Advertising Must Be Backed By Service

DR. A. G. AUSPLUND, MGR.

We Are Open Evenings

Advertising is an important part of every live business, BUT ONLY A PART.

The man who imagines it is only necessary to place an advertisement in the papers to make his business a success has a rude awakening coming to him.

Even when properly done, advertising is merely a bid for patronage; if it brings inquiries it has done its part, although it does frequently clinch sales as well.

To interest people the advertisement must, first of all, RING TRUE; it must be believed. It must convey a message that pictures the "goods" advertised clearly; it must, awaken a desire to possess, convince that both goods and price are right, and either directly or indirectly point out how the articles may be secured without too much effort.

Claims made in Dental Advertising must be made 100 per cent good. Promises, direct or implied, in the advertising done by this office are as carefully and conscientiously made as if they were being written into a legal contract.

"Painless Extractions," "Experienced, Careful Operators," "Standard Materials," "Sanitary Precautions," "Guaranteed Work" and "Modest Prices" mean exactly what the words imply.

Gas Administered When Requested

My quality has stood the test. Thousands have found it permanent. How else could I personally guarantee it for 10 years? Quality dentistry does not always mean extremely high fees. My low fees are within reach of all; merely a fair profit on your work.
