

FUNERAL SERVICE FOR SPENCER TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Funeral service for Schuyler C. Spencer, who shot and killed himself Wednesday morning at the family residence at 126 Thurman street, after attempting to kill his wife, will be held Friday at 10:30 from Holman's undertaking parlor. Chief Deputy Coroner Leo Gotsch, announced this morning that no inquest would be held, as it was clearly a case of suicide.

Authorities at St. Vincent's hospital report that Mrs. Namoni Spencer, who was shot twice by her husband, is improving and has now an even chance for recovery unless complications set in from a wound in the abdomen. An operation performed Wednesday morning was reported successful and her condition much better this morning.

Spencer, who was 38 years old, came to Portland from Indiana. He was married three times. His first marriage took place in Valparaiso, Ind., about 32 years ago. Before coming to Oregon he was divorced from his first wife.

In 1892 he came to Portland and was married here several years later. He was divorced from his second wife, Mrs. Anita Spencer, in 1909. She is said to be now living near Salem.

His son, Roscoe Spencer, who was born to his first wife in Indiana, died several years ago. He was practicing law after being graduated from Harvard.

Spencer was a Shriner and a member of the Elks.

After being graduated from Wabash college he entered the law offices of ex-Representative Crumpacker of Indiana.

Friends of the Spencer family attribute the tragedy Wednesday to an unbalanced mental condition brought on by both a physical condition and worry over large financial losses resulting in the mismanagement of a ranch at Dilley, near Forest Grove.

Mrs. Spencer was born in England, where she met her first husband, Colonel T. Egerton Hogg, later marrying him in New York.

National Breeders And Fanciers to Meet This Evening

Irish Fair Opens At Hibernia Hall, 340 Russell Street

The Irish fair opens today at Hibernia hall, 340 Russell street, and will continue through Saturday, the last day being designated as "Children's day," when a present will be given each child accompanied by his parents.

John Farrell is chairman of the fair committee and Ed Curtin secretary. Booths are decorated in American and Irish colors. Tom Ward is conducting a "Sinn Fein" cafe. Mrs. Deevy Lillis, A. McLoughlin, Murray, D. J. McLaughlin and Kate Kenny are in charge of the booths which are filled with fancy work. A boy from Mullabawn, County Armagh, has reproduced a replica of an Irish round tower to house an old Irish relic, known for ages as the "Holy Friar." An Irish "colleen" will manage the booth.

Three Hurt in Wreck
Pasco, Wash., Nov. 11.—Ray Rosen-

crats, wife and baby, were injured in an automobile wreck a few miles west of Pasco when their car collided with a wagon. It is said neither car nor wagon bore lights. Rosenkrans was the most severely injured. The baby escaped with a few scratches.

Oswego Catholic Bazaar
The Oswego Catholic church will hold a bazaar in the city hall of Oswego Friday and Saturday. Many excellent pieces of fancy work have been made by the ladies of the parish and will be on sale. The proceeds of the bazaar will go toward buying a new furnace for the church.
