WARM WELCOME AWAITS HEADS OF SALVATION ARMY

Commissioner and Mrs. A. Gifford, in charge of the Western district of the Salvation Army, with Lieutenant Colonel Cousins of the organization, will be welcomed to the state by W. D. Wheelwright as personal representative of Governor Olcott, and to the city by Mayor Baker, at a popular reception at the Church of Our Father, Yamhill street and Broadway, Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

Commissioner Gifford has been active in the Army work for 28 years, the last 12 of which were spent as director of the New England district. When the commissioner was sent out to take charge of the western district, which has headquarters in San Francisco, Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts, vice president-elect, sent a personal letter to Governor Olcott, telling of the high esteem in which the commissioner is held in New England and of the welcome he is deserving of at the hands of the people of Oregon.

The commissioner will be met by the advisory board of the Salvation Army and, with Mayor Baker, presiding, a luncheon will be tendered the commissioner at the Portland hotel Wednesday noon.

Major Bree, head of the Salvation Army in Portland, is attending to the details of the entertainment of the visitors.
