

Knights Templar Give Second of Winter Dances

MRS. E. L. THOMPSON, president of the Portland Opera association, who is much pleased with the cooperation received in arranging for the presentation of Verdi's opera "The Force of Destiny," at the Auditorium on Friday and Saturday nights, December 3 and 4.

Knights Templar Give Second of Winter Dances

THE second of the series of three winter dances, given Wednesday by the Knights Templar at Pythian hall, was a delightful occasion. Card tables were placed for those who did not dance. Guests for the evening included:

- Miss Mildred Porth became the bride of George Cornel of Ashland November 17 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porth of Monroe street. The Rev. Alexander MacLean read the marriage service in the presence of the immediate relatives. Miss Dorothy Gordon of Tacoma was bridesmaid and Wilbur Porth attended the bridegroom. Following the ceremony a reception was held. The bride wore a smart tulle of duvetyne with chic brown hat and a corsage bouquet of violets and Cecil Brunner roses. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Cornel left for Ashland, where the bridegroom is connected with the Southern Pacific.

The marriage of Miss Lola Richey of Marshfield and T. M. Loughlin of this city was quietly solemnized at the parsonage of St. Mary's church Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Jean McLean and Earl Todd attended the bridal couple. Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. I. Loughlin at 871 East Madison street. Mr. and Mrs. Loughlin will make their home in Portland.

The members of Reed College Menorah are being congratulated on the success of the dancing party held at the B'nai B'rith building Saturday evening, for the benefit of suffering Jewish students of Eastern Europe. The patronesses were Mrs. Si Cohen, Mrs. Milton Kahn, Mrs. I. Koshland, Mrs. J. Lauterstein, Mrs. S. W. Ottenheimer, Mrs. M. Reingold, Mrs. Lawrence Selling, Mrs. Z. Swett, Mrs. M. Taylor, Mrs. Sidney Teiser and Mrs. Alex Weinstein. Icea were served.

Of interest to many Portland friends in a recent announcement made by Mrs. J. C. Ford telling of the engagement of her daughter Eunice to Elmer Peabody of Seattle. Miss Ford is a sister of Mrs. Emil Enna of this city, and Dr. and Mrs. Enna with their daughter Ellen will go to Seattle to attend the wedding, which will take place December 4.

Mrs. Percy W. Charlton of Chicago, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Warren Keeler, for several weeks, was honored last week at an informal dance for which Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Beverley were hosts.

Scout Young Auxiliary No. 3, United Spanish War Veterans, will hold their first bazaar Tuesday in the afternoon and evening at 525 Courthouse. Fancy work and aprons suitable for Christmas
