

A LOOK AHEAD

Who's the who on Broadway next Sunday and what about Portland's new departure in police work? Who stole Baby Coughlin and what the girl's girl at 481. All these are but a look ahead at next Sunday's Journal features.

INCREASE IN PHONE RATES APPLIED FOR

Petition to Public Service Commission Says Rise Necessary if Company Is to Fill Demands. Orders for 2000 Installations Are Declared to Be Held Up Because of Plant Difficulty.

On behalf of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, C. E. Hickman, division commercial superintendent, Saturday filed with the public service commission of Oregon an application for increase of rates which it is declared is imperative if the company is to meet the accumulating demand for telephone service.

A rearrangement of groups of service points is proposed, making six instead of four under the present schedule of rates. In some instances, the proposed increase is practically 50 per cent, the schedule of increase ranging downward from that point.

NEW CHIEF SHAKES UP CHICAGO POLICE TO CHECK CRIME

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—(U. P.)—Announcing a determined policy to rid Chicago of criminals, Chief of Police Fitzmorris tonight treated Chicago's police department to a shake-up.

Special details, including the homicide and burglary squads, are to be under the order. Department heads and station officers were shifted freely. Traffic, central and Harrison street stations, three of the most important posts in the department, were combined under Captain Patrick Lavin.

Callahan Brothers "Snake" Football Feud Is Dropped

By Damon Runyon. The little football drama of brother against brother has been woven into the football history of the last two years and both years the luck has been with Mike's side. Not since '18 and '19, the football experts told me, has Princeton beaten Yale two years in succession.
