

TREATY IS TO BE REJECTED WHEN IT IS RESUBMITTED

Washington, Nov. 10.—Republican leaders of all shades and beliefs, ranging from open advocates of a League of Nations to the irreconcilables led by Senators Borah and Johnson, are agreed that the treaty of Versailles shall be rejected immediately it is resubmitted to the session of congress by President Wilson and peace declared with the central powers by resolution, it was learned from an official source today. President-elect Harding, it is stated, has already agreed to such a program.

Several plans for an association of nations will be submitted to congress immediately. Among them is one by Senator France, who describes it in the following article, written especially for Universal Service, by Senator Joseph Irwin, France, United States senator from Maryland:

"The first duty of the Republican congress will be to end the state of war with Germany, and then to take steps in the direction of international understandings which will mean true reconciliation and national reconstruction.

"After losing nearly two years of precious time the Republican party will take up the consideration of such plans as proposed by Senator Knox and myself.

"My resolution provides for making immediate peace with Germany and directs the president to invite all nations to send delegates to Washington for the purpose of a general conference as a substitute for the League of Nations.

"The list of states to be invited under this resolution will include Ireland, Egypt, India, Australia, Argentina, Republic, Austria, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Chile, China, Colombia, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Finland, France, Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Hedjaz, Hungary, Italy, Japan, Jugo-Slavia, Luxembourg, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Norway, Panama, Persia, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Roumania, Russia, Salvador, Serbia, Siam, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Turkey, Switzerland, Uruguay and Venezuela.

"Each of states should be represented at the international conference by three delegates.

"An assembly composed of two delegates from each of the colonies, protectorates and dependencies should sit separately, but at the same time.

"Such a conference would look to a voluntary concert of nations in which each can maintain its sovereignty and all would co-operate for the general welfare under the establishment of the leadership of America."

Non-partisans Gain In Membership of Minnesota Session

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 10.—(I. N. S.)—The Non-partisan league labor delegation in the next house in the Minnesota legislature has been increased from 25, the 1919 membership, to 35 for 1921, the opposition admitted today when the full list of victors was given out.

The Non-partisan league had 25 members in the 1919 session, including exclusively by the farmers' organization. There were eight legislators who had been endorsed by various labor assemblies.

The net result really means a gain of five votes for the league-labor group, league and labor leaders say.

Southern Democrats Score Bryan About Attack on Wilson

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 10.—William J. Bryan has alienated himself from southern Democrats by his suggestion that President Wilson resign. A storm of protest has swept over Dixie and the commoner has been denounced from the Ohio to the Gulf.

"Mr. Bryan has lost his right to take any part in any conference, as to Democratic procedure," said C. P. J. Mooney, editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, in a signed editorial today. "He is not fit to make a suggestion to President Wilson. Mr. Bryan went to San Francisco and made a fight against Cox. That was his privilege. Mr. Cox won. Mr. Bryan said then his heart was in the grave." As far as the Democratic party is concerned it might as well stay there.

Mr. Mooney continues, saying: "His Democracy has always been tinctured by a rotten theory of populism and opportunism."

After referring to Mr. Bryan's failure to help Cox in the campaign, Mr. Mooney says: "Mr. Bryan has made his living from the Democratic party. It has been his meal ticket for 30 years. He orated himself into the nomination for the presidency in 1896. As soon as he was beaten he wrote a book and took to the lecture platform. He has coined his reputation as a Democratic leader into a box office asset."

DRY LAW CHIEFS ARE DISMAYED BY COURT DECISION

Washington, Nov. 10.—(I. N. S.)—"Dry" law chiefs today were in utter dismay over the probable effect of the supreme court's decision, holding that whiskey may be "transported" from warehouse storage to owners' homes. They frankly fear demoralization in enforcement work may grow out of the release of millions of gallons of liquors legally held.

Some clear statement, further interpreting the rights of whiskey owners, under the highest court's ruling, is expected as a result of the conferences continued today between Commissioner of Internal Revenue Williams and Prohibition Commissioner Kramer and their legal advisers.

Firemen Put Fire Out and Find Still

Fire in the residence at 996 Kelly street was quickly extinguished Tuesday evening, but not before the firemen got down as far as the cellar and discovered three piles of corn mash, with a part of a whiskey still. Police investigated, but have not found yet who the occupants were. They believe whoever lived there carried away what whiskey had been made along with part of the still and then set the house on fire.

Whether to resign his $7500 a year berth as federal judge for a $50,000 job as chairman of the new board of control of reorganized baseball involved more questions than he has been able to decide in a day.

He had not made up his mind late today whether he will accept the baseball offer tendered him by the new 12-club league.

"I still have the matter under advisement," he said. "To make a change of this kind would revolutionize my life. It is certainly something to think about." One thing is sure. The difference in the money is no inducement at all to him. It is another phase of the question that he is turning over in his mind. If money was the goal of his life he could make more than $50,000 a year as the head of his own law firm or as attorney for some large corporation.

Held on Charge of Opening Mail Box

Alfred Godfrey of West Portland was held to answer to the federal grand jury Tuesday under $500 bonds by United States Commissioner Kenneth Frazer on a charge of tampering with a mail box.

According to Clarence Fisher, 11 years old, Godfrey tore the mail box of C. S. Stowe off a post the night of October 23. Clarence told the court that the light from a passing auto permitted him to recognize Godfrey. Counsel for Godfrey told the court that he would produce witnesses to prove that Godfrey was at work at 6 p. m. October 23, the time the offense is alleged to have been committed.
