

TEXTILE WORKERS PROPOSE TO FIGHT PREDICTED CUT

By Harold H. Jacobs
New York, Nov. 9.—(U. P.)—Reports that textile manufacturers contemplate a general wage reduction as a step towards lowering prices to the public were received here today by John Golden, international president of the United Textile Workers of America, with the declaration:

"We'll fight."
Golden declared that "the first persons who must accept a reduction in wages in the textile industry are the stockholders."
"Next must come the extremely high paid executives," he said.
"When all this is done it will be found there will be no reason for reducing wages of the textile workers."
Referring to the Uncasville Manufacturing company, which reopened its Connecticut mill yesterday after its 200 employees agreed to a 20 per cent wage decrease, Golden said that if manufacturers whose plants are unionized attempt a similar move it will cause an endurance test.
Golden said that before the war wages in the textile industry averaged about $12 a week for 54 to 56 hours. The present wages range from $21 to $30, with a general average of $30 for a 48-hour week in the North and a 55-hour week in the South, he said.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—(U. P.)—Rumblings of impending industrial war were heard in Chicago and the Middle West today, as employers and union men prepared for a clash over the closed shop proposition.

Employers of Illinois went on record recently as favoring the open shop, which gives non-union men the right to work alongside of organized labor, when the Illinois Manufacturers' association, in a formal resolution, endorsed the open shop and promised aid to any of its members who started a fight against the closed shop.
Reports reaching labor federation headquarters here from other industrial centers in the Middle West indicate that employers are contemplating similar action as that taken by the Illinois Manufacturers' association.
Those in touch with the labor situation hold that the fight between employers and labor will come to a head this winter, pointing to the fact that the supply of labor is now greater than the demand.

Approval Is Given Appraisalment of Lands in Harney

Salem, Nov. 9.—The state land board Monday approved the appraisalment placed upon the 10,000-acre tract of land in Harney county to be put on the market by the Pacific Livestock company under the provisions of the compromise effected by Attorney General Brown a year ago. The appraisalment, made by J. W. Briggs of Burns, representing the state, and A. R. Olsen of Burns, representing the company, fixes a maximum value of $100 per acre on the best lands in the tract, with an aggregate valuation for the 10,000 acres of $750,000.
Under the terms of the agreement entered into with the state, ex-service men are to have preference right to any land in the tract at the appraised value, if the preference is exercised within 90 days.

Lasker Mentioned As Possibility in Harding's Cabinet

Chicago, Nov. 9.—A. D. Lasker, who originated the plan under which the new national 12-club baseball league was formed here today, is slated for a position in President-elect Harding's cabinet, according to rumors in baseball circles here tonight. It is said he may become secretary of commerce. Lasker was active in Harding's campaign and attended to the publicity work in some of the western states.

Drainage District Proposed to Redeem 2000 Acres in Linn

Albany, Or., Nov. 9.—Two thousand acres of the most fertile land in Linn county, lying useless because of overflow water from Beaver creek, will be redeemed if plans of Beaver creek farmers mature. These land owners will meet Saturday at Crawfordville to discuss the organization of a drainage district for removing obstacles in the channel of the creek and draining the lands. The project has been pronounced feasible by engineers.
Beaver creek's course has been obstructed largely by beaver dams, which it is proposed to remove.

ALL BUT 'MASTER MIND' IN WRECKED BANK CASE TAKEN

Medford, Or., Nov. 9.—The latest arrest in the Jacksonville bank case grand jury investigation is that of Elmer E. Quigley, livestock man operating near Yreka, Cal., who was arraigned Tuesday on a charge of aiding and abetting in the defrauding of a bank and will enter a plea Wednesday. A demurrer to the indictment was filed in his case and his bond was set at $1000.

This leaves only one man of the seven indicted Saturday at liberty, and he is called the "master mind" of the bank failure. His whereabouts has been unknown for several months.
None of the cases of those indicted will be heard until the next term of court, an agreement having been entered into to this effect. This includes the cases of William H. Johnson and R. D. Hines, bank officials; Myrtle Blakely, county treasurer; A. W. Walker, Medford automobile dealer; Chester Kubli, Applegate cattle dealer; J. E. Bartlett, electric supply merchant; S. R. Johnson, Thompson creek sawmill operator and Quigley. Demurrers were filed Tuesday to the indictments against Walker, Kubli and Bartlett. Bartlett was arraigned and released on $1000 bond. Demurrers were also filed to the S. R. Johnson and Benjamin M. Collins indictments. Collins is a Grants Pass automobile dealer.
All the demurrers will be heard at the same time, at the earliest convenience of Judge Calkins, except those in the case of President Johnson, Vice President Hines and County Treasurer Blakely, as the issues involved are practically the same.

Why Not Think About Your Underwear

FRANKLIN'S saying that if you want a thing done right you must do it yourself, applies with peculiar force to a man's selection of underwear. Most underwear is bought, not by men but for them.

Not from a concentrated line of known value, but from a mixed stock.

It is easy for the dealer to concentrate on Underwear that is giving service of the highest type to millions of men and boys.

"Allen A" is the mark that now identifies the famous Cooper's-Bennington Spring Needle Underwear, with its thirty years of established reputation.

The mark "Allen A" to be stamped in the future on each garment as the Maker's pledge of responsibility to you.

"Allen"—the name of the Makers; and "A"—the standard mark of first and finest grade.

Allen A Cooper's-Bennington Underwear comes direct from the mill to your dealer. All weights for all seasons—for men and boys. Underwear of uniform quality and dependable value.

It will pay you to give more thought to your underwear—and your dealer to concentrate on a line that will live up to the best you can ask from it.
