WEATHER CONDITIONS

Two important low pressure areas are shown this morning, one in or near Florida and the other on the Alaska coast. High pressure prevails over most of the country, the highest readings being in Missouri. Precipitation has occurred generally on the Pacific slope and over most of the country east of the Mississippi river. The following heavy rainfall is reported: Tampa, Fla., 1.08; North Head, Wash., 1.02. Snow is falling in the Lake region and Ohio valley. The weather is much milder on the northern Rocky mountain slope, but continues cold in the plains and west Gulf states and Missisppi valley. In Texas the temperature is 25 degrees or more below normal.

Relative humidity at Portland—Noon yesterday, 72 per cent; 5 p. m. yesterday, 85 per cent; 5 a. m. today, 95 per cent.

Precipitation since January 1—Total, 28.13 inches; normal, 34.60 inches; deficiency, 6.47 inches. WEATHER CONDITIONS

The secret of many a famous Southern dish lay in the plantationmade molasses

The mellow flavor of old-time plantation molasses

HAT haunting flavor of oldfashioned plantation-made molasses! Time was when homemade molasses was a popular delicacy. It was the secret of many a famous Southern recipe! And then for years real sugar cane molasses practically ceased to exist.

But today the famous old-time delicacy is yours again. Twenty-two years ago two Louisiana boys decided to restore to the world the famous Southern delicacy-fresh sugar cane

Spurred on by delicious memories of those autumn days in their boyhood when the air was heavy with the fragrance of boiling sugar cane and the whole plantation celebrated molasses-making time, they put up a molasses so fragrant, so full-flavored, so sweet and pure that the first taste carries you back to childhood joys. And they named it Brer Rabbit, in honor of the hero in the plantation stories of their childhood.

Today it is the most popular molasses in America.

One taste and you know the difference it makes in cooking. Try it and see the difference that plantation flavor makes in your baked beans.

Get Brer Rabbit, either the light molasses (gold label-for table use as well as cooking) or the dark molasses (green label-a stronger flavor for cooking), at your grocer's today. Penick & Ford, Ltd., New Orleans.
