MARSHAL STORIE

Albany, Or., Nov. 27 .- M. Storie, aged 78, marshal at Sweet Home, died at his residence Thursday night at 10 o'clock, death, it is said, being due to injuries received September 6 in a battle with James Ward and Robert Bruce, whom he was trying to arrest at a Sweet Home hotel. Although officials have said that they are undecided as to the course they will pursue, they announced that both Ward and Bruce will be brought before the grand jury.

Storie had been a resident of Sweet Home for 25 years. He is survived by his wife; a daughter, Mrs. William Daugherty, and two sons, Ed and Parmer Storie, all of Sweet Home. The funeral was held Saturday.

The battle in which he received his fatal injury occurred after he had atorderly conduct while the latter was

GETS LETTER FROM WILSON

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON

Ootober 26, 1920.

Ly dear young friend:

It gives me pleasure to tell you of my deep appreciation of the intelligent and conscientious manner in which you, as a member of the Boy Scouts of America, have secured subscriptions for Thrift and War-Savings Stamps.

You have won the distinction of having secured more such subscriptions during the 1918 War-Savings campaign than any other scout in your State.

You have exercised courage, courtesy, thought and untiring effort and in so doing have set an example for all boys - an example that will surely aid in the growth of valuable qualities of mind and heart.

I thank you in the name of the whole country, and I wish to convey to your parents, your community, and your Boy Scout Organization, my appreciation of the training that has developed in you such a fine spirit of wholesome and loyal citizenship.

Cordially and sincerely yours,

Master R. Ottenheimer, Portland, Oregon.
