Drainage Proposed Of Great Acreage

Salem, Nov. 13 .- A move for the drainage of the white lands in the Willamette valley was started at a meeting of the Salem Commercial club, Wednesday night, and is expected to result in an appeal to the forthcoming state legislature for an appropriation to enlist other clubs of valley towns in the movement, which, it is claimed, will bring thousands of acres of nonproauctive lands into a high state of culti-

Bioycle Thief Caught After Merry Chase

Eugene, Nov. 13 .- A nervy piece b bicycle stealing resulted in landing William Blaisted in jail for a 30 day period. J. T. Miller left his wheel in front of the Presbyterian church for a few minutes, returning in time to see it disappearing around a corner, headed for the rural districts. A deputy sheriff was put on the trail in a small car, but the thief hit such a pace that he had passed Goshen a mile or two before the officer ran him down.

Accident Plea of Husband Fails to Secure Freedom

Yakima, Wash., Nov. 12.—Physicians at the autopsy over the body of Mrs. E. M. Cook, who died suddenly at White Swan, Sunday, found that 13 of her ribs were broken. Her husband, lodged in the county jail, said the injuries were resulted from a brutal beating by the enraged husband.

Relatives of Mrs. Cook are members of the Olney family, one of the wealthiest on the reservation, and a hard fight is planned to convict the husband on the
