CUPID'S BUSINESS

Vancouver, Wash., Nov. 19 .- Cupid's business sufféred a loss Thursday on account of the bad weather, when only three marriage licenses were sesued at the court house. Licenses were taken out by the fol-Charles Wilson, 44, and Verna Kennedy, 38; Joseph Rathenburger, 29. and Pauline Shaylor, 18; George Hickel, 25 and Roxle King, 19.

Labor Department Proving Buffer in Avoiding Walkouts

Washington, Nov. 19 .- (U. P.)-The labor department, by bringing employers and workers together, is helping to make the possibility of industrial disturbances more remote, according to Edward Cun-ningham, industrial relations expert of Portland, Or. hat department, in an interview today. "Despite the many predictions that industrial warfare is about to break out, there are now less strikes and lockcuts, taking the country as a whole, than at any time since the armistice," Cunningham said today.
