Our great determination to keep up sales volume has placed us in a position where you will undoubtedly benefit financially.

Our cost and selling prices are constantly being altered, not only to meet local conditions and competition, but to set the pace as the leader in used car sales. A very small per cent of the buying public is capable of correctly judging the merits or demerits of an automobile, and it is well to look beyond the price and patient sales talk to the business policy behind the house that is selling the car that interests you.
