Canteen Service Girls Will Give Benefit Monday

TO BRIGHTEN the long hours of suffering for the ex-service men in local hospitals, the girls of the canteen service will give a benefit dance Monday night at the Pythian temple in Yamhill street.

The affair is sponsored by: Colonel and Mrs. C. E. Dentler, Mayor and Mrs. George L. Baker, Commissioner and Mrs. Mann, Miss Grace Phelps and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Jenkins.

Working hand in hand with the chairman, Mrs. Minnie B. Monroe, are: Mrs. Harry D. Green, Mrs. E. N. Howe, Mrs. L. S. Stearns and Mrs. Raymond Gill.

All funds derived from this dance will be used for ex-service men in the local hospitals.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Goehring was the scene of a pretty wedding on November 2, when their daughter, Leonitha Goehring, became the bride of Randolph R. La Mar. The wedding march was played by Miss Elma Hovdegaard. Dr. William Wallace Youngson officiated. The bride wore a gown of white chiffon and satin. Her veil was arranged in a semi-crown of orange blossoms. Her flowers were bride roses and bouvardia. Miss Esther Goehring, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of pale green taffeta and carried pink carnations. Raymond Paulson was best man. Mr. and Mrs. La Mar will be at home at 534 1/2 South avenue.

Miss Velva Beula Sumerlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Sumerlin of this city, became the bride of Paul A. Lardon of Salem, Or., Sunday morning at the First United Brethren church. The Rev. Byron J. Clark officiated. Mrs. Herbert A. Bailin was matron of honor and Herbert A. Bailin attended the bridegroom. The bride was gowned in ivory satin with rare old lace and carried bride roses and white carnations. Miss Glenda Sumerlin, sister of the bride, sang the wedding hymn, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Clark Embury of Tillamook. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Bailin.

The engagement of Miss Helen Purington to Charles E. Dillman, both of Burns, was announced November 6 at a party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Holland, by their daughter Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman. Cards were played during the early part of the afternoon, and a luncheon served. Covers were laid for 20 guests. Miss Purington is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Purington, both of whom are well known pioneer residents of Harney county. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she was a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Mrs. F. F. Clodius, president of Lincoln-Garfield Relief corps, was a charming hostess Tuesday in her home in Kirby street, honoring the members of the corps. An excellent luncheon was served and the afternoon was spent playing "500." Honors at cards were taken by Mrs. Loretta Hitchcock, Mrs. Helen Otto and Mrs. Fordny.

Miss Clara Burmeister, 750 Thurman, entertained her friends Wednesday, with Miss Marguerite Low as her honored guest. The evening was spent with games and music, followed by a delightful supper served at a beautifully decorated table. Miss Low was showered with dainty gifts.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Barton of Ogdén, Utah, are receiving messages of congratulation from Portland friends on the arrival of a daughter, born to them November 10. Mrs. Barton was Miss Helen Walker before her marriage. She is a daughter of Mrs. C. H. Dexter of this city.

Miss Marian Danley and Miss Vera Johnson sailed recently on the steamship Alaska for San Francisco, where they will be guests of friends and relatives for a short time. From San Francisco they expect to tour Southern California by motor and will be absent from the city several months.

A few of the members of Orpha Rebekah lodge surprised Mrs. Laura Beckner Hoskins Wednesday evening at her home. Mrs. Richmond favored the guests with a reading; others who contributed to the program were, Mrs. Gable, Mrs. Bryson and Lucile Gable.

Mrs. Carl V. Anderson was hostess for an informal tea Friday afternoon at her home in Wedder street. At the tea Mrs. C. S. Fulton and Miss Genevieve Shankland presided at the table. About 20 guests enjoyed the affair.

The Rose City Dancing club, which includes more than 200 of the younger married set, held its regular dance Thursday evening at Christensen's hall. The affair was well attended and was one of the delightful functions of the winter series.

Miss Beth Ludlam has been a visitor in Seattle at the home of Miss Violet Gullford in Shoreland drive. She is expected home this evening after a delightful visit, during which she has been extensively entertained.

Miss Florence Dawson entertained Saturday at the Portland Luncheon Saaturday at the Portland. Covers were placed for 30 at a table made attractive by the use of carnations and ferns.

December 4 has been set for the next Hill Military academy formal hop. The officers, faculty and cadets will be hosts. Invitations will be out this week.

Mrs. Childs, wife of Richard W. Childs, manager of the Portland, has gone to Boise to visit her father, Judge White, for 10 days.

St. Michaels and All Angels church will give its annual bazaar December 2 at Vincent hall, Forty-third street and Sixth boulevard.
