Sunday School Teachers and Officers of Multnomah County to Meet Next Friday

SPEAKERS PICKED TO STRESS NEEDS OF RELIGIOUS AIM

Sunday school teachers and officers of Multnomah county will meet all day Friday at the First Christian church, Park and Columbia streets, in their annual convention. A program filled with addresses, pointing out the need of religious education, is announced by the county officers. Short conferences, institutes and round table discussions also comprise part of the program.

Demonstrations of work not included on the regular program will be given during the lunch hours. Potluck luncheon will be served in the church at noon, and the annual banquet is announced for 6:15. Mrs. L. C. Wilkinson will preside at the noon meal and Harley K. Hallgren will be toastmaster at night.

Special committees appointed are: Nominating, Elton Shaw and Harley K. Hallgren; exhibits, Mrs. S. Earl Du Bois; music, J. F. Faust; resolutions, H. R. Scheuman and C. C. Hessemer; ushers, George Porter. Music for the convention will be furnished by the Bible school of the entertaining church.

At the conclusion of the evening session an informal reception will be held for the new state general secretary and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnson.

Among the speakers at the morning session, which starts at 9:30 o'clock, are Miss Georgia Parker, associate state secretary; Willard Rouse, superintendent of boys' work in the county association; W. F. Daut, president of district 6 of the county, and Norman Johnson, state secretary.

The first speaker for the afternoon session, beginning at 2 o'clock, is Dr. Lewis S. Chafer of New York city, instructor in the Moody Bible institute. Dr. Harold L. Bowman of the First Presbyterian church will follow with a special address, after which an hour's conference will be held. The annual business meeting will conclude the afternoon.

At the 7:45 p. m. service addresses will be given by Mrs. W. E. Wright, who for five years was a member of

Congregational Churches Ready For Celebration

The Congregational churches of Portland and vicinity begin next week their celebration of the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth, Mass. The Rev. O. P. Avery of the Waverleigh Heights church fires the first gun on Tuesday night at the First Congregational church when he delivers a stereopticon lecture on "The Forefathers of Liberty." Members of the D. A. R. will be present. The Rev. Mr. Avery will give this lecture the following week in other Congregational churches in Portland.

The Rev. E. E. Flint of the Atkinson Memorial church is preparing a pageant and the Rev. Edward Constant of the Highland church is getting up an exhibit.

Dr. W. T. McElveen is giving a series of lectures before various bodies on "The Pilgrim." Next Monday morning he addresses the Methodist ministers at the meeting at the First Methodist church. He is to address the Daughters of the American Revolution on the same subject on November 23 and he is to speak in The Dalles on "The Pilgrim Foremothers" on November 19. He has also been invited to address the district Kiwanis convention in Tacoma on November 26.

Billy Sunday's evangelistic team, and by Dr. E. C. Hickman, associate pastor of Centenary-Wilbur Methodist church.

During the intermissions delegates will be shown hand work exhibited by schools throughout the county.

Warren Bible and Vesper Classes Gain

The Warren Bible and Vesper classes are coming toward the top in the International Adult Bible Class contest. A telegram from Chicago headquarters was received last Saturday stating the Warren Bible class for young women of the First Presbyterian church was second in position, while the Warren Vesper class was holding third place. There was a spirited manifestation of enthusiasm when the announcement was made Sunday. The attendance in both classes is increasing. There were 307 in the classes last Sunday. One of the points of contest is a half hour reading of the Bible each week. Every person answered in the affirmative last Sunday, which will give an advance toward going "Over the Top." Otto Wedemeyer, director and baritone of the quartet choir, will be the soloist Sunday. The full orchestra will render two overtures under the leadership of Victor DePinto. Young people of Portland are invited to enter into this contest. Meetings are at 12 noon and 4 o'clock each Sunday in room E of the church house, 454 Alder street.

Dickson Will Speak

Evangelist Louis K. Dickson will speak in Women of Woodcraft hall, Tenth and Taylor streets, Sunday night at 4:45 on the topic, "Cutting the World's Canker at Its Source," which will be a disclosure of the virus of anarchy. Special music has been arranged. A song service will precede the lecture. Everybody is invited. Seats are free.

Many at Apostolic Services

Large audiences are reported to be attending the services of the Apostolic Faith each night at the mission hall, Front and Burnside streets. For the last two Sundays appointments at Salem for the afternoon service have been filled by preachers from Portland, who were taken to the Cherry city by airplane.

Important News of Portland's Churches and Young People's Societies

Armistice Sunday will be fittingly observed in Portland's churches. Few pastors will allow the day to pass without speaking a word in memoriam for the Americans who sacrificed their all on Flanders fields. In some churches the entire service will deal with the subject. Mention will also be made of national children's book week, November 15 to 20. Parents will be told the value of having their children read good books.

BAPTIST

The regular monthly meeting of the Baptist Sunday school superintendents' and workers' union will be held in the University Park Baptist church, Fiske and Drew streets, Tuesday at 8 p. m. Supper at 6:45 and a social hour will precede the meeting.

The Oregon Baptist pastors' retreat will be held at the East Side Baptist church November 16 to 20. This is one of the many retreats being held throughout the country for Baptist ministers. Portland churches are to furnish bed and breakfast to out-of-town preachers. The visiting team of speakers is composed of Dr. H. F. Stillwell, Dr. Rolvix Harlan and Dr. R. N. West.

Speakers from the Moody Bible Institute will occupy the White Temple pulpit Sunday. Dr. W. P. White will preach at 11 a. m., and Dr. Lewis S. Chafer will continue his teaching at 3:30 p. m., and preach at 7:45 p. m. Dr. Chafer will also address the B. Y. P. U. meeting at 6:30 p. m. Solos will be given by Miss Jessie Maulbetsch and Axel Osterholm.

The ordinance of baptism will be observed at the Sunday morning service in the East Side Baptist church by Dr. W. B. Hinson. He will preach morning and evening. Thursday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock Dr. Hinson will give his weekly lecture on "Facts of the Faith." These lectures are non-sectarian and open to the public. Last Sunday 36 new members were received into the church. The monthly reports read Wednesday night show excellent conditions in all departments.

Sunday morning the Rev. R. E. Close, pastor of the Third Baptist church, will deliver the last in a series of talks in preparation for an evangelist campaign to begin December 1. The evening worship will open with a song service led by Mrs. Lou Gray. An intermediate B. Y. P. U. society was recently organized. Lauren Sykes was chosen president, and Mrs. R. J. Wuner superintendent.

This society will meet in the Abernathy room and the seniors in the east room.

CHRISTIAN

The Rodney Avenue and Woodlawn Christian churches recently merged their work for the purpose of erecting a new building on a lot which has been purchased at Mallory avenue and Alberta street. In order to secure centralization of effort and efficiency in administration both congregations will meet at the Rodney Avenue church until the new edifice is completed. A special streetcar, which will run on Union avenue between Woodlawn and Albina, has been chartered to transport Bible school pupils.

The Rev. Joseph Boyd, city missionary for the Christian churches, is pastor of the merged churches. He has served the Woodlawn church for the past three years. The Rodney Avenue church was organized in 1899 and the Woodlawn church in 1903.

The place and power of organized Christianity in the life of the community will be the general theme of worship Sunday morning at the First Christian church. In the evening the Rev. H. H. Griffis will speak on Lord Bacon's dissertation on "Idols of the Cave." Friday will be an unusually busy day in the church, with two simultaneous programs in different sections of the building. The county Sunday school convention will be held in the main auditorium, while in the lecture room will be held the quarterly meeting of the Federated Missionary Societies of Portland Christian Churches. The main numbers of the latter program will be an address by Ralph C. McAfee, executive secretary of the Church Federation, and a report of the St. Louis convention by Mrs. Ward Swope, state president of women's work.

CONGREGATIONAL

The possibility of Edison inventing a machine to enable the living to communicate with the dead will be discussed at the First Congregational church Sunday morning by Dr. W. T. McElveen. Tuesday evening the Rev. O. P. Avery will give an illustrated lecture on "The Forefathers of Liberty." Next Thursday night Dr. McElveen will discuss in his current events class the "get-together movement" in China.

Dr. H. D. Haskins, director of religious work at the First church, has organized a committee to give a series of popular entertainments in the church parlors. Mrs. E. N. Howe and a group of women from her class will be at home at the church on Sunday afternoon. There will be a musical program, readings and a cup of tea to add to the sociability of the occasion. On Friday evening, December 3, there will be a community party, with moving pictures and refreshments.

Armistice Sunday will be observed at Highland Congregational church Sunday evening with a special program. At that time a flag will be presented to the Sunday school by the Relief Corps. The Rev. E. Constant will give a brief talk. Pictures are to be shown in the church next Thursday night.

Dr. J. J. Staub will be in his pulpit at Sunnyside Congregational church on Sunday. The men's league will give a free motion picture entertainment in the lecture room next Friday night.

The Intermediate Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church has been organized and the following officers elected: Helen Parish, president; Albert Argo, secretary, and William Klein, treasurer. They plan for a social evening on November 26. The junior society has elected the following officers: Kenneth Roberts, president; Henrietta Roberts, vice-president; Bessie Schreiber, secretary; Frank Mangold, treasurer.

EPISCOPAL

Armistice Sunday will be observed at St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral Sunday. In the morning the dean will preach and in the eveneing Bishop W. T. Sumner will make the address. The regular meeting of the young people's society will be dispensed with and all members and friends are asked to assemble at 5:30 p. m. in the parish house, where they will partake of a supper, in celebration of their first anniversary as an organization. A special program has been arranged. On November 21 the bishop will again preach and confirm a class of adults at the morning service.

St. David's Episcopal church has over 70 men who entered the service during the war, four of whom died. To honor these men a special service will be held Sunday at 11 a. m. The bishop will preach. The offering will be for the soldiers' memorial fund. The Rev. Thomas Jenkins will preach at night.

At the 11 o'clock service Sunday at St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal church, Clarence D. Porter and George C. Burton will give addresses on "The Nation Wide Campaign." At the young people's meeting at 6:30, Alfred Taylor will lead the devotions and Miss Rose Roberts will speak. The women's guild is making preparations for the annual bazaar to be held December 2 at Vincent hall.

A patriotic Armistice Sunday service will be held at St. Andrew's Episcopal church Sunday morning by the Rev. John D. Rice, vicar.

Interest in the new Episcopal work established in St. Johns is reported. The initial service was held last Sunday in Bickner's hall and was well attended. Miss Gertrude Ost will sing this Sunday at the 3 o'clock service.

The Rev. John B. McCormick has been appointed vicar of Our Savior's church at Woodstock and St. Matthew's church in South Portland, according to an announcement made by the diocesan office.

LUTHERAN

Trinity Lutheran church will hold its annual mission festival Sunday. At 10:15 the Rev. L. Stuebe of Cornelius will preach in German, and at 2 p. m. the Rev. Mr. Obenhaus of Chehalis will preach in English. During the later service the Rev. W. George, newly elected field secretary for the Oregon and Washington district, will be installed. The Rev. J. Huchthausen of Tacoma will address the audience (in German) on behalf of the mission board. The evening service will be omitted.

The Luther league of the Y. P. S. of Oregon will hold its convention at Grace Lutheran church November 19 to 21.

The young people of Our Savior's Lutheran church has inaugurated a movement that is proving helpful. They are holding open house every Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock and offer home surroundings and Christian companionship to other Lutherans in the city. The morning service Sunday will be in English, the Rev. M. A. Christensen preaching.

The first in a series of missionary rallies will be held in Bethlehem Lutheran church Wednesday night. The Rev. N. Larsen will speak.

The evening service Sunday at St. Paul's Lutheran church will be especially for young people. The Rev. L. Ludwig of St. John's Lutheran church will preach.

MOODY INSTITUTE ATTRACTS BIBLE STUDY INTEREST

The center of attraction for a large number of Portland's church people during the past week has been the Moody Bible institute, which is meeting this month in the White Temple, Twelfth and Taylor streets. Large crowds are greeting the instructors each night.

Four general services are held each day at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m., 3:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. Beginning Sunday Dr. H. A. Ironsides of Oakland, Cal., will address the morning and first afternoon service. The second afternoon service and night meeting will be addressed by Dr. Lewis S. Chafer of New York city. Dr. W. P. White, Northwest regional director, is managing the institute. The last week in November the same order of services will continue, except that Dr. Donald D. Munro of Kansas City will take the place of Dr. Ironsides.

The meetings are free to the public, no tuition being charged for the course. Support is obtained from free will offerings. The Moody Bible institute of Chicago is back of the school. Similar institutes are being conducted in other coast cities.

Supernatural to Be Subject of Sermon

Returning from a week of lectures on "The New Christianity" in La Grande, the Rev. William R. Reece of the New Christian church (Swedenborgian), 301 Central building, will again occupy his pulpit Sunday and speak on the lesson of Basil King's "Earthbound" which is now being played in this city. He will discuss particularly the other world experience of Dick Desborough, who appears after his death to his wife and friends. The significance of the increasingly frequent occurrence of the supernatural in post-war literature and drama will also be considered.
