

College Prom to Be Held on Next Thursday Night

A DANCE which has created much interest among the college and high school students is the "college prom" to be given Thanksgiving night at the Multnomah. Both ballrooms and tea gardens will be used for this occasion. A committee has been appointed from each of the colleges and high schools to arrange a little program. This is the fourth annual Thanksgiving ball the students have given and they are anticipating a large attendance.

Those in charge are: Curtis Phillips, Alma Schlarf, Ed Miller, Peter Ewinger, Edwin Serr, Mildred Seufert, Hal Garner, Frank Baller, Bert Haynes. Those assisting the different chairmen are: Harlan Gram, Earl Clark, Mildred Lauderbach, Gus Hines, Charles Seaton, Hazel Warden, Elizabeth Wiggins, Peggy Dunsmore, Adele Jones, Dorothy Mitchell, Eva Versteer, Richard Mealy, Edward Stout, Alys Sutton, Arthur Bass, Elsie Clodius, Quincey Muntz, Dorothy Donlon, Dorothy Lyon, Arthur Sutton, Cecil Luna, Albert Dugan, Conrad Robt, Truman Bissell, Edward Burness, Hetra Kinsler, Janet Peters.

An interesting occasion was the reception given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Watson on the occasion of their fortieth wedding anniversary. Four matrons who were guests at the wedding resided in the dining room during the early part of the evening. They were Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. Frank M. Warren and Mrs. J. B. Montgomery. Others who assisted during the evening included Mrs. John S. Parke, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. David Robertson, Mrs. James E. Laidlaw, assisting about the rooms were Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. D. A. Shindler, Mrs. William H. Lines, Mrs. Martin Winch, Mrs. Marion F. Dolph and Mrs. William H. Skene. A group of younger maids assisted with the serving.

A much feted visitor in Portland is Mrs. Robert Sears who with Major Sears and their children will make their home at Tacoma, where the major is stationed at Camp Lewis. During the week Miss Isabella Gould asked a few friends in to meet Mrs. Sears, Mrs. Hall Stoner Lusk entertained her at a luncheon and Mrs. Carl L. Wernicke will entertain her in an informal manner Monday. Mrs. Sears and the children are stopping at the Nortonia for a brief visit.

Mrs. J. C. Olds has as her house guest her daughter, Mrs. L. Robert Gray, and small son, Robert Olds Gray, of San Diego, Cal. Later Mrs. Gray will join Lieutenant Commander Gray, U. S. N., at Annapolis.

Cards have been sent out for a dancing party to be given Wednesday evening, December 1, at Waverley Country club by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob W. Creath and Mr. and Mrs. E. Haney.

Colonel Jack Partello, U. S. A., who is in charge of the military training work at the Oregon Agricultural college, is at the Portland for a few days. Mrs. Partello and two children accompany him.

Miss Alice Kendall was a luncheon hostess Thursday for 10 guests. Mrs. George J. Kendall and her daughter are domiciled for the winter months in the Jay Smith house on Portland Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy R. Fields were hosts for an informal barn dance Saturday evening, entertaining a group of the members of the younger married contingent.

Mr. and Mrs. Chance Calvin Coon (Maxene Schaefer) have returned from their wedding trip to California and are domiciled for the present at Rose Friend apartments.

A Thanksgiving eve dinner dance will be given Wednesday evening at the University club. Dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Katherine Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Graham, has returned from New York city to spend a few weeks.

Mrs. Thomas Kerr (Marian Smith), who has spent the summer and early fall months in Portland, left last week for her home in Tulsa, Okla.

Mrs. Charles P. Berg entertained at bridge Saturday afternoon at her home on Willamette Heights.

Mrs. Julius L. Meier and Mrs. S. J. Mayer were hostesses Saturday for a bridge tea.

Mrs. C. C. Colt was hostess for a luncheon of 18 covers at Waverley Country club Thursday.

MISS HOPE AVERY of New York City, who is the guest of Mrs. J. N. Teal. Miss Avery is a gifted portrait painter and is a member of the American League of Women Portrait Painters and Sculptors.

Mrs. Snedcor Is Entertained at Tea by Mother

MRS. ESTES SNEDECOR (Rachel King), whose marriage was a recent event in Chicago and who returned with her husband from their wedding trip only last week, was the guest of honor Saturday at a tea for which her mother, Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, and sister, Miss Constance King, were hostesses. More than 150 guests called during the afternoon. During the tea hour those who presided in the dining room were: Mrs. H. B. Van Duser, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Thornton T. Munger, Mrs. George Bright, Mrs. Harry Beal Torrey, Mrs. P. P. Dabney and Miss Florence Kiehle. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Agnes Beach, Miss Grace Tucker, Miss Alice Dabney, Miss Constance Cole and Miss Marian Parker. Miss Ethel Crane and Miss Dorothy Jones received the cards at the door.

Miss Josephine R. Cameron was the guest of honor at a shower given in her honor by Mrs. Harriet M. Favorite at the Marlborough apartments last week, previous to her marriage to Augustus M. Mallory, an event of last Wednesday. Mrs. Favorite was assisted by Miss Mest Auter and Mrs. G. N. Percival. Among the guests were: Mrs. Eleanor Cameron, Mrs. G. A. Marshall, Mrs. Anne Stables, Edward Cashion, Mrs. Robert Vaughn of Heppner, Mrs. William Mallory, Mrs. Harriet Mallory, Mrs. Del Wright, Mrs. Ralph Adams, and Misses Mendenia Cameron, Irene Gore, Ganga Wolf, and Margaret Mallory.

Cards have been sent out announcing a series of five dancing and card parties to be given by the trustees of the Ancient and Accepted Order of Scottish Rite at Adelphi cathedral, Morrison and Lowndale streets. The first party will be given Thursday evening, December 3, the second January 6, the others to follow, February 10, March 10 and April 7. Cards will be mailed for those who do not wish to dance.

The list of patronesses announced for the Al Kadet Shrine hall which will be an event of December 3 at Christensen's hall, includes Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lea, Mayor and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Holman, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Boone, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Dammasch, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Green.

Martha Washington Social club will give a bazaar December 2 in Washington Masonic temple, East Eighth and Burnside streets. A public market, delicatessen and home canned fruits will be features of the sale as well as a cafeteria luncheon. Funds will be divided between benevolent work of the order and furnishings for the Masonic and Eastern Star home building.

Mrs. Henry W. Metzger and Miss Maxine Helene Finsen gave a delightful concert for the pleasure of the residents of the Old People's home (Mann home) Tuesday evening. Mrs. John Ross Dickson is chairman of the committee which plans frequent entertainments for the home.

Miss Anita O'Brien of Irvington, who is visiting friends in Chicago and New York, will join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Brien and sister Irene in Los Angeles where they will pass the remainder of the winter at the Hotel Greene in Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes Snedcor (Rachel King) have taken a house at 615 East Fifty-first street north and will occupy it after November 25.

Annual Tea at Patton Home Set For Wednesday

THE Thanksgiving tea, which is an annual affair at Patton home, will be given Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the home. The affair will be sponsored this year by the women of Westminster Presbyterian church and will be the occasion of the donation from guests in attendance of supply of canned fruits and jellies for the residents of the home. Mrs. Frank Paris is chairman of the arrangements for the affair, and Mrs. Charles T. Chamberlain will have charge of the dining room tea service. The program will include numbers by Miss Elizabeth Kirby, Miss Marian Bowman, Miss Helen Davidson, Miss Emilie Paris and others. The affair is open to all friends of the home.

A Thanksgiving dinner dance will be given at the clubhouse of the Portland Hunt club at Garden Home Saturday evening. Dinner will be served at 7:30 and dancing will continue until 11:30 o'clock. Tickets may be secured from James A. Beckett, Mrs. W. U. Sander or Mrs. C. E. Grelle, who have charge of arrangements for the affair.

Kenton club will give its next dancing party Wednesday evening at the clubhouse. Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Hunt will be host and hostess for the evening.

Laurelhurst to Hold Annual Ball At Its Clubhouse

THE annual Thanksgiving ball of the Laurelhurst club will be given this year at the clubhouse instead of at a hotel, as has been the custom. The affair is planned for Wednesday evening and promises to be a brilliant event. The women's progressive unit will give a card party to members and their friends Tuesday afternoon. The same unit and study club will stage their annual vaudeville entertainment at the clubhouse December 3. The women's afternoon card party was held at the clubhouse Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. J. P. Buchanan and Mrs. Esbenshade as hostesses. The high scores in bridge went to Miss Lorna Gamong and Mrs. H. Cloyes, in five hundred to Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Fred Dunham. The dancing party for members only was held at the clubhouse Thursday evening and in spite of the heavy downpour a capacity crowd attended.

Winslow Meade circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will be hosts for a luncheon to be served from 11:30 to 2 o'clock at 525 Courthouse Monday. The affair is open to the public.

The Kappa Psi fraternity will give a banquet Saturday evening in the grill of the Portland. It is expected that there will be about 75 present.

Evening Show Occupies Most Society's Time

THE Night Horse show, which attracted to the city so many interested out-of-town visitors, occupied a considerable part of the attention of society folk last week. The members of the Portland Hunt club, who participated in the performance each evening, were a pleasing addition to the features of the show.

Numerous dinners and supper parties for visitors and for local horse show enthusiasts were attendant functions preceding and following the nightly show. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred F. Smith were dinner hosts, early in the week. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Coe A. McKenna entertained for Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Castlen of Seattle, who were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Matson. Mr. and Mrs. Matt McDougall entertained several times for their guest, Mrs. Grace Maxwell of Denver. Mrs. Wayne W. Keyes of Tacoma was a charming visitor in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Adams of Adams, near Pendleton, have been visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lair Thompson for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe are sending a short time in California. They will return to the city in about a fortnight.

Portland Girl's Wedding in East Announced Here

OF INTEREST to Portland friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Marjorie Simmons of Portland to Mills E. Lawrence Jr. of Frankfort, Va. The young couple met during the war and their marriage is the outcome of wartime romance. Mr. Lawrence was wounded in France and returned to take a vocational course in a government school in Chicago, where they were quietly married November 12. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Simmons of this city and has many friends here. She was graduated from Jefferson high school. Mr. Lawrence and his bride will make their home at Frankfort after February 1.

The Portland chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity announces a dance to be given Friday evening in the assembly room of the Portland.

Mrs. I. N. Lipman entertained at a bridge tea Thursday afternoon at her home in Wayne street.

Mrs. Aaron Frank entertained a group of friends who are members of a study class at luncheon Tuesday.

The employees of Lipman, Wolfe & Co. will give a mask ball at the Multnomah hotel Saturday evening.
