Wiesendanger Breaks Camp-Albert Wiesendanger, forest ranger at Eagle Creek, is in Portland today, conferring with officials in the Oregon national forest. Wiesendanger is preparing to close up shop at Eagle Creek for the winter and move into Portland. He is now packing away tables and camp equipment until spring and expects to come in with his family about November 15. Last winter Wiesendanger attempted to remain at Eagle Creek through the winter, but the December snow storm drove him out.
