

ICE CREAM MAKERS GATHER MONDAY

One thousand visitor from Pacific coast states and Western Canada are expected to gather in Portland Monday for the opening session of the fifth annual convention of the Pacific Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers. The sessions will continue all week.

In addition to the convention one of the largest exhibits of ice cream supplies, equipment and machinery ever held will be arranged in The Auditorium. The exhibit will occupy 20,000 square feet of floor space and will be arranged by the National Association of Ice Cream Supply Men.

Dream Warns Him Revenue Men Are Coming; They Do!

Pursued by phantom revenue officers, Tony Missetich, alleged wholesale moonshiner, tossed restlessly in his bed during the early morning hours Wednesday. So real was his dream that he hastened to warn his companions at their place of operation in a farm house near Sylvan station on the Canyon road. But he was too late. Deputy Sheriffs Christofferson, Schirmer and Rexford did not have a dream, but they had a mighty good hunch and proceeded Missetich to the scene of illegal distillation by a full hour.

Bend to Be Paved City; Takes Bid For Town Streets

Bend, Nov. 11.—Bend took its initial step toward the paved city class Tuesday night when the city council entered into a contract with the Western Willite Road Construction company for the paving of the down town streets for a total bid of $64,467.47. Work will be started immediately, according to C. S. Reed, president of the construction company awarded the contract.

opening of the Deschutes County Teachers' association here Wednesday. Church III gave interesting statistics, drawn from the last Russell Sage foundation report, to show the progress made by Oregon in education. Professor Beattie spoke on community leadership.

The estimated expenditures of Deschutes county for 1921 will total only $101,235, as compared with $144,579 for 1920, according to the budget adopted by the county court. The estimated receipts for the coming year are set at $11,550, leaving $89,685 to be raised by direct taxation.

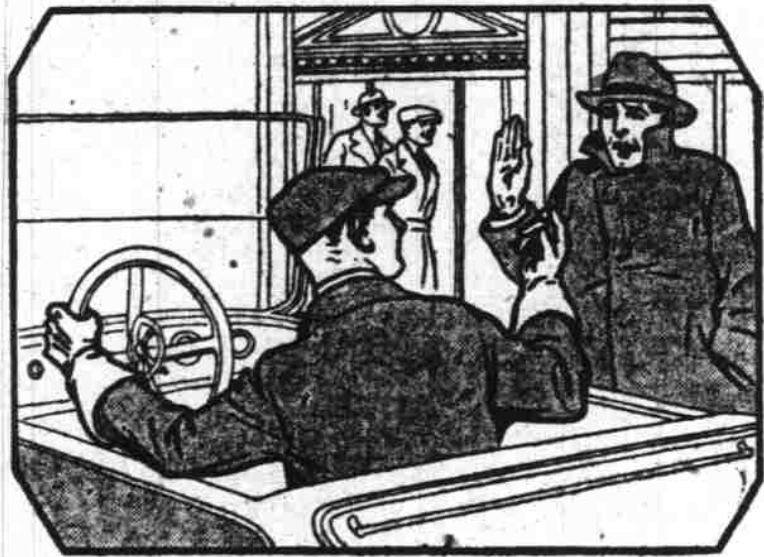

Insufficiency of evidence is claimed in a demurrer filed by attorneys for the defense in the case of the state versus A. J. Weston, accused of the murder of Robert Krug of Sisters. The demurrer will not be argued and is intended as a possible weapon in case an appeal should be necessary, it is understood. The Deschutes county grand jury Wednesday returned three more true bills of indictment. William Robinson is charged with selling liquor to minors, J. L. McClennan with assault with intent to kill against his son-in-law, Mike Merg, and Ed Halvorsen is accused of attack against G. W. Brown.

Teachers to Attend Convention Ashland, Nov. 11.—At the Jackson county teachers' institute were chosen as delegates to the Oregon State Teachers' association convention in Portland, during the coming holiday season. E. H. Hedrick, superintendent of Central Point schools, and Mrs. Grace Dickey of Talent. County Superintendent Miss Susanna Homes and Mrs. Maude Ditsworth of Prospect were elected alternates.
