," and they are as clamorously received as their dainty dancing, singing co-workers who appear in a grand array of gowns.

Joe Whitehead is back with the new bill to delight Portland friends with his nonsense and he brings a new effect in scenic drops—a curtain of burlap, badly used. Wilson and McEvoy have a happy collection of merriment and songs.

Edna Andrews has a character act that takes well. It is "Saint and Sinner," in which Miss Andrews is the saint and Louise Dunbar the sinner. It is an exposition of the triangle in the lives of the saint and her spouse.

"A Humorous Interview" is the comedy skit offered by Charles Morati and Grace Harris. Fulton and Mack, balancing athletes, open the bill.

"Sundown Slim" awakened in his boxer to find the carrier in an Arizona cow town. He stayed to discard the marks of travel and came finally to sit the saddles of the western kingdom. "Slim" is brought to the Star theatre in the week's new bill by Harry Carey, who takes the leading role in H. Herbert Knibbs' popular story of the western plains. Slim knows no other use for the roads he sees but to travel on them, but with his old little rhymes he wins his way into the deep affection of the great South-west through exciting days and nights that test the metal of manhood in a thrilling manner.

Hippodrome "Spavin's Corners," presented by Larry Keating and his assistants, holds first place on an excellent bill at the Hippodrome for the first half of the week. The skit is filled to the brim with homely and hilarious humor. Bolevic witticism bubbles from the lips of Keating in a cool, refreshing stream. He delighted the audience at the initial performance Sunday. There are three rubes, a pretty girl and a city boy in the cast with Keating and all give expression to their talents with pep and snap.

"The Little Big Girl" is a rather pretty maiden who seeks renown and an easy living through juvenile impersonation. She imitates the clever sayings of babyhood and gets it over. Troutner and Haffner have a clever and entertaining blackface contribution in which song and comedy dialogue win applause.

Morelli's "Toy Shop" made the big hit with the kiddies and got no less applause from the grownups. Morelli presents a dozen or more highly trained dogs and does some clever work on his own account.

Balancing stunts requiring extraordinary skill are presented by Milo and Herman in an act which found ready response from the Sunday crowd.

The Hippodrome bill closes with a movie version of the popular New York farce, "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath."

Youngster Missing, Father Is Sought Astoria, Or., Nov. 9.—Police and school authorities are seeking Weston Bruce, 9-year-old Astoria boy, who disappeared Sunday morning after he had told his mother he was going out to play. Harry Bruce, father of the boy, who has been divorced from the boy's mother, Mrs. Owens, for several years, is also being sought, on the theory that he may be able to shed light on the lad's whereabouts.

Forgery Is Charged Chehalis, Wash., Nov. 9.—Deputy Sheriff Casady arrested C. H. Jennings in Montesano to answer a forgery charge.

The top can be turned back on a dwelling table patented for apartment dwellers, converting it into a chair.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Fun Is Feature For New Week At Pantages

AN ELEMENT of fun runs through the new bill at the Pantages theatre in a manner that proves entirely entertaining and which has its climax in the presentation of "Sweet Sixteen," a musical offering featuring girls—tall ones, small ones and any kind at all. Jack Collins and Bert Morrissey are the principal comedians of "Sweet Sixteen," and they are as clamorously received as their dainty dancing, singing co-workers who appear in a grand array of gowns.

Joe Whitehead is back with the new bill to delight Portland friends with his nonsense and he brings a new effect in scenic drops—a curtain of burlap, badly used. Wilson and McEvoy have a happy collection of merriment and songs.

Edna Andrews has a character act that takes well. It is "Saint and Sinner," in which Miss Andrews is the saint and Louise Dunbar the sinner. It is an exposition of the triangle in the lives of the saint and her spouse.

"A Humorous Interview" is the comedy skit offered by Charles Morati and Grace Harris. Fulton and Mack, balancing athletes, open the bill.

"Sundown Slim" awakened in his boxer to find the carrier in an Arizona cow town. He stayed to discard the marks of travel and came finally to sit the saddles of the western kingdom. "Slim" is brought to the Star theatre in the week's new bill by Harry Carey, who takes the leading role in H. Herbert Knibbs' popular story of the western plains. Slim knows no other use for the roads he sees but to travel on them, but with his old little rhymes he wins his way into the deep affection of the great South-west through exciting days and nights that test the metal of manhood in a thrilling manner.

Hippodrome "Spavin's Corners," presented by Larry Keating and his assistants, holds first place on an excellent bill at the Hippodrome for the first half of the week. The skit is filled to the brim with homely and hilarious humor. Bolevic witticism bubbles from the lips of Keating in a cool, refreshing stream. He delighted the audience at the initial performance Sunday. There are three rubes, a pretty girl and a city boy in the cast with Keating and all give expression to their talents with pep and snap.

"The Little Big Girl" is a rather pretty maiden who seeks renown and an easy living through juvenile impersonation. She imitates the clever sayings of babyhood and gets it over. Troutner and Haffner have a clever and entertaining blackface contribution in which song and comedy dialogue win applause.

Morelli's "Toy Shop" made the big hit with the kiddies and got no less applause from the grownups. Morelli presents a dozen or more highly trained dogs and does some clever work on his own account.

Balancing stunts requiring extraordinary skill are presented by Milo and Herman in an act which found ready response from the Sunday crowd.

The Hippodrome bill closes with a movie version of the popular New York farce, "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath."

Youngster Missing, Father Is Sought Astoria, Or., Nov. 9.—Police and school authorities are seeking Weston Bruce, 9-year-old Astoria boy, who disappeared Sunday morning after he had told his mother he was going out to play. Harry Bruce, father of the boy, who has been divorced from the boy's mother, Mrs. Owens, for several years, is also being sought, on the theory that he may be able to shed light on the lad's whereabouts.

Forgery Is Charged Chehalis, Wash., Nov. 9.—Deputy Sheriff Casady arrested C. H. Jennings in Montesano to answer a forgery charge.

The top can be turned back on a dwelling table patented for apartment dwellers, converting it into a chair.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Fun Is Feature For New Week At Pantages

AN ELEMENT of fun runs through the new bill at the Pantages theatre in a manner that proves entirely entertaining and which has its climax in the presentation of "Sweet Sixteen," a musical offering featuring girls—tall ones, small ones and any kind at all. Jack Collins and Bert Morrissey are the principal comedians of "Sweet Sixteen," and they are as clamorously received as their dainty dancing, singing co-workers who appear in a grand array of gowns.

Joe Whitehead is back with the new bill to delight Portland friends with his nonsense and he brings a new effect in scenic drops—a curtain of burlap, badly used. Wilson and McEvoy have a happy collection of merriment and songs.

Edna Andrews has a character act that takes well. It is "Saint and Sinner," in which Miss Andrews is the saint and Louise Dunbar the sinner. It is an exposition of the triangle in the lives of the saint and her spouse.

"A Humorous Interview" is the comedy skit offered by Charles Morati and Grace Harris. Fulton and Mack, balancing athletes, open the bill.

"Sundown Slim" awakened in his boxer to find the carrier in an Arizona cow town. He stayed to discard the marks of travel and came finally to sit the saddles of the western kingdom. "Slim" is brought to the Star theatre in the week's new bill by Harry Carey, who takes the leading role in H. Herbert Knibbs' popular story of the western plains. Slim knows no other use for the roads he sees but to travel on them, but with his old little rhymes he wins his way into the deep affection of the great South-west through exciting days and nights that test the metal of manhood in a thrilling manner.

Hippodrome "Spavin's Corners," presented by Larry Keating and his assistants, holds first place on an excellent bill at the Hippodrome for the first half of the week. The skit is filled to the brim with homely and hilarious humor. Bolevic witticism bubbles from the lips of Keating in a cool, refreshing stream. He delighted the audience at the initial performance Sunday. There are three rubes, a pretty girl and a city boy in the cast with Keating and all give expression to their talents with pep and snap.

"The Little Big Girl" is a rather pretty maiden who seeks renown and an easy living through juvenile impersonation. She imitates the clever sayings of babyhood and gets it over. Troutner and Haffner have a clever and entertaining blackface contribution in which song and comedy dialogue win applause.

Morelli's "Toy Shop" made the big hit with the kiddies and got no less applause from the grownups. Morelli presents a dozen or more highly trained dogs and does some clever work on his own account.

Balancing stunts requiring extraordinary skill are presented by Milo and Herman in an act which found ready response from the Sunday crowd.

The Hippodrome bill closes with a movie version of the popular New York farce, "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath."

Youngster Missing, Father Is Sought Astoria, Or., Nov. 9.—Police and school authorities are seeking Weston Bruce, 9-year-old Astoria boy, who disappeared Sunday morning after he had told his mother he was going out to play. Harry Bruce, father of the boy, who has been divorced from the boy's mother, Mrs. Owens, for several years, is also being sought, on the theory that he may be able to shed light on the lad's whereabouts.

Forgery Is Charged Chehalis, Wash., Nov. 9.—Deputy Sheriff Casady arrested C. H. Jennings in Montesano to answer a forgery charge.

The top can be turned back on a dwelling table patented for apartment dwellers, converting it into a chair.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Musical comedy with Jack Colton, Bert Morley and a company of Broadway beauties. 6—Other Big Acts—6, 3 Shows Daily. Night Curtain 7 and 8.

Fun Is Feature For New Week At Pantages

AN ELEMENT of fun runs through the new bill at the Pantages theatre in a manner that proves entirely entertaining and which has