gardt and City Attorney La Roche were instructed to report Saturday morning. Technical error in one of the bonds was the reason given for the delay in awarding the bid.

Four tenders were made for the construction of the shed. The Inland Construction company, represented by Tom Sweeney, was the low bid, that being for $181,364.60. The next lowest bid was by Le Doux, Schwab & Cox for $181,894. Tranchell & Parelius placed a figure at $181.969. Teller & Allyn hit the high mark of $183,461.

The last two bidders were competitors in the original call for bids. All bids were denied and on new advertisement were opened this morning.

In the matter of the condemnation of the Taylor street dock, Oak street, the Panama Cooperage, Pacific dock and the wharf of the Oregon Sheet Metal Works a postponement was called until Thursday, December 2. This action was taken by the board to give al owners an opportunity to appear. Th estimate of Engineer Hegardt showed that the depreciation on these docks ranged from 44 to 60 per cent.
