

LOOKS LIKE LOWEST POTATOES REACHED

Potato prices appear at their lowest and now is the proper time to secure your requirements for the winter. Care should be taken to see that stock is not purchased that contains black spots in the center and consumers should also secure stock that is of clean appearance.

Very low prices continue in the market for onions, but little of the stock is of keeping quality that would make it advisable for the consumer to purchase for future requirements. Huckleberries are still being offered on the market, but little of it is of really good quality. Slightly lower prices are ruling, but the stock is high at any price. Apples continue extremely low in price and while the sizes are generally small, quality is favorable.

Hot Lake Arrivals

Hot Lake, Nov. 12.—Arrivals at Hot Lake sanatorium Monday were: J. P. Clunn, Seattle; Mrs. F. A. Britchet, Portland; Mrs. Charles Olson and Mrs.

L. H. Olson, Welsch, Idaho; Mrs. B. Ulrich and E. G. Noll, Pendleton; W. H. Anderson, Baker; Mrs. C. E. Shire, Newberg; C. M. Lamont and family, Walla Walla; Mrs. Dora Campbell, Portland; John C. Applewhite, Astoria, Wash.; Albert Mouda, Kennewick, Wash.

Certificate Taken From F. J. Padden

Pasco, Wash., Nov. 12.—As the result of charges preferred by County School Superintendent Miss Edith Peck and a hearing before the state superintendent last summer, the teacher's certificate of Francis J. Padden of this county has been revoked. Padden was charged with being unfit to teach.

Thieves Appear to Like Punch Boards

Pasco, Wash., Nov. 12.—Punch boards and the merchandise which goes with them prove popular loot for thieves who break into the poolroom of Ed Dyer. On at least three occasions Dyer has lost these gambling devices. Wednesday night he hid one, but the thief found it, also taking one left on a counter.
