Slight injuries to valuable men makes the choice uncertain until later developments are watched.

Cub Officials Deny Rumor of Big Trade

Chicago, Nov. 23 .- (I. N. S.) -Officials of the Chicago Cubs vigorously denied today that a trade is in prospect whereby Grover Alexander, pitcher; Charles Hollocher, shortstop, and a couple of un-named Cabs were to be traded to Cin-cinnati for Heinie Groh, Dutch Reuther, Earle Neale and Larry Kopf. "We would not trade Alexander and Hollocher for the whole Cincinnati team." Johnny Seys, secretary of the Cubs, said.

It was admitted, however, that several deals are in the fire by which it is hoped to give Johnny Evers, new Cub manager, a stronger team to pilot than Fred Mitchell, his predecessor, had.

This Finer Hosiery Service in Your Home Store

CEW men pretend to know much about fabric and weave.

Clothes they buy with certainty because accepted standard brands are to be had everywhere—and the merchants carrying these brands are known all over town.

Why not the same service in Hosiery?

Why the mixed stocks in the average store—the odd lots and medley of brands?

The merchant should visualize the buying needs and wishes of the busy man of today.

He should know that thousands of dealers have already standardized their Hosiery stock—to the great satisfaction of their customers and the consequent benefit of their own good will.

· Buying direct from the Allen A Mills-who have been supplying their famous Black Cat Hosiery to retail dealers direct for thirty years.

Silk, lisle, wool, cotton-for men, women and children. Full size, full length, of uniform quality and dependable value.

This exceptional hosiery will in the future bear the additional mark, "Allen A" - the Maker's personal pledge of responsibility to you.

"Allen"—the name of the Makers; and "A"-the standard mark of first and finest grade.

This means that you can go into the store any time and get just the kind of hosiery you want. The same kind every time-and quickly.

A service that the dealer certainly owes his customers.
