

WILL HAYS WANTS PLACE IN HARDING'S HEART

By David Lawrence
(Copyright, 1920, by The Journal)
Washington, Nov. 20.—Will Hays has carried his point. The deficit of $1,600,000 incurred by the Republican national committee in the last campaign will be collected from small subscribers and there will be a $1000 limit to the amounts that can be accepted.

Mr. Hays has, from the start, favored the small contribution on the ground that it elicits the interest of the many instead of the few and that it places the successful candidate under no embarrassing obligations. The canvass for funds will soon begin. It is a fact that Mr. Hays could have gone out and collected $1,600,000 from a few men in two weeks' time, but he had the united support of his colleagues on the campaign committee when he favored collecting the deficit in exactly the same way as the campaign funds themselves were raised.

WINS LASTING PLACE

Every national chairman has his opponents—and Will Hays is no exception. But the record of the Republican national chairman in the campaign has been such that no matter what critics may say, his friends are confident he has earned a lasting place in the heart of President-Elect Harding. The senator has sent in the last few days several telegrams urging Mr. Hays to make the trip to Panama with him, but the national chairman has declined the over-zealous in his eagerness to get over-zealous in collecting the deficit.

To suggestions that he might become a member of the cabinet, Mr. Hays has made it clear to his friends that he is not seeking any office and is much more interested in continued Republican solidarity and the interests of the party as a whole, rather than anything personal. Mr. Hays has talked to become a national harmony—from the time he took hold of Republican affairs in March, 1918.

URGES SENATORS TO STICK

He used to make frequent trips to Washington and urge Republican senators of all factions to stick together on vital party issues. He thinks it would be a great mistake if factionalism or quarrels of any kind were permitted at this time to disturb the harmonious relations that have been built up during the last two years.

When Senator Harding was nominated there were those who thought he would select his pre-convention manager, Harry Daugherty, to become national chairman, but Mr. Harding didn't, and in the work at headquarters Mr. Daugherty and Mr. Hays have grown to be intimate friends. Unquestionably one of the big powers behind the scenes will be Harry Daugherty, but it is significant that Mr. Daugherty has recommended Mr. Hays for a position in the cabinet.

HARDING IS PARTY MAN

It must not be forgotten that Warren Harding is a party man and that he believes in rewarding the faithful. He is the last in public life who could be accused of political ingratitude. Whether Mr. Hays wants to become national chairman, or whether he is a party man, is for the moment irrelevant, but that the man who was in charge of the biggest Republican campaign in history will be a party man is hardly to be doubted. Republican presidents usually taken their political advisors of campaign days into the cabinet to help them in the many tangles of politics that come up during the campaign.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

WALTERS HELD BY GRAND JURY FOR FIRST DEGREE MURDER

Supported by two court attendants, Husted A. Walters, who shot and killed Patrolman Jerome Palmer Wednesday night, was brought down from the emergency hospital to the municipal court at 11:30 o'clock this morning and arraigned before Judge Rossman on charges of murder and highway robbery. At about the same time the county grand jury reported an indictment against Walters charging first degree murder.

WALTERS HELD BY GRAND JURY FOR FIRST DEGREE MURDER

Walters requested the court to appoint an attorney to confer with him as soon as possible. During the reading of the charges Walters said he was listening. He made no comment other than to make this request. Judge Rossman appointed E. F. Mulkey to defend Walters. He is 37 years old.

ALL DEPENDS ON AGE

Whether or not John Tillman, Walters' youthful companion in the case, will be held of age depends on the age of the child. If the court of domestic relations confirms Tillman's statement that he is a juvenile, he will be tried there, but if it is found that he is 18, he will be remanded to the circuit court, where he will be brought before the grand jury.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

In the event that the investigation shows his record at home is such that it would be useless to send him to a reformatory, he will then be remanded to the circuit court. The bullet wound usually taken their political advisors of campaign days into the cabinet to help them in the many tangles of politics that come up during the campaign.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

Burglar Gets $750 And Squirrel Cape In Apartment Raid

A Siberian squirrel cape valued at $750 and an amethyst pendant valued at $25 were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Alice Armstrong, Eaton hotel, West Park and Morrison streets, Friday night. Mrs. Armstrong told the police she saw the stolen property last about 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. When she returned about midnight, her room had been entered. Other valuable property was left untouched.

After making out a meal on bananas and cakes, a thief rifled the bill of the Columbia grocery store owned by K. H. Aha, 595 Washington street, Friday night. A total of $50.48 was taken. Entrance was gained through a rear window. Aha told the police no one knew where he kept his money and he is at a loss to know how the thief found out where it was.

A revolver was taken from the room of J. Conley and a suitcase of clothing from the room of M. A. Wells in a rooming house at 268 Third street.

A. C. Reed, 350 East Washington street, reported that his tools were stolen from his home Friday night.

WALTERS HELD BY GRAND JURY FOR FIRST DEGREE MURDER

Supported by two court attendants, Husted A. Walters, who shot and killed Patrolman Jerome Palmer Wednesday night, was brought down from the emergency hospital to the municipal court at 11:30 o'clock this morning and arraigned before Judge Rossman on charges of murder and highway robbery. At about the same time the county grand jury reported an indictment against Walters charging first degree murder.

Walters requested the court to appoint an attorney to confer with him as soon as possible. During the reading of the charges Walters said he was listening. He made no comment other than to make this request. Judge Rossman appointed E. F. Mulkey to defend Walters. He is 37 years old.

Whether or not John Tillman, Walters' youthful companion in the case, will be held of age depends on the age of the child. If the court of domestic relations confirms Tillman's statement that he is a juvenile, he will be tried there, but if it is found that he is 18, he will be remanded to the circuit court, where he will be brought before the grand jury.

In the event that the investigation shows his record at home is such that it would be useless to send him to a reformatory, he will then be remanded to the circuit court. The bullet wound usually taken their political advisors of campaign days into the cabinet to help them in the many tangles of politics that come up during the campaign.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

WOUNDED ARM PICTURED

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

DR. OLEVOJ WANTS TO FIGHT AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS UPON SANITARY AT NEW YORK CITY

Roseburg, Nov. 20.—Dr. Esther Pohl Lovejoy, who is here making a fight against the proposed Winchester Tubercular Sanitarium, was much concerned over statements of some members of the Winchester sanitarium which appeared in one of the Portland papers this morning. Her husband, George Lovejoy, is one of the organizers of the sanitarium.

"I have the telegrams mentioned in the transaction said properly today, and am perfectly willing that they should speak for themselves. I did offer to sell my properties at Winchester," she continued, "but I did not understand that they would be considered as my property. For the past three years I have been working for Red Cross organizations. I have been making my living in this way and you know that my Red Cross cannot afford to pay handsome salaries. I am considered as my duty to do all within my power and I remained in the work."

"While I was in New York I received a message stating that there was an attempt to sell the property of the sanitarium for other purposes. I knew that it would be a tuberculosis sanitarium; I do not deny that, but I did not know where it was to be located and did not realize at the time that it would be above the source of the water supply. I needed the money and telegraphed that I would sell."

"A few days later I received a letter giving more details of the plan and I immediately wired that I would not sell until I had inspected the plan more closely. Six months ago I returned to Portland and have since then been fighting the proposed sanitarium. I have a great deal to do with public health work; that is my business. I know that no sanitarium can be built at the place where it is proposed, because it would contaminate the water supply. Even if their system for the disposal of sewage is 100 per cent perfect, which it will not be, there would still be danger, for these patients would be along the river, excreting into the water. As a woman engaged in the medical profession I will do all in my power to prevent such a thing coming into existence."

FLAMES SPREAD RAPIDLY

The tenement house had 100 tenants. The fire was discovered on the first floor. It spread so quickly that Harry Sturken, who turned in the alarm, found escape by the front door blocked by a wall of flame. He climbed out of a ground floor window.

With a roar, the fire swept up the stairway and was soon cracking through the structure from basement to roof. Terrified men, women and children in their night clothing hung screaming from the windows with flames coming up behind them.

Many fled down fire escapes, but others were unable to reach them and remained in the windows until firemen reached them with ladders.

MANY JUMP FROM WINDOWS

Others jumped from the second story windows to the sidewalk, many sustaining slight injuries.

The great crowd watching groaned when they saw the flames. A fireman, who was suddenly vanishing as a flame puffed out through the opening. Firemen reported that other victims appeared to have been trapped in beds. Several charred forms were found huddled at bedroom doors where they had fallen as they were groping their way through the smoke.

Japanese Who Came To U. S. Unlawfully Is Escorted Back

Saneiso Mizuta waved a sad farewell to Oregon this morning and started for the land of the cherry blossoms on the United States Maru, sent thither by the United States that welcomed him not.

Mizuta came to the "land of opportunity" on a merchant vessel from Japan. He was in the United States for a long time, but he was not allowed to stay because he was not a citizen.

Mizuta was a merchant sailor. He was in the United States for a long time, but he was not allowed to stay because he was not a citizen.

Mizuta was a merchant sailor. He was in the United States for a long time, but he was not allowed to stay because he was not a citizen.

Mizuta was a merchant sailor. He was in the United States for a long time, but he was not allowed to stay because he was not a citizen.

REAR END ASKED FOR AID IN ESCAPE FROM HOSPITALS

Salem, Or., Nov. 20.—Extension of the state law providing a penalty for assisting or abetting in the escape of a prisoner from the state penitentiary to cover other state institutions in which patients or inmates are detained is urged by Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital here.

In numerous cases, Steiner points out, friends of patients at the hospital for the insane have aided in the escape of the patient from the institution and the law provides no punishment for this act. Neither is there any provision for a penalty for those who aid in the escape of boys or girls who have been committed to the industrial training schools here nor for aiding the escape of inmates at the state school for feeble minded, a not infrequent occurrence.

Only within the last few days an improvised screw-driver was slipped into one of the walls at the state hospital for the use of a patient confined there in making his escape. The name of the offender is known, but there has been no recourse under the law and the officials are to act in suppressing this practice.

Four workmen lost their lives in Oregon industries during the week ending November 18, according to a summary prepared by the industrial accident commission. They were: Gordon J. Cooch, tinsmith, in Oregon City; Gil E. Tompkins, tractor driver, Bonanza; Ben H. Davis, pondman, Banks; and Clyde Schell, logger, McMinville. The summary shows a total of 542 accidents reported during the week.

Receipts of the state treasurer's department for the week just closed exceeded the estimate made by Tom Kay, former state treasurer, by approximately $19,000,000, according to a summary compiled by James Crawford, deputy treasurer. The receipts for the week were $19,000,000, according to a summary compiled by James Crawford, deputy treasurer. The receipts for the week were $19,000,000, according to a summary compiled by James Crawford, deputy treasurer.

Henry Teal, who purchased the last issue of state highway bonds, a block of $1,500,000 out of the $10,000,000 authorized by the special legislative session, has received $1,500,000. State Treasurer Hoff prepaid himself in the receipts for the biennium as set forth in his report of two years ago, was $22,000,000. Actual receipts of the department in spite of the enormous increase in the volume of the department's business.

The state health officer has no authority to appoint a local registrar of vital statistics for any city or town of 2000 population or over, according to an opinion prepared by the Oregon State Attorney. The health officer has no authority to appoint a local registrar of vital statistics for any city or town of 2000 population or over, according to an opinion prepared by the Oregon State Attorney.

Joe Springer, alleged operator of a still on Ross island, was arrested Thursday and placed in jail upon failure to raise $250 bail. Federal agents, raiding Springer's place, found four gallons of mash and parts of a destroyed still. Springer had a hearing before Commissioner Fraser, at which he served as his own attorney and succeeded in getting a reduction of bail from $500. James Duffy and George Van Auler of Astoria, upon pleading guilty in federal court to the selling of fermented grape juice, were fined $250 each.

No snow on foothills. Practically no snow exists on the foothills of the Cascades, says G. A. Terry and R. E. Smith of Des. Or., who are the forest guards for the area. They accompany the party leaving tonight for the Mount Hood loop road site to lay out campgrounds. The warm rains of the last few days have melted the early fall of snow.

OHIO STATE AND U. OF I. TO BATTLE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP. Urbana, Ill., Nov. 20.—(U. P.)—The western conference football championship will be fought between the University of Illinois and the University of Illinois at the Illinois field. The Buckeyes had the edge in what little betting was going on.

CALIFORNIA AND STANFORD ARE READY FOR BIG CLASH. Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 20.—(U. P.)—Some 30 athletes—ranked as the best players of football on the Pacific coast—will be in the line-up for the championship game of fresh air, talked most anything excepting football and waited patiently for the shrill of the whistle which will start the game. The prize is $10,000 to decide the Pacific coast conference football championship.

WILL GIPP PLAY QUESTION. BOTHERING NORTHWESTERN. Evanston, Ill., Nov. 20.—(I. N. S.)—Will Gipp play or will he not, was the burning question at Northwestern yesterday. The star of the game with Notre Dame. Reports from the camp of the Irish declare that the mighty halfback will not be in the game because of an injured ankle. Notre Dame coaches are inclined to believe that the extent of Gipp's injuries has been over-estimated and that the Notre Dame will win the game.

STAGG'S CRIPPLES GIVE UP HOPE OF BEATING WISCONSIN. Chicago, Nov. 20.—(I. N. S.)—Coach Stagg's crippled Maroons will ring down the curtain on a disastrous season here this afternoon in an attempt to prevent Wisconsin from scoring a victory. Chicago's prospects are overwhelmed by many critics as the strongest and best balanced combination in the Big Ten. The team is in excellent condition.

LITTLE BROWN IS ONLY STAKE IN MINNEAPOLIS GAMES. Minneapolis, Nov. 20.—(I. N. S.)—Minnesota's famous "Little Brown Jug" may change hands here today unless the Gophers pull the unexpected and achieve their first conference victory of the season by defeating Michigan. The Jug, a trophy for which Minnesota and Michigan teams have battled for years, is the only thing at stake in the contest. The Jug is in possession of Minnesota by reason of last year's victory but

Schoolm'am Left Pupils for Hubby; May Lose Papers

Salem, Or., Nov. 20.—Because she married six weeks after the opening of the school term, which she had contracted to teach for a nine months term, and "deserted her school against the wishes of the board," Miss Mary Rollins, now Mrs. S. J. Redding of Grants Pass, Ore., has subjected herself to the revocation of her teacher's certificate for a period of one year. The school board of district No. 60, Coos county, which had employed Miss Rollins, has appealed to J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of instruction, to revoke her certificate, charging that because of her action in ignoring her contract the school has been closed now for more than six weeks, with little prospect of finding another teacher to fill the vacancy at this late date. The state law provides that any teacher who resigns without consent of the school board may be revoked at the discretion of the state superintendent. Mrs. Rollins has already lost her certificate this year.

Jury Acquits Haskin Of Charge of Arson. Heppner, Nov. 20.—The most recent development of the investigation that followed the Boardman fire is the acquittal this week by verdict of a jury in the circuit court here of William Haskin, who was charged with arson. The Ballinger lumber yard and Haskin store at Boardman were destroyed by fire March 16. Then followed an investigation by State Fire Marshal Pomroy, which resulted in the arrest of Haskin on a charge of arson. It was alleged that he set fire to his own store building to collect the insurance. At the trial Haskin testified that a confession to the charge was secured from him by duress. District Attorney Notson of Morrow county and John A. Collier of Portland, special prosecutor, represented the state; attorneys Sam E. Van Vleet and Thomas Garland represented Haskin.

When you install bathroom fixtures you are making a permanent investment. You should be sure that it will be a permanently satisfactory investment, by installing Pacific Plumbing Fixtures.

The simple richness of Pacific Plumbing Fixtures designs insures the lasting popularity. The massive appearance of Pacific Plumbing Fixtures will bespeak immaculate luxury long after less perfectly designed fixtures outlive their fashion period.

They will give a lifetime of service. Every Pacific Plumbing Fixture is guaranteed forever against defects in workmanship and materials.

Although Pacific Plumbing Fixtures have never been surpassed in quality, they cost no more than other reputable brands.

Before building or remodeling you should send for the "Book of Bathrooms"—56 pages of ideas and suggestions that will help you in designing your bathroom. It is free—ask us for it.

PACIFIC PLUMBING FIXTURES FOR SALE BY ALL PLUMBERS

Main Office: 67 New Montgomery Street, San Francisco
Factories: San Pablo and Richmond, California
Branches: Los Angeles, Portland and Salt Lake City
Northwestern Representative, H. L. FRANK, 80 Front Street, Portland, O.

Linoleum Bargains

A number of splendid patterns at a reduction.

Cork Floor Products Co.

202 Broadway at Taylor

Douglas Sheriff Selects Deputies

Roseburg, Nov. 20.—Sam W. Starmer, who was recently elected sheriff of Douglas county, has made known his selection of deputies to assist him in carrying on the office work. Percy Webb will be first deputy, and Robert and William Buzzell were both retained, having acted in this same capacity under Sheriff George Quine. Mrs. Corning C. Alley was also appointed to a position in the tax collector's department. Mrs. Alley was re-elected by a large majority to the office of city treasurer, but will resign to take up her new work at the courthouse.

Young People's Society of St. Stephens Pro-Cathedral will hold its regular weekly meeting in the parish house at 6:30 p. m. The meeting will be led by Miss Claire E. Wilson, who will make the principal talk of the evening on "A Timely Topic."

Dad claims "Bread is the staff of life"—but I know its POST-TASTIES

—says Bobby

Douglas Section of Highway Is Good

Roseburg, Nov. 20.—The Pacific highway in Douglas county is declared to be in good condition for this time of year, according to those who have recently traversed it. Among the motorists who applied through this week in Mrs. F. N. Whitman an order of Astoria, who passed through here today en route south.

Theft of Apples in Transit Is Charged

Homer Bittings of Sioux Falls, S. D., is in jail on failure to furnish $3,000 bail asked by the federal government, which is charging him with the theft of 765 boxes of apples in interstate commerce. Bittings was arrested Friday night. He waived hearing before the commissioner and has asked to be removed to Sioux Falls for trial.

Walters' youthful companion in the case, will be held of age depends on the age of the child. If the court of domestic relations confirms Tillman's statement that he is a juvenile, he will be tried there, but if it is found that he is 18, he will be remanded to the circuit court, where he will be brought before the grand jury.

In the event that the investigation shows his record at home is such that it would be useless to send him to a reformatory, he will then be remanded to the circuit court. The bullet wound usually taken their political advisors of campaign days into the cabinet to help them in the many tangles of politics that come up during the campaign.

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.

As long as he is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court he can only be sent to the reform school in extreme cases. Letters and telegrams will be sent today to ascertain Tillman's age and to determine the bullet wound.