

NAVAL BASE SITE COMMITTEE WILL ARRIVE ON FRIDAY

Members of the joint naval affairs committee of congress and naval officials will spend Friday, the first day of their visit in the Columbia river section, at Astoria as in the inspection of the Tongue Point naval base site, according to arrangements made by a special entertainment committee this morning.

The visitors will arrive in Portland at 7 a. m. Friday. B. F. Stone of Astoria is in Portland today and has announced that Astorians will have automobiles in sufficient numbers to take the visitors to the mouth of the Columbia river over the newly completed highway.

Returning to Portland Friday evening the congressmen will find some special arrangements for their entertainment Saturday morning at 10 a. m. automobiles will be provided for a tour of the city and harbor.

At noon Saturday a luncheon will be given in honor of the visitors and at 2 p. m. automobiles will again be provided for a trip over the Columbia River highway. Dinner will be served at Chandler Inn on the highway.

The committee which made the arrangements was composed of Judge C. H. Carey, chairman; Dr. Whiteside of the local naval recruiting office; H. L. Hudson, traffic manager of the port and dock commissions; J. S. Polhemus of the port commission; G. B. Hegardt, engineer for the dock commission; Major Park of the United States engineers' office, and Representative C. N. McArthur.

Local Realty Men To Attend Meet on Logged-Off Land

Organized effort for the development of logged-off and arid lands of the Northwest will be planned at a meeting of the executive committee of the Interstate Realty association to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Seattle. Over 2000 real estate men of the four Northwestern states and British Columbia are members of the association and they propose to urge state and federal aid in the development of logged-off lands in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Among the local men who will attend the meeting are: Coe A. McKenna, Fred W. German, F. O. Brookman, P. E. Taylor, Paul C. Murphy, A. L. Ritter, Harry Beckwith, Frank McClell, J. A. Thompson and F. B. Uphaw. Ira E. High of Boise, Idaho, president of the association, and Paul O. Cowgill, secretary, left for Seattle Tuesday night.

M'Cloughry, Noted Criminologist, Dies

Chicago, Nov. 10.—(L. N. S.)—Major R. W. M'Cloughry, former warden of Joliet and Fort Leavenworth prisons and one of the most noted criminologists of the country, is dead here today, aged 61. More than 70,000 criminals came under his supervision in 40 years.

MYSTERIOUS MASKER OF L. H. S. MINSTRELS

Who is the muffled beauty who will feature high school play?
Lincoln high school will stage a minstrel show Friday evening in the high school auditorium for the benefit of the history department.

On the bill is a mysterious masked dancer, the correct guesser of whose identity is to receive a prize. There will also be a pageant of American history, showing "The Four Ages," from the landing of the Pilgrims to the present day. Miss Gertrude Lakefish will give a pianoforte solo and Charles Baum is billed for "A Tramp Abroad."

6 Candidates Make Grade Without Any Financial Expense

The high cost of living doesn't seem to include the item of campaign expenses, if one may judge from the returns thus far filed by county candidates at the recent election. All county candidates have 15 days after election within which to file with the county clerk their schedules of contributions and expenses. The filings so far show:

- Thomas M. Hurburt, for sheriff: "Nothing received and nothing spent."
- Hiram U. Welch, for county assessor: "None."
- Joseph W. Beviridge, for county clerk: "None."
- Ed Gloss, for constable: "Nothing received; no expenses."
- Earl Smith, for coroner: "Nothing received; nothing expended."
- Martin Hawkins, for district judge: "Nothing; nothing."

Oregon City Man Is Injured When Hit by Automobile

Oregon City, Nov. 10.—W. A. Huntley, one of the owners of the Huntley drug store in this city, was severely injured Tuesday when he was struck and knocked down by an automobile near his home in Eastmoreland.
Huntley had started to cross the street, saw the machine approaching and was about to draw back to the curb, when the auto, believing that he could pass between the man and the curb, speeded up and knocked Huntley to the pavement. He was taken to the emergency hospital in Portland, and later removed to his home, where Dr. Hugh S. Mount of this city is attending him.

Dishes From Sunny South at Food Show Make Mouths Water

Echoes of the sunny south are to be found at the Food Show in the Armory. Do you remember those breakfasts Mammy Choe used to have ready in the morning. Biscuits that melted in your mouth; hot cakes and syrup that somehow disappeared and yet left room for more? Surely you have not forgotten them.
One of the features of the show is the number of colored cooks they have in the various booths. Aunt Jimima, herself, is there waiting to give you a ration of her hot cakes and the only regret is that they are too small.

Gompers Calls Steel Heads to Conference

Washington, Nov. 10.—(L. N. S.)—The president of the 24 international unions involved in the last steel strike will meet in Washington Friday at the call of Samuel Gompers, president of the A. F. of L., it was learned today. They will take action deciding whether a new campaign shall be waged to organize the steel industry.

County Assessors Meeting in Salem

Salem, Or., Nov. 10.—Practically every county assessor in Oregon is here attending the annual conference with the state tax commission and representatives of public utilities operating in the state. A general discussion of taxation problems will be held at a meeting of the State Assessors' association here Thursday afternoon.

Look for the TONE LEAVES

Exclusive Columbia Features

These exclusive Tone Leaves identify every genuine Columbia Grafonola. You know, when you see them, that the phonograph before you has all the important exclusive features.

These exclusive Tone Leaves will give you complete and accurate control over tone volume without sacrificing tone quality or any of the beauty of the record.

The Columbia Grafonola's Streamline Cabinets are invariably in perfect accord with modern artistic furniture design.

The Columbia Grafonola's Straight Tone Arm insures that the music will develop fully and naturally. This music will be an exact reproduction of the music the artists themselves produced on the original wax in the Columbia Laboratory.

And, in addition to all these exclusive advantages, the Columbia Grafonola is now equipped with the exclusive Columbia Non Set Automatic Stop. Operates on any record, long or short. Never stops before it should. Always stops at the very end. Nothing to move or set or measure. Just start your Grafonola, and it plays and stops itself.

Ask the nearest Columbia dealer for a demonstration of the stop that needs no setting.
