

HARDING REGIME TO PUT MARINE BILL INTO FORCE

(By Universal Service)
Washington, Nov. 23.—One of the first acts of the Harding administration will be to put into effect the provisions of the Jones Merchant Marine act designed to make the American merchant marine a great factor in world trade, but which the present administration has attempted to annul. It was learned today. These provisions are:

First—Section 28, which provides a 10 per cent reduction on interstate railroad rates on goods exported and imported in American ships.

Second—Sec. 24, directing the abrogation of 22 most favored nation commercial treaties which prevent application of the 5 per cent tariff discount on goods carried in American bottoms as provided in the Underwood tariff act.

Discussing the effect of these sections upon American shipping, Representative George W. Edmonds, ranking Republican member of the house mercantile marine committee, said today:

Immediately upon the abrogation of these treaties, the preferential rate would become operative and would mean an addition of 10 per cent ad valorem duty upon all dutiable goods, as a special duty against goods carried in foreign vessels, and would also give a discount of 5 per cent on the customs duties upon goods carried in American vessels.

The Jones bill will not only make American shipping profitable but a popular form of investment. The bill was not drawn with the idea of inviting retaliation from other countries, but with the full purpose of obtaining from our country its fair proportion of the carrying business.

Three Democratic Senators Asked to Confer at Marion

Washington, Nov. 23.—(U. P.)—Harry M. Daugherty, close friend of President-elect Harding, revealed in a statement today that Harding has invited three Democrats to confer with him at Marion during December regarding his new "association of nations" and the future international policy of the United States. They are Senators Reed of Missouri, irreconcilable; Shields of Tennessee, who favored strong reservations, and Pomerehne of Ohio, who in general voted in accord with President Wilson.

The Republican leaders invited for conferences, said Daugherty, include Senators Lodge, Poindexter, Knox, Borah, Johnson and Elihu Root, ex-President Taft, Charles E. Hughes and George W. Wickersham.

Girl Weds Chinese; Father Files Suit

Lewiston, Idaho, Nov. 23.—Nida Olson, who gained notoriety here by marrying a Chinese cook in a local restaurant, returned to Troy, Idaho, with her father, Amil Olson, who filed suit to have the marriage annulled on the grounds that the girl, who is a minor, married without her parents' consent. Affidavits to the effect that the girl is more than 18 the father declares are false.

Sympathizers Hold Memorial for Three Sinn Fein Martyrs

More than 400 Sinn Fein sympathizers were present Monday evening at a memorial meeting held at Elbernia hall in commemoration of the sacrifice of the "Manchester martyrs," Larkin, Allen and O'Brien.

The Rev. Gabriel Harrington of Bend, a former chaplain in the late Lord Mayor MacSwiney's battalion, was an impressive speaker, discussing the strength of the spirit of patriotism which lives in Ireland today.

Father Harrington opened his speech with a brief talk in Gaelic, which was received with enthusiasm. His later remarks were devoted to a sharp grilling of England and the English. He declared the Irish would never give up the struggle until every bit of the soil is free from outside rule.

Two songs in Gaelic, given by Rev. Ambrose Brunton of Roseburg, was received with applause. Other musical numbers, including an Irish step dance by Helen Farrell, completed the program.

Bread Prices Cut By Detroit Bakers

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 23.—(U. P.)—Detroit is to have cheaper bread. At a meeting of grocers and bakers it was decided to reduce the price of the 1½-pound loaf from 18½ to 14½ cents, and the price of the pound loaf from 12 to 11 cents, effective Friday.

BENNETT RESIGNS; TAKES BANK POST

Salem, Nov. 23.—Will H. Bennett, state superintendent of banks, handed his resignation to the state banking board Monday afternoon and will become a vice president of the Inland Empire bank of Pendleton. The resignation is effective December 31. Bennett has become financially interested in the Pendleton institution. He said that his desire to reenter private life was the only reason for his action.

Bennett was appointed state bank superintendent February 11, 1918. Prior to that for two years he was cashier of the Citizens' bank of Portland and before that had been connected with banks in Klamath Falls.

Bennett received his first banking experience at Heppner, in Morrow county. He has a wide acquaintance in Eastern Oregon. It is understood here that his new position carries with it a salary approximately $1000 a year greater than that received by him as state superintendent of banks, which is fixed by law at $5000 a year.

The resignation, although made public only late Monday afternoon, has been in the hands of the state banking board for several days and efforts have been made to find a successor, but without any success as yet, according to members of the board. Commenting on the resignation, a statement was issued by the board which declares that "the resignation of Mr. Bennett as superintendent of banks was entirely voluntary on his part and came as a great surprise to the board."

Brer Rabbit Molasses

Rich with the flavor of the sugar cane

Molasses cookies—with the real old plantation flavor

THE flavor of fresh sugar cane molasses! Twenty-two years ago, two Louisiana boys remembered fondly the goodies made with the sweet juice from the fresh crushed sugar cane that used to bubble over the crackling bonfires down on the old plantation.

Spurred on by delicious memories they determined to restore to the world that bygone delicacy—fresh sugar cane molasses. They put up a molasses so fragrant, so full flavored, so sweet and pure that the first taste carries you back to childhood joys. And they named it Brer Rabbit in honor of the hero in the plantation stories of their childhood.

Today it is the most popular molasses in America.

One taste and you know the difference its old-time flavor makes in cooking. Get Brer Rabbit, either the light molasses (gold label—for table use as well as cooking) or the dark molasses (green label—a stronger flavor for cooking), at your grocer's today. Penick & Ford, Ltd., New Orleans.

Give the children Molasses Cookies

- 1 cup Brer Rabbit Molasses
- 1 tablespoon ginger
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon soda
- ½ cup soft butter
- Flour to make soft dough

Cream butter, add molasses, spices, soda and flour. Roll out one-fourth inch thick and cut in small rounds or fancy shapes. Sprinkle with granulated sugar and bake in a quick oven.
