

All-Star Football Team
The Pacific coast conference football season is ended.

It's All Here and It's All True
THE WEATHER—Tonight and Thursday, occasional rain; easterly winds.

VOL. XIX. NO. 222. Entered as Second Class Matter Postoffice, Portland, Oregon

PORTLAND, OREGON, WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 24, 1920.—FOURTEEN PAGES

PRICE TWO-CENTS ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS FIVE CENTS

DOUGHTY ON WAY EAST TO 'FACE MUSIC'

Former Private Secretary, Wanted in Toronto in Connection With Disappearance of Millionaire, Spends Night in Local Hotel.

Apparently eager to get back to Toronto "to face the music," John Doughty, accused of embezzlement of a fortune in bonds and possibly with the kidnaping of Ambrose Small, "vanished millionaire," boarded a North Bank train for Spokane at 9 o'clock this morning in the custody of Austin Mitchell, chief of detectives of Toronto.

Doughty, who was arrested at Oregon City Monday night, was brought to Portland Tuesday afternoon by Mitchell, who refused to avail himself of the hospitality of the Portland jails.

Doughty talks freely. But they were found by journal representatives at the hotel Tuesday night. Doughty, apparently cheerful, talked freely about everything except the mysterious disappearance of his employer, Ambrose Small.

It was made plain by Mitchell that he did not propose to enter any personal claim for a share of the $15,000 reward offered by Mrs. Small for the apprehension of Doughty.

"In my opinion the boys who deserve the money are Ed Richardson and Constable Ed Fortune of Oregon City," Mitchell told newspaper men just before he boarded the train. "The award doubtless will be made by a board at Toronto, but I probably will be asked for my opinion, inasmuch as I have been on the ground and understand the circumstances of the arrest."

Richardson, known as "Three Fingers Jack," is the man who first suspected "Charles Cooper," the Oregon City fugitive, in the case of the Toronto millionaire, and trailed him. He then turned the case over to Fortune who shadowed "Cooper" until he was arrested in his own mind. He was the man wanted. Then he telegraphed the Toronto police, resulting in the journey made by Mitchell.

"It's in the line of the gods," Doughty thus answered a question as to how he would present his case once brought face to face with the charge under which he is now a prisoner at a bar of justice in Toronto.

His words mean exactly nothing. They are what he intended to convey, a superficial reply to a question which he declined to answer.

"How's that, chief?" he asked, with a friendly smile, as he turned to Detective Austin Mitchell of the Toronto bureau of police.

"Fine. I'll bet I know where you got that expression. And it looks like you (Continued on Page Two, Column One)

LIQUORING NET ENMESHES POLICE

Chicago, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—A blanket indictment charging 31 persons, including members of the Chicago police force and two Kentucky distillers with conspiracy to defeat federal enforcement of prohibition, was returned by the federal grand jury today in the $1,000,000 whiskey ring case unearched a month ago.

Among the 31 men indicted are O. H. Wathen, Louisville, Ky., president of the Old Grand Dam distillery; H. D. Knebelcamp, who is connected with the Old distillery; "Jim" O'Leary, widely known Chicago saloonkeeper and gambler; Michael "Mike De Pike" Heitler and Edward Smale, George Hansel, Eugene McCaffery and Timothy Judge, Chicago detective sergeants.

Grecian Soldiers Revolt in Asia
London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

CAPTOR AND CAPTIVE OFF FOR TORONTO

LIKE a couple of good friends starting on a business trip, John Doughty (at left) and Austin Mitchell (at right) boarded a North Bank train this morning on way to Canadian city, where Doughty must face charges of the theft of $100,000 in Victory bonds and possibly even more serious charges in connection with the disappearance of Ambrose Small, millionaire theatrical magnate. The detective has followed countless futile clues in an international search for Doughty, who was arrested at Oregon City Monday night.

AUSTRIA, BULGARIA, URGED AS MEMBERS

Geneva, Nov. 24.—(U. P.)—Immediate admission of Austria and Bulgaria was recommended to the League of Nations assembly today by the commission on membership.

The commission withheld recommendations for a number of small European states until conditions are stabilized and recognition has been accorded by nearby powers.

Those states favored for membership in today's report are Austria, Bulgaria, Finland, Albania and Luxembourg.

The petitions of Latvia, Lithuania, Ukraine and Estonia were held over. Affairs in the Baltic region are too chaotic to permit favorable action now, the commission decided.

Speaking before the sixth commission, Leon Bourgeois, France, declared France cannot disarm until Germany has been compelled to fulfill all conditions of the Versailles treaty. Germany, he admitted, has begun disarmament, but has not completed it.

Before disarming, France will await the report of a military commission which will meet in Geneva to prepare a disarmament plan, he said. This plan will take into consideration the geographical and special conditions in each country, Bourgeois said.

In order to emphasize the international character of the commission, the Lithuanian plebiscite, the league council has invited the Scandinavian countries to send small detachments of gendarmes.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

Turkey Costs Dollar More Than in 1919

Chicago, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Despite recent drops in prices of some foodstuffs, a Thanksgiving dinner here will cost approximately $1 more than it did in 1919, according to estimates supplied by leading grocers.

Turkeys are higher this year, the average price being 57 cents per pound as against 50 cents per pound a year ago.

New York Price Jumps
New York, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Although turkeys in the New York market are more plentiful than they have been since 1910, the price jumped to 65 cents a pound today, which is 15 per cent higher than last Thanksgiving.

Seattle, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The ideal turkey known as fat is bringing 55 cents a pound to consumers here today. Second class and thin birds are retailing at 50 cents.

San Francisco Top Price
San Francisco, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Family turkeys of the best grades brought 70 cents a pound at the leading markets today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

ATTEMPTED CABLE HALTED BY U. S.

Miami, Fla., Nov. 24.—(U. P.)—An armed force of the United States today frustrated an attempt by the Western Union Telegraph company to lay its cable across Biscayne bay, between Miami and Maimi Beach.

A force of 15 men was working on the cable when an armed patrol from submarine chaser No. 154 intervened and the workmen under armed guard. One man was released to return to Western Union headquarters for instructions.

New York Price Jumps
New York, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Although turkeys in the New York market are more plentiful than they have been since 1910, the price jumped to 65 cents a pound today, which is 15 per cent higher than last Thanksgiving.

Seattle, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The ideal turkey known as fat is bringing 55 cents a pound to consumers here today. Second class and thin birds are retailing at 50 cents.

San Francisco Top Price
San Francisco, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Family turkeys of the best grades brought 70 cents a pound at the leading markets today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

London, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—The Greek troops that were sent into Asia Minor to fight the Turkish nationalists have revolted, according to an Exchange Telegraph from Smyrna today.

Warrants Not Paid; County Keeps Money
The exchequer of Multnomah county is ahead to the extent of $392 on account of warrants for small amounts issued more than seven years ago that have never been presented for payment.

PITTOCK LOST $250,000 IN RANGE DEAL

F. W. Leadbetter, Son-in-Law, Testifies in His Suit to Get Paper Shares That He Tried To Save Publisher From Loss.

Henry L. Pittock might have saved at least $250,000 in cold cash if he had taken the advice of his son-in-law, Fred W. Leadbetter, and kept out of a big sheep ranch deal in Eastern Oregon, according to Leadbetter's testimony in Circuit Judge Tucker's court this morning.

This was given in the suit wherein Leadbetter is trying to secure a court order requiring the administrator of the Pittock estate to sell him shares in the Crown-Willamette Pulp & Paper company. He claims to have had a verbal contract with Pittock to the effect that he was to have the privilege of buying these shares at any time he was in a position to do so, on the payment of the purchase price and 6 per cent interest.

They were shares, Leadbetter claims, he had previously sold to Pittock when the latter was made a stockholder in the company, and accretions after that date, all coming under the same alleged verbal agreement made April 1, 1910.

PITTOCK LOST $250,000
Leadbetter said he had advised Pittock to keep out of the sheep ranch deal, but against his advice Pittock went into it, became greatly entangled and finally had to pay out $250,000 to get matters straightened out.

Leadbetter, who was on the witness stand most of the forenoon, endeavored in his testimony to establish the unique value of the paper company stock to him in its relation to its voting power with other stock.

The will of Pittock was introduced to show the disposition he had made of the stock in question. It was included in the properties that were placed in a 20-year trust.

Although Leadbetter on the previous day had declared that he had conducted business affairs continuously with Pittock since his marriage to Pittock's daughter, he stated that he had never had any written contracts between them, the defense this morning introduced a written contract between them for the transfer of timber to the property in Vancouver and also in Portland, wherein it was provided that Leadbetter was to receive any profits over $400,000.

LETTERS INTRODUCED
The defense in its attempt to show that Pittock did not have full confidence in Leadbetter in connection with business deals, introduced two letters from Pittock, sent from California in 1911 to C. M. Morden, manager of the Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian.

In one of these letters he said that he was gravely concerned about Leadbetter's ability to pay his financial obligations and that Pittock feared he would have to give transfer of timber to the property in Vancouver and also in Portland, wherein it was provided that Leadbetter was to receive any profits over $400,000.

LETTERS INTRODUCED
The defense in its attempt to show that Pittock did not have full confidence in Leadbetter in connection with business deals, introduced two letters from Pittock, sent from California in 1911 to C. M. Morden, manager of the Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian.

In one of these letters he said that he was gravely concerned about Leadbetter's ability to pay his financial obligations and that Pittock feared he would have to give transfer of timber to the property in Vancouver and also in Portland, wherein it was provided that Leadbetter was to receive any profits over $400,000.

LETTERS INTRODUCED
The defense in its attempt to show that Pittock did not have full confidence in Leadbetter in connection with business deals, introduced two letters from Pittock, sent from California in 1911 to C. M. Morden, manager of the Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian.

In one of these letters he said that he was gravely concerned about Leadbetter's ability to pay his financial obligations and that Pittock feared he would have to give transfer of timber to the property in Vancouver and also in Portland, wherein it was provided that Leadbetter was to receive any profits over $400,000.

LETTERS INTRODUCED
The defense in its attempt to show that Pittock did not have full confidence in Leadbetter in connection with business deals, introduced two letters from Pittock, sent from California in 1911 to C. M. Morden, manager of the Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian.

In one of these letters he said that he was gravely concerned about Leadbetter's ability to pay his financial obligations and that Pittock feared he would have to give transfer of timber to the property in Vancouver and also in Portland, wherein it was provided that Leadbetter was to receive any profits over $400,000.

LETTERS INTRODUCED
The defense in its attempt to show that Pittock did not have full confidence in Leadbetter in connection with business deals, introduced two letters from Pittock, sent from California in 1911 to C. M. Morden, manager of the Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian.

In one of these letters he said that he was gravely concerned about Leadbetter's ability to pay his financial obligations and that Pittock feared he would have to give transfer of timber to the property in Vancouver and also in Portland, wherein it was provided that Leadbetter was to receive any profits over $400,000.

LETTERS INTRODUCED
The defense in its attempt to show that Pittock did not have full confidence in Leadbetter in connection with business deals, introduced two letters from Pittock, sent from California in 1911 to C. M. Morden, manager of the Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian.

In one of these letters he said that he was gravely concerned about Leadbetter's ability to pay his financial obligations and that Pittock feared he would have to give transfer of timber to the property in Vancouver and also in Portland, wherein it was provided that Leadbetter was to receive any profits over $400,000.

LETTERS INTRODUCED
The defense in its attempt to show that Pittock did not have full confidence in Leadbetter in connection with business deals, introduced two letters from Pittock, sent from California in 1911 to C. M. Morden, manager of the Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian.

In one of these letters he said that he was gravely concerned about Leadbetter's ability to pay his financial obligations and that Pittock feared he would have to give transfer of timber to the property in Vancouver and also in Portland, wherein it was provided that Leadbetter was to receive any profits over $400,000.

LETTERS INTRODUCED
The defense in its attempt to show that Pittock did not have full confidence in Leadbetter in connection with business deals, introduced two letters from Pittock, sent from California in 1911 to C. M. Morden, manager of the Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian.

In one of these letters he said that he was gravely concerned about Leadbetter's ability to pay his financial obligations and that Pittock feared he would have to give transfer of timber to the property in Vancouver and also in Portland, wherein it was provided that Leadbetter was to receive any profits over $400,000.

LETTERS INTRODUCED
The defense in its attempt to show that Pittock did not have full confidence in Leadbetter in connection with business deals, introduced two letters from Pittock, sent from California in 1911 to C. M. Morden, manager of the Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian, and who now resides in Oregonian.

FESTAL BOARD WEIGHTED FOR THANKSGIVING

Portland Eagerly Awaiting Hour for the Attack on National Bird; Churches to Offer Thanks for Temporal Blessings

Portland's festal boards, weighted with choice viands, are eagerly awaited in Portland today. The Thanksgiving spirit is abroad, appetites are being sharpened for the attack of the national bird Thursday, and religious circles are imbued with reverence for the day when thanks will be offered for temporal blessings.

Absence of any extreme cases of poverty in Portland has made the work of charitable institutions comparatively light this year, but in the survey of the needy family circles no one is being overlooked.

A large number of union or community church services have been announced, where the offering will in a great many cases be given to the Near East committee to help relieve the starving and shivering Armenians.

Owing to the high price of turkeys the bird will probably be missing on many a family table, but in its place will be found plenty to supply the cravings of even the most ravenous boy.

GAME IS MAGNET
Outstanding public features of the day will be the football game between the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club and Oregon Agricultural college on Multnomah field, about 4 o'clock.

Those who expect to travel to the country by auto tonight will find the gasmen had better run the machine around to the filling station early. Associated Standard and Shell Oil company stations will close at 1 o'clock, while Union Oil company employees will be off at noon.

All public buildings, courts, banks, schools, stores and other places of business will be closed at noon. Public schools will remain closed until Monday.

TO FEED NEWSIES
Eric V. Hauser, proprietor of the Multnomah hotel, has not forgotten the day when he was hungry newsie, so he has invited Portland's 400 newsboys to his guests Thanksgiving day noon at the hotel. Turkey and everything else newsies boys could ask for will be on the table.

A well known woman, whose name is (Continued on Page Two, Column Five)

HARDING ABOARD MINE SWEEPER

Christobal, C. Z., Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Making his first inspection trip through the Panama canal, President-elect Warren G. Harding today greeted canal employees in overalls and high officials in spick and span white suits alike.

When several engineers and others, with greasy hands, hesitated to shake hands, Senator Harding said, "That's all right, I'm not here to be clean myself," and proceeded to grip greetings all around.

TO INSPECT LOCK
The Harding party left Cristobal early today aboard a mine sweeper, traveling far as the Panama canal, where Governor Harding of the canal zone and the president-elect may make a brief speech.

The Harding party will remain at Ancon until Friday. On Thursday the senator plans to play golf in the morning and have dinner with the president and have dinner with the president in a formal call.

Friday he will have another round of golf and in the afternoon inspect canal fortifications.

The tropical heat is not bothering the president-elect a bit, but Mrs. Harding says she would like it better if it were not so hot. But she is standing up to the weather.

Canal zone employees have asked a conference with Senator Harding to seek higher wages and better working conditions.

TO INSPECT LOCK
The Harding party left Cristobal early today aboard a mine sweeper, traveling far as the Panama canal, where Governor Harding of the canal zone and the president-elect may make a brief speech.

The Harding party will remain at Ancon until Friday. On Thursday the senator plans to play golf in the morning and have dinner with the president and have dinner with the president in a formal call.

Friday he will have another round of golf and in the afternoon inspect canal fortifications.

The tropical heat is not bothering the president-elect a bit, but Mrs. Harding says she would like it better if it were not so hot. But she is standing up to the weather.

Canal zone employees have asked a conference with Senator Harding to seek higher wages and better working conditions.

TO INSPECT LOCK
The Harding party left Cristobal early today aboard a mine sweeper, traveling far as the Panama canal, where Governor Harding of the canal zone and the president-elect may make a brief speech.

The Harding party will remain at Ancon until Friday. On Thursday the senator plans to play golf in the morning and have dinner with the president and have dinner with the president in a formal call.

Athens Greet Royal Princes' Return With Loud Acclaim

By Sir Percival Phillips
Athens, Nov. 24.—Prince Constantine of Greece, brother of ex-King Constantine, accompanied by his American wife, the former Mrs. William B. Leeds, arrived in Athens today and were given a tumultuous greeting.

Prince Andrew has also arrived from Switzerland. Christopher and Andrew are the first of the exiled Greek princes to return home since former Premier Venizelos was put out of power by the monarchists in the general election.

When they arrived at the railway station they were seized by enthusiastic friends and carried shoulder-high to the street. A large crowd filled the streets. The princes were pelted with flowers. Buildings were decorated with flags and there was a procession with brass bands.

A member of the Rhaillac cabinet states that Constantine will soon return from Lucerne. Belief is growing in official circles that Great Britain will persuade France not to undertake drastic interference in Greek affairs when Constantine comes back.

Former Rhaillac believes that there will be no international dispute over the return of Constantine.

"I hope for a successful result of our negotiations with the powers," said the premier.

AT LONDON CONFERENCE
Athens, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Premier Rhaillac announced today that he will leave for London at the end of this week, to confer with Premier Lloyd George of England, Premier Leygues of France and Premier Giolitti of Italy. The conference will deal with the Turkish treaty, the future activities of the Greek troops in Turkey and possibly the return of Constantine.

EX-KING EXPECTS TO TAKE THRONE BEFORE CHRISTMAS
Lucerne, Nov. 24.—(I. N. S.)—Ex-King Constantine anticipates the recovery of his royal powers in Greece before Christmas, it was stated by members of his entourage today. In the belief that he will soon be the reigning sovereign at Athens, Constantine has appointed his brother, Prince Christopher, Greek viceroy of Smyrna. Prince Christopher's wife before her marriage was Mrs. William B. Leeds of New York and Cleveland.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, replying for the government, asserted American correspondents dispatched distorted stories of atrocities in Ireland. He declared some American correspondents were enjoying the hospitality of "Irish murder gangs," and sending back home stories to injure Anglo-American relations.

Senator Harding of the canal zone and the president-elect may make a brief speech. The Harding party will remain at Ancon until Friday. On Thursday the senator plans to play golf in the morning and have dinner with the president and have dinner with the president in a formal call.

Friday he will have another round of golf and in the afternoon inspect canal fortifications.

The tropical heat is not bothering the president-elect a bit, but Mrs. Harding says she would like it better if it were not so hot. But she is standing up to the weather.

Canal zone employees have asked a conference with Senator Harding to seek higher wages and better working conditions.

TO INSPECT LOCK
The Harding party left Cristobal early today aboard a mine sweeper, traveling far as the Panama canal, where Governor Harding of the canal zone and the president-elect may make a brief speech.

The Harding party will remain at Ancon until Friday. On Thursday the senator plans to play golf in the morning and have dinner with the president and have dinner with the president in a formal call.

Friday he will have another round of golf and in the afternoon inspect canal fortifications.

The tropical heat is not bothering the president-elect a bit, but Mrs. Harding says she would like it better if it were not so hot. But she is standing up to the weather.

Canal zone employees have asked a conference with Senator Harding to seek higher wages and better working conditions.

TO INSPECT LOCK
The Harding party left Cristobal early today aboard a mine sweeper, traveling far as the Panama canal, where Governor Harding of the canal zone and the president-elect may make a brief speech.

The Harding party will remain at Ancon until Friday. On Thursday the senator plans to play golf in the morning and have dinner with the president and have dinner with the president in a formal call.

Friday he will have another round of golf and in the afternoon inspect canal fortifications.

The tropical heat is not bothering the president-elect a bit, but Mrs. Harding says she would like it better if it were not so hot. But she is standing up to the weather.

Canal zone employees have asked a conference with Senator Harding to seek higher wages and better working conditions.

TO INSPECT LOCK
The Harding party left Cristobal early today aboard a mine sweeper, traveling far as the Panama canal, where Governor Harding of the canal zone and the president-elect may make a brief speech.

The Harding party will remain at Ancon until Friday. On Thursday the senator plans to play golf in the morning and have dinner with the president and have dinner with the president in a formal call.

Friday he will have another round of golf and in the afternoon inspect canal fortifications.

FIVE INJURED IN S. P. WRECK NEAR SALEM

Heavy Fog Obscures View of Flagman at Switch; Conductor Strange and Fireman McIvor Are Two Most Seriously Hurt.