

THANKSGIVING IN SHADOW OF OLD MAN HIGH COST

San Francisco, Nov. 18.—(L. N. S.)—The shadow of old man H. C. L. will hover over the Thanksgiving dinner tables again this year.

The prices of Thanksgiving edibles, instead of declining, have soared another notch and it will cost just a little more to furnish the festive board on November 25 than heretofore.

Turkeys are quoted at 70 cents a pound. Last year the birds brought 60 cents, in 1917 they were worth 40 cents, and in 1915 only 35 cents would have purchased a pound. Cranberries have jumped to 25 cents a pound, raisins are up 10 cents a package and mince-meat is selling at 35 cents a pound.

Comparative figures of food costs in 1915, 1917 and 1920 show that the enormous increase in practically all lines has become a little larger this year. Here are some prices for the three years:

From feeding (lb. can)	1915	1917	1920
Chick (gallon)	$0.30	$0.35	$0.50
Olive oil (quart)	.65	1.15	1.80
Four (40 lb. sack)	1.15	2.05	3.45
Sugar (pound)	.09	.08	.13
Boiled ham (pound)	.40	.50	.70
Same pumpkin	.10	.15	.20
Canned fruits	.20	.25	.50
Cranberries (pound)	.15	.20	.25
Winter raisins (pkc.)	.15	.25	.35
Canned crab meat	.25	.30	.35
Canned sardines	.25	.30	.35
Assorted nuts (lb.)	.30	.35	.40

New Commander Is Coming for Forts At Mouth of River

Astoria, Nov. 15.—Lieutenant Colonel A. C. Thompson, commander of the coast defenses at the mouth of the Columbia for the past two years, was the honor guest at a luncheon given by the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday. Colonel Thompson has been ordered to the field officers' school at Fortress Monroe, Va. and will leave in a few days. Colonel Thompson took command of the Columbia coast defenses December 24, 1918, immediately upon his return from France, and the three forts at the mouth of the Columbia have been under his command since that time. He will be relieved by Colonel Bottom, who has been stationed at San Francisco.

At a meeting of the city council last night, two additional traffic officers for the police department were authorized. The officers will be assigned to the congested parts of the business district immediately. One will be stationed at Twelfth and Commercial and the other at Eleventh and Commercial. It is expected by carefully studying the traffic conditions at the intersections of these streets, many accidents may be averted in the future.

Journal Smoker Is Real Peppy Affair; Ring Stars Appear

Exciting boxing exhibitions, high-class singing and dancing and other vaudeville stunts were features of the smoker given Wednesday night by The Journal Publishing company for Journal employees and their friends. The entertainment was held in the Olympic gymnasium in the K. of P. hall at Eleventh and Alder streets.

Solos were rendered by Alice Justin of Portland and Francesca Robbins, formerly of the Orpheum circuit. Wilbert Babidge brought much applause with her toe and fancy dancing. LeNona Lollick, a 13-year-old girl who never took a dancing lesson, was highly pleasing in original dances. "Happy" Jack Walker, vaudeville star, kept the crowd in an uproar with his blackface chatter. Roy McCormick, holder of the Lonsdale belt and light heavyweight champion of Europe, who will fight Willie Meehan at Milwaukie November 24, tendered his services for a three round exhibition with Roy Sutherland. The comical and clever Willie Meehan went on at the conclusion of their exhibition. Joe Gorman took on two opponents for two rounds each, Young Jack Dempsey and Billy Ryan being on the receiving end. Three hundred or more attended. Matchmaker Frank Kendall of the Milwaukie Boxing commission assisted in staging the smoker.

To the Women of This Section

Our "Keeping the faith by the Golden Rule" policy has been so much welcomed and generally appreciated among men that we have decided to extend the benefit to the women.

When "The System" recently started their "sale" and re-sale" policy in a wiggly, wobbly effort to stretch the price revision downward over a long period of time, we adopted the opposite course.

We went the limit in anticipating the lowest possible price level for the highest grade men's clothing a year from now and immediately REVISED DOWNWARD to it—back to normal at one plunge—took a year's colossal loss in a day for the sake of better business tomorrow—restored Public Confidence—opened the way for men to proceed as usual with their buying, without having to wait indefinitely to see how far prices would drop.

General response was the immediate result and as the news about The Truth continues to spread, the demand increases. It is this news about our Golden Rule Policy of "looking out for the other fellow" that we now propose to make now and henceforward of vital and absorbing interest to women as well as men. So successful has been this new policy for men's suits that
